Georgia Phi Home Honors Bobby Jones

*By James Hicks
Ga. Phi '44*

ALUMNI and active members of Georgia Phi at Georgia School of Technology in Atlanta, Ga., experienced a "red-letter" day, April 18, when the chapter's beautiful new home, "Bobby Jones Hall," was dedicated in honor of Robert Tyre Jones, II, Ga. Φ '22, Sigma Alpha Epsilon's world famous golfer.

Prominent alumni of Atlanta and surrounding territory gathered at the chapter house on the afternoon of April 18th for a house warming and for the formal inspection and dedication of "Bobby Jones Hall." The active chapter served as host and was assisted by the house mother, Mrs. Frances Eanes, and the officers of the Minerva Club.

Members of the Georgia Tech chapter resided in a rented house last fall when the new house was being constructed on Fourth street. The new house is made of red brick and designed in the Greek revival style of architecture. Most impressive are the four graceful Ionic columns supporting the portico.

The rooms on the first floor of the two and three story structure are tinted Williamsburg green. The entrance hall bears the ΣAE letters on the black and white marbled floor. The chapter room at the left of the entrance hall and the living room on the right have beautiful brick fireplaces and the rooms are decorated similarly with burgundy rugs and draperies, printed in tones of rose-beige, brown and green. The furniture is made up of flowered and solid-color chairs in harmonizing shades, Williamsburg green sofas and rose-beige love seats.

At the end of the hall is the recreation room which is tinted in canary yellow, and leads off to the left to the house mother's suite and on the right to the officers' quarters. The top floor includes ten bedrooms with a lavatory in each and two baths with three showers each.

The dining room at the back overlooks a terrace which can be reached by double French doors. The dining room is equipped with attractive knotty pine tables and chairs.

The Chapter Room Showing Patio and the Statue of Minerva.

DOWN Dixie way on April 20th Georgia Psi of Mercer University dedicated its new fraternity lodge at Macon. It was the first in the new fraternity row on the campus.

Starting the festivities was an initiation conducted by Lauren Foreman, E.S.R. The neophytes inducted were James Culpepper of Tifton and Billy Fisher of Macon. Immediately following this the chapter and out-of-town guests attended the Sunday morning services at the First Baptist Church.

In the afternoon, the building was the scene of a very impressive dedication ceremony. Dr. Spright Dowell, university president, dedicated the building and it was accepted on behalf of Georgia Psi by Raymond O'Quinn, E.A., and E.S.R. Foreman on behalf of the Fraternity. Others included on the program were Cobb C. Torrance, E.S.W., of Atlanta, and Walter Grace Sr., Ga. Ψ '15, who spoke for the Macon Alumni Association.

Later in the afternoon the recently organized Minerva Club entertained the chapter, Macon alumni and out-of-town guests with a reception.

The lodge, located on the west side of the campus, was completed in late January.

Made of red brick, it is of modern design. Floor length windows are featured throughout the house. The beamed ceiling is unique and is used in the living room and chapter room, along with brick walls. The card room is paneled and the ceiling is of imported grass matting.

At the south end of the structure is a walled-in patio which includes a pool reflecting the statue of Minerva, gift of E.S.R. Foreman. At night indirect lighting is used upon the statue.

The dedication of the lodge climaxed one of the best years in the history of Georgia Psi.

New Home for Louisiana Epsilon

*By Julius C. Hydrick
La. Epsilon '40*

CONSTRUCTION of a new home for Louisiana Epsilon at Louisiana State University got under way July 1 and every effort is being made to have the beautiful home completed for occupancy as early in the fall as possible.

The cornerstone for the new home was laid at the Founders Day celebration in Baton Rouge, March 9. The cornerstone for the new house on Fraternity Row was placed by William S. Slaughter, La. E '98, charter member, and by the chapter's youngest member, Claude Campbell.

The main floor of the new home will contain a lounge, dining room, library, reception hall, a guest bedroom, powder room, tack room, kitchen and pantry. The second floor will contain three study rooms, a chapter room, officer's bedroom, locker rooms, shower rooms and a dormitory to accommodate twenty persons.

The home in Mediterranean architecture will cost $30,000, which is the maximum allowed under Louisiana State University regulations. A mortgage loan of $20,000 has been guaranteed by the university. A loan of $4,000 to the Louisiana Epsilon Home Corporation of Baton Rouge has been endorsed by twenty alumni in Baton Rouge, New Orleans and Plaquemine. From October, 1940, to June, 1941, $6,220 in cash was raised from subscriptions. This included: Baton Rouge and vicinity, $1,820; New Orleans, $920; Lake Charles, $420; Alexandria, $345; Shreveport, $455; Monroe, $320; small towns, $150; out-of-state, $1,210; active chapter, $580. The total funds available are $30,220.

The building committee consists of the following: W. Prescott Foster, Va. O '11, La. E '13; Judge Alfred K. Nippert, Ohio E '94; Elemore M. Morgan, La. E '26. The Louisiana Epsilon Home Corporation officers are W. P. Barnes, Jr., La. E '12, president; James H. McGuirt, La. E '31, secretary; Gordon M. Ronaldson, La. E '18, treasurer.

Maine Alpha Remodels Colonial Home

Maine Alpha at the University of Maine Presents Its Remodeled Home: Center Shows Improvements Made on Exterior of House. Interior Views Show Alterations and Renovations

Which Transform the House so Completely as to Make It Practically New. Modernization Started Last Winter and Was Completed during the Summer Months.

By Robert A. Elwell
Maine Alpha '42

FACE lifting of the exterior of the chapter house and complete remodeling of the interior have brought Maine Alpha a new home at the University of Maine. The modernized house built on a colonial design compares favorably with any house on the campus.

Maine Alpha's long wish for a new home finally became an established reality in December when the alterations and renovations transformed the house so completely as to make it practically new. The first floor was entirely remodeled and the exterior received a face lifting. The work was under the direction of Alonzo P. Harriman, Maine A '20, architect. Although remodeling progressed rapidly the members endured chilly days and nights during the construction.

In keeping with the colonial scheme, the old porch was removed and an attractive brick porch with a wrought iron railing was added. The second floor bay windows were replaced and other evidences of outdated "gingerbread" were eliminated.

A new fireplace was constructed on the first floor and the lobby was increased in size. An oak paneled lounge has taken the place of the old trophy room. An automatic dry sprinkler system was installed throughout the house. Other improvements include new composition ceilings, a new entrance, new floors, repainting and repapering and beautiful draperies. Chair rails now run through the entire floor and strike a contrasting note with the robin's egg blue wallpaper in the lobby and the living room, and the bright yellow and white lined paper in the dining room. The removal of the partition which divided the hall from the dining room is a vast improvement and the large new doors installed at both entrances to the dining room create an atmosphere of intimacy when closed and, when open, serve to make the entire main floor an excellent spacious place for dances.

Even before all the major alterations were begun, a long step in the chapter house improvements was taken when a much needed game room was built in the basement. This move utilized an area which was entirely wasted.

The building committee consisted of Parker N. Moulton, '42, and Earle L. Ingalls, '41, of the active chapter, and alumni Philips J. Brockway, '31; Fred P. Loring, '16, chapter adviser, and "Pat" M. Dorsey, '16. Much credit is given this committee for its hard work and original ideas. Maine Alpha has a "new home" after thirty-seven years. The chapter looks forward to returning this fall.

Mississippi Gamma Pays Off House Debt

By Robert A. May
Miss. Gamma '43

MISSISSIPPI GAMMA celebrated the retirement of the debt on its house, Dawson Hall, with a formal dedication of its house on the campus of the University of Mississippi over the weekend of May 3-4.

On the afternoon of May 3rd the members of the chapter entertained their dates, visiting brothers and other guests at a tea dance from four to five-thirty o'clock. The chapter's annual White Ball was held in the University Gymnasium at 8:00 P.M.

The next day the dedication ceremony took place in the lounge room of the chapter house at 3:00 P.M. Allen Bridgeforth, Miss. Γ '12, Va. O '16, made the dedicatory address. Following the address there was an open house for the faculty and student body of the University of Mississippi. The dedicatory ceremony was preceded by a banquet for the members of the chapter, visiting alumni and guests. There, on behalf of the chapter, T. K. Williams, E. A., Miss. Γ '41, presented Brothers W. C. Trotter, Miss. Γ '11, and J. M. Montgomery, Tenn. Z '12, with silver pitchers in token of appreciation of their efforts in a last drive which had secured funds to retire the house debt. Lauren Foreman, E.S.R., spoke on behalf of the National Fraternity. Dr. A. B. Butts, Miss. © '11, Chancellor of the University of Mississippi, welcomed the visiting brothers and guests to the dedication.

Mississippi Gamma was the first fraternity chapter to build on the new Fraternity Row on the "Ole Miss" campus and its house is the largest on the row. The house was built in the summer of 1934, through the generous effort and financial assistance of Eric A. Dawson, Miss. Γ '08, former Eminent Supreme Recorder.

Three Chapters Have New House Mothers

By Don M. Gable
Ohio Delta '35

WITH the completion of the series of articles on house mothers in Sigma Alpha Epsilon chapters throughout the country, THE RECORD now presents the new hostesses who have joined the chapters since the introduction of the chaperone articles two years ago.

Mrs. Stella M. Ledgerwood is the new house mother for Colorado Zeta at the University of Denver, replacing Mrs. Lucia Hadley. She joined Colorado Zeta last year as her first experience in house mother work. She is the mother of Tom Ledgerwood, Colo. Z '31, and a member of Pi Kappa Sigma. Mrs. Ledgerwood selected house mother work because she thinks she is particularly fitted for this type of service. "Though I am very new in this field, I find the opportunities for services many and varied," Mrs. Ledgerwood stated. "I can help the members with their social functions, aid them in their school work and smooth out the everyday problems."

House Mother Ledgerwood helps to sponsor a Minerva club which has a membership of 100, with forty active. The group meets monthly and the dues are $1.00. Book reviews, music and lectures feature the monthly meetings. Each spring a birthday luncheon is held, and in June the group spends a day in the mountains.

Mrs. Ledgerwood lives in the house and inspects the quarters regularly. Maid service is maintained but the heavy work is done by members of the chapter. The Minerva club raises an average of $600 per year and this is spent on the chapter house. Recently the club had the kitchen and pantries refinished and purchased new lamps for the living room. The club also improved the quarters for the house mother and maid.

Mrs. May E. Marshall is the new house mother at Tennessee Nu at Vanderbilt University. This is her first experience as a house mother. Mrs. Marshall selected house mother work because, as she says, "I love home life and want to make a home for others—for the busy young men." Mrs. Marshall attended the House Mothers' Training School at Purdue University. "I take every opportunity to be of service to the members and hope to make a happy, comfortable home for them," she said.

New House Mothers: Left to Right, Mrs. Stella M. Ledgerwood, Colorado Zeta at the University of Denver; Mrs. May E. Marshall, Tennessee Nu at Vanderbilt University; Mrs. Pearl Miazza, Louisiana Tau-Upsilon at Tulane University.

Mrs. Marshall lives at the chapter house. At the present she is making plans for the organization of a Minerva club to help the chapter. She likes to have parents of the members visit the chapter house as she finds she understands the members much better by knowing the parents. She does all of the buying and plans the meals. She is in charge of the dining room help and checks the chapter bills.

Mrs. Pearl C. Miazza, mother of John Miazza, La. T-Y '42, is the new chaperone of Louisiana Tau-Upsilon at Tulane University, New Orleans, La. This also is Mrs. Miazza's first experience in house mother work, having joined the chapter last year.

House Mother Miazza does not live at the house but she inspects all of the quarters. She helps to sponsor a Minerva club which meets every month. Dues are $5.00 per year. One large party is held each year. Recently the Minerva club contributed $75.00 to the chapter. Mrs. Miazza helps the chapter with its social affairs, including two formal dances, several tea dances, picnics, bridge parties, and entertainment of friends and alumni.

Additional new house mothers in ΣAE chapters will be presented in future issues of THE RECORD, as notices are sent to the National Office.

Paints Kimball Portrait

WITH the feeling that he should do something in return for the benefits he received from his fraternity, Wayne A. Jordan, Colo. Z '40, painted a portrait of the late George D. Kimball, Colo. Z '95, past E.S.A., and charter member of Mr. Jordan's chapter, Colorado Zeta at the University of Denver in Denver, Colorado.

Wayne A. Jordan

Young artist Jordan presented the Kimball portrait at the Founders Day banquet at the Shirley-Savoy Hotel, March 8, 1941. He thought it appropriate for the Kimball portrait to hang in the chapter room which is a memorial to the Fraternity's past national president. While attending the University of Denver, Jordan painted a replica of the fraternity badge for the chapter room.

During the last three years in college Jordan was in charge of the house and float decorations for homecoming. At that time the chapter won two first places and two second prizes. During his junior year he was art editor of the Kynewisbok, campus yearbook. Since being graduated Jordan has been practicing commercial art and advertising.

Dean of Students at Wyoming

By Albert J. Scoth
Ore. Alpha '18

FROM director of athletics to dean of students is the step Clair H. "Okie" Blanchard, Wyo. A '25, has taken during the past year at his alma mater, the University of Wyoming.

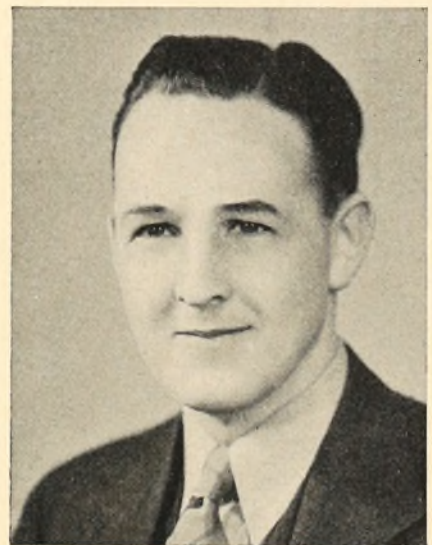

Last year Blanchard returned to Wyoming as director of athletics and head football coach. So popular was he with the athletes as well as the other students that he was named dean of students on March 18th. He resigned his position in the athletic field to accept the deanship. Coach Bernard F. Oakes, formerly at the University of Colorado, was appointed to take over Blanchard's duties as head football coach but a director of athletics was not named at the time.

Mr. Blanchard had coaching experience for fifteen years before returning to Wyoming last year. He gained wide recognition for his coaching of high school teams in Wyoming. Details of his coaching career were carried in the September, 1940, issue of THE RECORD, at which time his appointment as director of athletics was announced.

Seventh Leadership School

By John O. Moseley
Director

DEAR BROTHERS: I wish I could sit down with each of you and tell you, face to face, of the prospects and program of the Seventh Leadership School. In an article, brief as this one must be, I cannot do justice either to my enthusiasm over the splendid response and interest being manifested by the Fraternity at large or over the wonderful treats being prepared for those who attend. It is not too much to say that the attendance will be larger than ever, the members of the School are making ready to attend in the same fine spirit of sacrificial devotion which has characterized the best of our Schools in the past, the arrangements for the care and comfort of faculty and students are more complete than ever before, the schedule of events will set a new mark for interest, and effectiveness, and harmony and good feeling will reign in our midst.

The immediate and ultimate objective of this unique gathering has always been and will ever be: the creation and development of fraternity leadership. The leader in this field, as in every other phase of human activity, is indicated by superior qualities of character, personality, and ability. The development of these qualities is attained through the employment of emotion, knowledge and experience. The leader of men must feel deeply, think clearly, and act confidently. Every activity of the school is designed to rouse the will, to instruct the mind and to increase the skill in doing fraternity work by gaining an understanding of the purposes of the Founders, by contemplating the beauties of the ritual, by learning of the struggles and triumphs of a human institution, by sharing in the aspirations of leaders past and present, by living with others in fraternal communion, by studying best chapter methods and practices, and by participating publicly in chapter functions on the performance of which often depends success or failure. All of these and many more are provided in the program sketchily outlined below.

Song and Drama: A program of songs is planned for every day of the school starting in high with the mixer and buffet supper on Sunday afternoon and carrying on to a climax with the farewell banquet Friday evening. Brother Ken Quivey, Ind. B '12, Past

Dr. John O. Moseley, Okla. K '16, Director of Leadership Training and Past Eminent Supreme Archon. He is Dean of Students at the University of Tennessee.

Eminent Supreme Archon, the author of "Friends" and many other popular Σ AE songs will give his celebrated address on "Songs" in the Memorial Chapel on Sunday evening. Brother Jake Hines, Ohio Σ '27, will again direct the singing and that means the best will be at your service. Brother Hines will take time out to give special instruction to chapter song leaders and to organize quartets and a glee club. Several new songs will be introduced, among them a lovely memorial song, "Longing," by Mrs. Helen Beattie Leadbetter, dedicated to Oklahoma Kappa in memory of Walter N. "Bud" Beattie, Okla. K '22.

The drama as a teaching device has always been popular and successful and this year "The Founding of Σ AE" by Dr. George K. Kress, Ohio E '96, will be presented by representatives of Tennessee Kappa; Mount Minerva, directed by Emmett B. Moore, Eminent Supreme Chronicler, will be presented by Province Lambda; and a model chapter meeting, directed by Fred H. Turner, Eminent Supreme Deputy Archon, will be presented by select chapter representatives.

Instruction and Inspiration: Two leading addresses on chapter history will be presented in the Chapel on Monday and Tuesday mornings at 11:00, one entitled "The Building of Σ AE," by Harry S. Bunting, Tenn. Z '91, Past Honorary E.S.A., and the other "The Builders of Σ AE," by Albert M. Austin, Ohio Δ '94, Past Eminent Supreme Archon. It will be a genuine thrill to see and hear these two old-time "war horses" of the Fraternity who have contributed so much to its history.

Sectional conferences on chapter finances, administration, public relations, rushing, and pledge training have been arranged for smaller groups throughout the week with members of the Supreme Council acting as chairmen, and various members of the faculty leading the discussion.

Dr. Robert R. Aurner, Iowa B '20, Scholarship Commissioner, will lead a general conference on scholarship; and Lauren Foreman, Ga. E '01, Eminent Supreme Recorder, will lead a general conference on the chapters collegiate and national headquarters. A timely discussion of the chapter advisory system will be conducted in panel fashion with chapter advisors of twenty or more chapters acting as members of the panel. Other general conferences will be held on pledge fatalities, chapter man power, initiation procedures, and leadership training.

On Tuesday morning, Alfred K. Nippert, Ohio E '96, Past Eminent Supreme Archon, will deliver an address on the Levere Memorial Temple and take the members of the school on a personally conducted tour of this shrine of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. It will indeed be a great privilege for those present to hear the story of the Temple from the lips of the man who more than any other is responsible for the building of it. At this same time visits with guides will be made to the Tower Room, secret and sacred inner shrine for initiated members only. On Friday afternoon the usual pilgrimage will be made to the grave of William C. Levere and a short memorial service will be held.

On Friday evening the model initiation will be presented by a picked team composed of undergraduate members of the school. The personnel of this team together with the complete program of the Leadership School will be published in the next issue of THE RECORD. Preceding the model initiation, several studies of the ritual will be made. As an additional inspiration it is hoped that Mr. L. G. Balfour, president of the National Interfraternity Conference, can be with us again as guest speaker. His address last year was truly stirring.

Entertainment and Fellowship: Registration and room assignment will be held all day Sunday at Willard Hall at the corner of Sherman Avenue and University Place. All members of the School should report there directly on arrival to Brother Ray C. Dein, Neb. Λ -II '30, resident counsellor of Minnesota Alpha, in charge of registration. Σ AE motion pictures, beginning at 4:00 P.M., will be shown on Sunday in the Panhellenic room in the Levere Memorial Temple by Brothers G. A. Ginter, Ohio E '97, Eminent Supreme Herald, and Burton A. Hoffman, Ill. Ψ-Ω '26, Past Archon, Province Beta. Following these pictures a buffet supper and mixer will be held in the banquet hall of the Levere Memorial Temple at which time an address of welcome will be given by Brother George N. Short, Ohio Δ '05, Eminent Supreme Archon, and introductions will be made of the members of the Supreme Council, the faculty, and visiting alumni.

An informal dance will be given in the Temple at 8:00 P.M. on Wednesday, August 27. Thursday evening will be left open for the members of the school to attend the All-Star Football game at Soldier's Field, Chicago. On Friday evening will occur the farewell dinner which is always a climax and fitting close to the Leadership School. The first part of this function will be arranged to simulate a welcoming dinner for newly initiated brothers. All of the suggestions of the initiation manual covering this party will be carried out as written. Arrangements will be in charge of committees of undergraduates. Special music will be provided.

The province softball elimination tournament will be carried on throughout the week beginning every afternoon at 4:30 P.M. A suitable trophy will be provided for the winning team. In addition to softball, ample opportunities for tennis and other sports will be provided. Beach tickets will be furnished free to the members of the School. It is hoped that this sports program will be invaluable assistance in promoting acquaintance and good fellowship and teaching to the members of our Fraternity two most needed lessons: first, the value of personal participation in athletics in contrast with spectator interest alone, and second, the joy of playing the game for the game's sake.

Fraternalism and Citizenship:

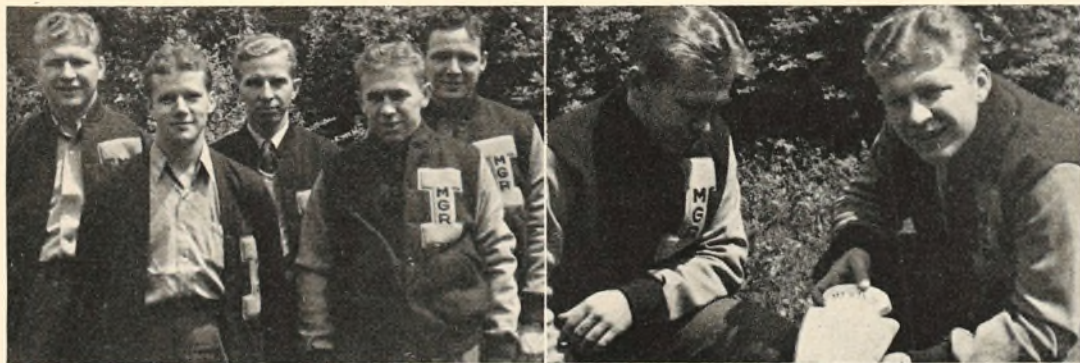

Informal conferences for groups with similar interests and problems will be arranged at various times throughout the week. Members of the School will themselves organize spontaneously many such sessions at meal time and bed time. Dinners for province groups will be sponsored. Opportunities will be given for the securing of autographs, notes, personal souvenirs, and photographs. All will live together as citizens of the highest type of democracy, the one rule and guide being: the conduct of a gentleman and a ΣAE.

Citizenship will also be taught in a formal manner by the presentation of an historical pageant "Charters of Democracy." The actors in this pageant will be undergraduate members of the School and by their various parts attempt to remind the members of the School and to revitalize in their lives the great human documents of the past which constitute stepping stones of freedom, such as: The Golden Rule, The Thirteenth Chapter of First Corinthians, The Magna Charta, The Mayflower Compact, The Farewell Address, The Gettysburg Address, The Declaration of Independence, The Constitution, The Ritual of ΣAE, and the statement of "The Principles of Democracy" as subscribed to by the National Interfraternity Conference. The above feature item of the program is only now in the making. If it is successfully staged and produced, copies of the script will be supplied to members of the School and will be available to members of the Fraternity for use throughout the Fraternity in a citizen training program.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon Authors in Review

By Don M. Gable
Ohio Delta '35

INTERESTING in the collection of books added to the Library of the Levere Memorial Temple since last September are publications by young authors of Sigma Alpha Epsilon who have gained wide attention from their first novels. Also there have been contributions from ΣAE authors who are well known in their professions.

From Hell to Breakfast (J. B. Lippincott Company), a novel by Edward Kimbrough, W.C. P., Ala. M '40, concerning a revivalist and politician who likes his liquor and song but preaches prohibition and the fear of God to the Mississippi masses to keep them in control, is a satire on politics and politicians. Young Mr. Kimbrough who has done an amazing job on his first book and who is now at work in New Orleans on a second book, Sugar Over the Devil, presents life in the raw in Mississippi and gives the main character, Senator Gus Roberts, the credit of knowing right from wrong, but preaching the right and practicing evil.

The Senator in From Hell to Breakfast knows how to handle people and gloats over the fact that they believe he will save them and Mississippi. Gus Roberts is a hypocritical politician who is clever enough to make himself a "personal friend" to everybody. Not until his daughter falls in love with his opponent, a reformer, and accepts his young ideas, does Senator Roberts first experience that feeling of not being sure of himself. Despite obstacles he wins the campaign, but finds he has lost everything else in life. The novel is bawdy and rowdy at times and with its exaggeration might offend the delicate soul, but it is interesting! A copy of Sugar Over the Devil is anticipated for the library.

Swamp Water (Little, Brown & Company), by Vereen Bell, N.C. © '32, is a story of the Okefenokee Swamp in Southern Georgia, and Mr. Bell brings the reader the beauties and dangers of the swamp, entwined with a real human interest story long to be remembered. His characters are not only interesting because of their complete naturalness, but also his flawless description of nature convinces the reader that the young author had a good background for his writing. He had caught the mood of the swamp which intrigued him.

The main character in Swamp Water is Ben, a young man who

Ace Reporter's Book

Beginning with "Horse & Buggy Youth" and ending with "What Next," S. Burton Heath, Vt. B '26, Pulitzer Prize Winner in 1939 for distinguished reporting, gives a fascinating story in thirteen chapters of his life and newspaper career in Yankee Reporter (Wilfred Funk, Inc., New York). Mr. Heath, staff writer for the New York World-Telegram, was bred in Vermont, conquered the big city, but expresses in his book that at heart he is still of the small town. His realization of the indulgences of mankind is presented in a humorous but frank style at the beginning of the book. His frankness continues as he presents from his newspaper experiences intimate anecdotes about political and business leaders of America, including Wendell Willkie, Fiorello LaGuardia and Al Smith.

Yankee Reporter is a shrewd and skillful portrayal of a winning battle against misconduct in public positions, and Mr. Heath defends a free press. He says: "Newspapers as an institution are under crossfire today in large part because of their virtues—because they have accepted a responsibility which may well not be theirs, and have turned the spotlight upon corruption that is deliberate and upon negligence and incompetence that are unintentional." And it must not be overlooked that Mr. Heath makes a definite reference to his chapter, Vermont Beta, at the University of Vermont, where he enjoyed fraternity life.

Lillian Russell

A vivid story of American life during the Eighties, the Nineties and the beginning of the Twentieth Century is told by Parker Morell, Mass. I-T '28, in his book, Lillian Russell, The Era of Plush (Random House). While Mr. Morell, well known for his Diamond Jim Brady, unfolds the complete and amazing life of Lillian Russell, the comic opera queen and the "American Beauty," he gives intimacies of many other personalities popular in her day. In cleverly titled chapters Mr. Morell brings the four decades of Lillian Russell's domination of the American stage. His book showed how her career at its height reflected the tastes and culture of a nation emerging from adolescence.

Lillian Russell became a symbol of youth's love for opulent beauty and its attraction to glittering adventure. "Her pink-and-white freshness appealed to the sentimentality of young manhood and her conspicuous display of diamonds to the prevalent emphasis on wealth as a goal. She embodied for the whole nation the elegance of the Eighties, the gaiety of the Nineties, and naughtiness of the Naughties and, even in her decline, the energy and the will power of the War years."

Lillian Russell was published at the time Twentieth Century-Fox released the motion picture on the same subject. Through his pages Mr. Morell has been able to bring much more of the private life of Miss Russell to the public. His book reflects the spirit of a time for open-handed living, gifts of blazing jewels, diamond-studded bicycles, and the gold-standard dollar. Mr. Morell does a good job on the dazzling period that is gone forever. If you want to read a full account of Lillian, her four marriages, her successes and tragedies, here is the opportunity.

Scientific Contributor

A most faithful contributor to the ΣAE library and a frequent author is Dr. Matthew Luckiesh, Ind. B '09, one of the world's foremost authorities on light. Recently Dr. Luckiesh contributed five more of his books, making his collection of twenty-one books complete in the library. His books are scientific, dealing mostly with light, but written in a style and language which are interesting and comprehensive to the average reader. His latest book published in 1940, is Torch of Civilization (G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York), the dramatic story of man's conquest of darkness. In this book Dr. Luckiesh, director of Lighting Research Laboratory, General Electric Company, gives a fascinating story with use of the "modern blackout" to bring home the idea that people take artificial light for granted, and points out that light has extended the civilized day to the full limit of twenty-four hours and has become literally the life blood of modern civilization. The book is illustrated with torches and lamps, tracing the development of artificial light to the most recent scientific work.

Dr. Luckiesh's other contributions are: Color and Colors (D. Van Nostrand Company, Inc.); Seeing and Human Welfare (The Williams & Wilkins Company); The Science of Seeing (D. Van Nostrand Co., Inc.); Seeing—A Partnership of Lighting and Vision (The Williams & Wilkins Company). Dr. Luckiesh is co-author with Frank K. Moss, of the last two mentioned books. Dr. Luckiesh also has contributed a bound copy of New Horizons, for the electric utility in-

Text Books by ΣAEs

A study in political geography entitled The Earth and the State (Henry Holt and Company, New York) has been written by Dervent Whittlesey, Ill. © '14, professor of geography at Harvard University. He says that political geography is perhaps the oldest kind of geography. As there has been no accepted approach to the subject, Mr. Whittlesey is a pioneer in writing about it. The 600 page book is overflowing with information and maps, representing a long study and a tedious job.

Do you like to debate and do you like to win debates? A good text book for students of debate is Strategic Debating (Chapman and Grimes, Inc.) by Rev. Roy Earle Harlan, Jr., Tenn. H '36, who drew the material largely from his experiences as a member of the highly successful Union University debating teams. Besides being the only man to debate four years on the university team, young Mr. Harlan was president of the student body, president of his senior class in 1936 and head cheer leader. Rev. Harlan who is a student at the Baptist Seminary in Louisville, Ky., is one of the youngest text book authors in America. He was twenty-three when the book was written. Although the book may be used in high school, it was prepared primarily for college debaters. An entirely new style in debating is set forth by Rev. Harlan who was one of the pioneers in its development during the last few years. It consists largely of sweeping admissions and surprise attacks. The 157 page edition is crammed with tactics used by Rev. Harlan and his teammates in winning more than 100 debates in college and more than 50 decision debates in high school. Written to help others in debating, it is by no means dry reading.

Co-author of Philosophy in America (D. Appleton-Century Company) is Paul R. Anderson, Ohio Δ '28, head of the department of philosophy, Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis. This is the Odyssey of the American mind and is the first book on American philosophy to include extensive, illustrative selections from the works of representative philosophers. It is not only a text book but also a source book, following a chronological plan, beginning with trends of American thought in colonial civilization and finally considering American philosophy in the latter part of the nineteenth century. It includes many great thinkers from the Puritans to William James.

Books on Lincoln

In his Wilmette, Ill., home, Harlan Hoyt Horner, Ill. B '01, has a Lincoln library, a rare collection of books on Abraham Lincoln. Deeply interested in Lincoln, Mr. Horner has written and contributed to the ΣAE library The Growth of Lincoln's Faith (The Abingdon Press) and What Makes Lincoln Great (The Torch Press). Mr. Horner, who has spent thirty-five years in the educational field, points out in The Growth of Lincoln's Faith, that the chief reliance of Lincoln throughout his Presidency is unmistakably in the Divine Being. What Makes Lincoln Great are papers and addresses of Andrew Sloan Draper edited by Mr. Horner. Dr. Draper was a follower of Lincoln, and Mr. Horner also has written a book concerning him, entitled The Life and Work of Andrew Sloan Draper (University of Illinois Press). Mr. Horner says that Dr. Draper made the discovery that "the spirit of the nation is attuned to the spirit of Lincoln," and uttered long to be remembered words when he said: "What the north star is to the natural life of the world, Lincoln is to the political science of the Republic and the moral sense of men."

Miscellaneous books, pamphlets and material contributed to the library are: Who Uses the Public Library (The University of Chicago Press), a survey of the patrons of the circulation and reference departments of the New York Public Library, by William Converse Haygood, Ga. E '31; Special Opportunities of Small Rural Schools (Bulletin 230), Aviation in Pennsylvania Schools (Bulletin 215), How Pennsylvania is Governed (Bulletin 202), by Dr. Lester K. Ade, Pa. Z '20, who prepared these bulletins when he was superintendent of public instruction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (now president of State Teachers College in Mansfield, Pa.); Annual Report of The President to the Board of Trustees, 1939-1940, by Dr. Ade; James Francis Lanagan, a beautifully bound copy of the memorial service for James Francis Lanagan, Calif. A '00, who died in 1937, by Stanford University and the University of California; Chain Stores in '40 by John P. Nichols, N.Y. M '29, managing director of the Institute of Distribution, Inc., New York; Third Edition of History of Randleigh Farm, by William R. Kenan, Jr., N.C. Ξ '94. Mr. Kenan is owner of Randleigh Farm at Lockport, New York.

Another valuable book for library use is Index to Monologs and Dialogs (The F. W. Faxon Company) by the Irelands: Norma Olin Ireland and her husband, David E. Ireland, Pa. X-O '28. This book is the first index of monologs and dialogs which, to the authors' knowledge, has ever been published. The index is alphabetically arranged in one alphabet—author, subject and title—for the convenience of both librarian and patron. Eighty-nine collections were analyzed in this work.

Recent contributions to the fraternity and sorority publication section of the library are the Paedagogus, a manual of fraternal education for pledges of Lambda Chi Alpha; Sigma Chi Pledge Manual; Chronicles of Chi Phi; 1910 Phi Kappa Psi Catalogue and the 1874 Delta Kappa Epsilon Catalogue, by Alexander B. Andrews, N.C. Ξ '93.

As this issue of THE RECORD goes to press, Benjamin O. Coleman, W.C. P '37, presents Chapel Readings (The MacMillan Company), edited by the late Dr. Arthur E. Brown, Ohio Δ '02, and Oration on the Life, Character and Public Services of the Hon. John C. Calhoun, by the late L. Q. C. Lamar, Miss. Γ '66. Also received for the library is The Dean of Men's Viewpoint by George D. Small. It is an annotated bibliography of references of interest to deans and advisers of men, prepared for The National Association of Deans and Advisers of Men. The foreword was prepared by Fred H. Turner, Ill. B '22, E.S.D.A.

Thank God for a Garden

A MEDITATION

By Julian J. Gill, Miss. Θ '89

A Garden: Where the feel of the soil even gives us a thrill of contact with its vast potentialities for growth, for production, for harvest. Where too buds and blooms woo us into love of their origin, and crowd upon us the knowledge of our own ignorance of their origin, force or outcome for "our garden."

A Garden: Empowered with vine and fig clamoring for their place amid the revelry of nature, and whose shade or shadow reminds us of a beneficence not our own, and amid whose bloom and fragrance we enjoy a beauty both real and evanescent.

A Garden: Whose force is unseen and unknown, except as we know it by the growth, the fragrance, the ever present change, the something inherent and of itself alone beyond our ken. Where is variety that charms, beauty that fascinates, and excellence that awes the human.

A Garden: Where we may see ourselves, know our relationships and limits, and where expanse of both nature and soul may find fulfillment in knowledge of a chance for work or play or worship, and where, what e'er betide, hope and faith steady us toward the unfulfilled and force us to know that the "deep" from whence we came is still our duty and destiny.

Cartoonist in Knoxville

■ Bill Dyer, Va. Σ '35, cartoonist for The Knoxville News-Sentinel, remembers being lured by the big money in cartooning at the age of five when a neighbor paid him fifty cents to do his portrait. Apparently Bill's mother saw his great possibilities as he does not recall "getting the hairbrush" for doing his first creations on the bedroom wallpaper at home. During school Bill, whose full name is William Haskiel Dyer, shared his drawing with football, and at Washington and Lee University he was dubbed "The Artistic Tackle." In 1934 he was selected on the All-Southern Conference squad when Washington and Lee won the conference championship. When Bill left school, he landed a job as cartoonist for Scripp-Howard's News-Sentinel in Knoxville, and has been there ever since. His curricula includes a Sunday page of cartoons called "What a Life," which deals with weekly happenings in Knoxville, and occasional sports and editorial cartoons. He also keeps in close touch with football, doing "Dyer-grams" of the University of Tennessee games. As a hobby he officiates in high school football games. Bill's interest in his fraternity is shown by his contribution shown on this page.

Dr. Ralph West Roby, Ind. Γ '20, economist, author and assistant professor of banking at Columbia University, finds relaxation in his workshop! Collegiate Government Leaders

AGAIN members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Chapters Collegiate throughout the country brought distinction to the Fraternity by holding presidencies of interfraternity councils, Panhellenic councils, student councils, student senates, student governments, boards of publications and other governing organizations.

This year chapters reported thirty-two presidents on twenty-seven campuses. These included ten student body presidents, two more than were reported last year; nine interfraternity council heads; three student council and three student senate presidents; two student union and two Panhellenic council leaders; one student government president, and one board of publications head.

Several chapters are represented by more than one legislative leader. Michigan Alpha at Adrian College boasts of a student union president and a student council head; Nevada Alpha has one man who holds two top positions, being president of the student body and president of the student senate; North Carolina Theta at Davidson College has the student body president as well as the Panhellenic council head; North Carolina Nu at Duke University rates the student government association president as well as the Panhellenic council leader; Oklahoma Mu at Oklahoma

A. and M. College has the student body president and the student senate head.

Each year the chapters are asked to list the names of members who hold such prominent positions. Reports show that each year chapters often have more than one legislative leader and in many cases these positions are held consecutively.

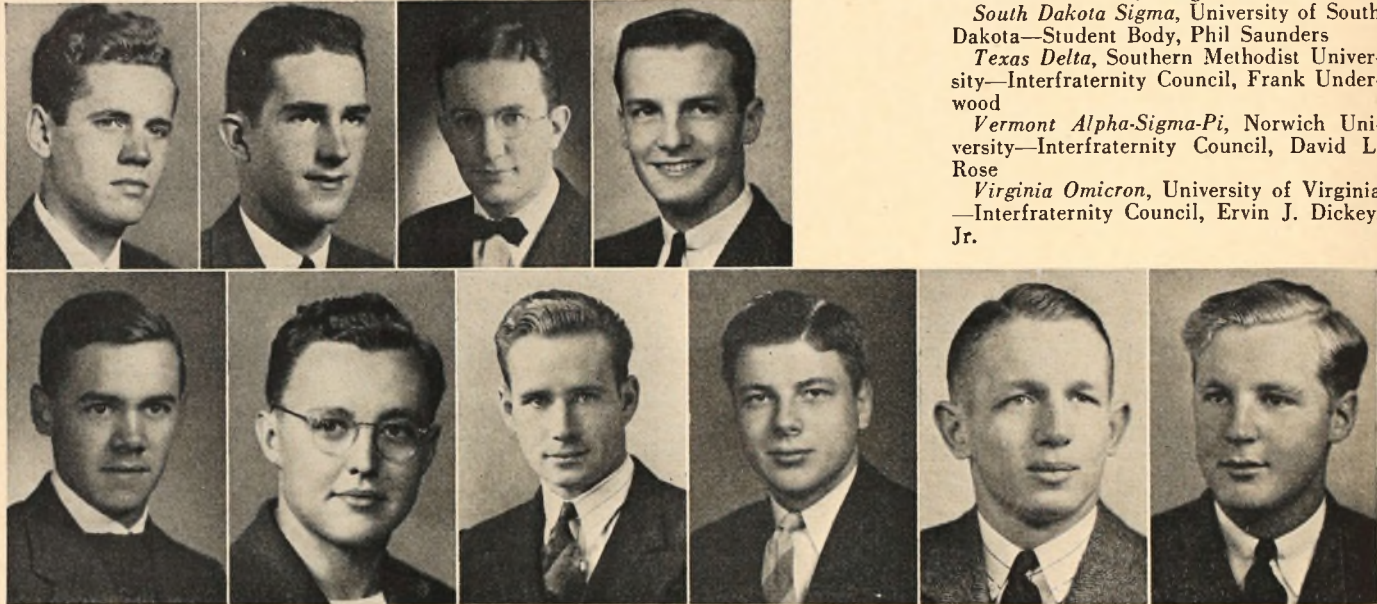

Following are the names of the presidents, as reported by the Eminent Correspondents to the National Office.

What Is a Good Fraternity Chapter?

By John O. Moseley
 Past E.S.A.

IS A fraternity chapter called good because

It is old? No! Many years bring veneration to a tree; its intrinsic value is determined neither by youth nor by old age but by the nature of its fruit or the quality of its timber.

It is large? No! A fraternity chapter, like a tree, is good usually not because of its size but in spite of its size. Bigness and smallness bring handicaps, the overcoming of which adds virility to the body.

It is well located? No! The development of form, beauty, and value can be accomplished on mountain crag or in fertile valley. All honor to the chapter thriving where tempestuous winds ceaselessly blow.

It has a good reputation? No! "What is the vine tree more than any other tree . . . meet for no work . . . the fire shall devour it." Ezekiel 15:1, 5, 7.

It is artificially nourished? No! Self help is essential to growth in chapter and tree. The strong push out roots to tap the rich sources of fertility.

It is well housed? No! A tree like a good fraternity chapter is not good because it is placed in a spot of beauty and advantage; but is usually found in a spot of beauty and advantage because it is good.

Then by what signs shall good fraternity chapters be known? "By their fruits shall ye know them."

How many of your alumni bear throughout their mature lives the college and fraternity stamp? How many of your alumni continually contribute of their time, money and devotion to the upbuilding of your chapter? Name the alumni of your chapter who have rendered unselfish service to the fraternity as a whole. What proportion of the wearers of the pin placed upon them by your chapter show by their loyalty that fraternity has been a dynamic influence in their lives?

If your chapter cannot pass the above test, quit singing "Oh! bring back our alumni to us." They lie over the ocean of indifference and are beyond recall. Look to yourselves. Start growing good alumni. Unless you do something for them in the chapter, nothing can be done about it afterward. Is your fraternity fulfilling its destiny as a man making organization or are the brothers you take in already good enough to be alumni of a chapter such as yours? Fresh blood and a new inspiration can save the day. Perhaps a new stock can be implanted upon the old stump. Fraternity leadership will tell. Make ready for the day of trial by nature's first law of survival.

Progress Chapters Collegiate of 1940-41 NINETY-SIX of the 113 Sigma Alpha Epsilon now own their homes and this imposing total will be increased to ninety-seven when Louisiana Epsilon at Louisiana State University occupies its new home on the Louisiana campus, now under construction.

The college year, 1940-41, witnessed remarkable progress in the improvement of housing facilities for ΣAE chapters. Newly constructed homes were occupied by Georgia Phi at the Georgia School of Technology and Georgia Psi at Mercer University which had formerly occupied rented quarters and by Texas Delta at Southern Methodist University which had owned a house which was unsatisfactory and badly located.

Pennsylvania Phi at the Carnegie Institute of Technology and Ohio Rho at the Case School of Applied Science acquired and moved into homes which are great improvements over the ones they had formerly owned and both Maine Alpha at the University of Maine and North Carolina Xi at the University of North Carolina have rebuilt and greatly improved their houses.

Progress of a different but equally substantial nature was registered by Mississippi Gamma at the University of Mississippi which celebrated the extinguishment of the entire debt on its home, "Dawson Hall," the first fraternity house built on the Mississippi campus.

That this progress will be carried on in 1941-42 is indicated by the fact that Ohio Theta at Ohio State University has torn down its old house in preparation for the construction of a new one and that active campaigns for financing new houses for Ohio Mu at Denison University, Ohio Delta at Ohio Wesleyan University and Virginia Kappa at the College of William and Mary have been inaugurated.

Rushing Bureau FOR THE convenience of alumni and as a measure of assistance to the Chapters Collegiate in securing the names of desirable prospects, the Rushing Bureau is being operated at the National Office again under the direct supervision of Albert J. Schoth, Chapter Supervisor.

All names received will be transmitted to the rushing captains of the chapters concerned and letters will be written from Evanston to all men recommended. A coupon for the convenience of members in giving the names and addresses of prospects is printed on the back cover of this issue.

Members who have sons, brothers or other relatives who will enter institutions which are the domiciles of ΣAE chapters are especially urged to send the names of such relatives to the Rushing Bureau so that the chapters may be sure to have information about them.

The American's Creed "THE AMERICAN'S CREED," a summary of American civic faith by William Tyler Page, which is reproduced on the frontispiece of this issue of THE RECORD, was ordered printed, as House Document No. 416, by the Sixty-Ninth Congress, June 4, 1926. Illustrated copies may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, at five cents each. It is presented to the members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, as being peculiarly appropriate for circulation among a brotherhood of patriotic Americans at this time.

The idea of laying special emphasis upon the duties and obligations of citizenship in the form of a national creed originated with Henry S. Chapin. In 1916-17 a contest, open to all Americans, was inaugurated in the press throughout the country to secure "the best summary of the political faith of America." The contest was informally approved by the President of the United States. Through Mayor James H. Preston, the city of Baltimore, as the birthplace of the "Star-Spangled Banner," offered a prize of $1,000, which was accepted, and the following committees were appointed: A committee on manuscripts, consisting of Porter Emerson Browne and representatives from leading American magazines, with headquarters in New York City; a committee on award, consisting of Matthew P. Andrews, Irvin S. Cobb, Hamlin Garland, Ellen Glasgow, Julian Street, Booth Tarkington, and Charles Hanson Towne; and an advisory committee, consisting of Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, governors of States, United States Senators, and other National and State officials.

The winner of the contest and the author of the creed selected proved to be William Tyler Page, of Friendship Heights, Md., a descendant of President Tyler and also of Carter Braxton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The complete proceedings in regard to the official acceptance of The American's Creed may be found in the Congressional Record, No. 102,

April 13, 1918, from which is taken the following explanation of the doctrinal origin of the creed:

"The United States of America."—Preamble, Constitution of the United States.
"A government of the people, by the people, for the people."—Preamble, Constitution of the United States; Daniel Webster's speech in the Senate, January 26, 1830; Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg speech.

"Whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed."—Thomas Jefferson, in Declaration of Independence.

"A democracy in a republic"—James Madison, in the Federalist, No. 10; Article X of the amendments to Constitution.

"A sovereign Nation of many sovereign States."—"E pluribus unum," great seal of the United States; Article IV of the Constitution.

"A perfect Union"—Preamble to the Constitution.

"One and inseparable."—Webster's speech in the Senate, January 26, 1830.

"Established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes."—Declaration of Independence.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it."—In substance from Edward Everett Hale's The Man Without a Country.

"To support its Constitution."—Oath of allegiance, section 1757, Revised Statutes of the United States.

Senator Lumpkin APPOINTMENT of Alva M. Lumpkin, S.C. Δ '08, Past Archon of Province Gamma, as U. S. Senator from South Carolina will bring pleasure to members of ΣAE all over the country who know of his loyal and unselfish service to the Fraternity. Only a man of his patriotism and exalted idea of service would give up a place on the Federal bench with a life tenure to accept an elective office.

Bringing distinction to Tennessee Kappa at the University of Tennessee for the second time in three years, Meeks V. Vaughan was named the Volunteer for 1941 by the Tennessee graduating class and was presented a silver Volunteer Symbol at the annual Aloha Oe ceremony. Tom Smith, Tenn. N '40, now assistant to the dean of men at the University of Oklahoma, was named the Volunteer in 1939. Each year the senior class selects a junior for the honor. Vaughan served as president of the junior class, vice president of the Fraternity Relations Board, assistant manager of the All University Sing, and a member of the Barnwarming and Carnicus staffs. He has served as Eminent Treasurer of Tennessee Kappa.

Northwestern Seniors Feted

By Mrs. Eva Hansen
Temple Librarian

The Mothers Club of Illinois Psi-Omega at Northwestern University held its annual tea for seniors and their parents at the Levere Memorial Temple, ΣAE Shrine, Evanston, Ill., June 13, 1941. Approximately sixty-five persons attended, including many alumni who had returned to Northwestern campus for commencement weekend activities. The Mothers Club had a very successful year. Besides contributions to the chapter house the club gave $50.00 to the chapter's scholarship fund. Mrs. L. Nave and Mrs. F. Noetting were co-chairmen of the tea. During the past year Mrs. John C. Stunkel served as president of the club. This year's other officers were Mrs. Wesley Nunn, secretary, and Mrs. George W. Bay, treasurer. The new officers for the coming year are: Mrs. Wesley Nunn, president; Mrs. F. Noetting, secretary, and Mrs. George W. Bay, treasurer.

Francis "Dutch" Fagan of Wisconsin Phi Selected by the Beloit College Faculty Athletic Committee to Receive the Trophy Awarded Annually to the Outstanding Senior Athlete. Fagan, Twice E.A. of the Chapter, Was a Regular Varsity Tackle and Basketball Player for Three Years. He Also Was Elected to Phi Beta Kappa and Served as Social Chairman of the College.

Illinois Beta Loses A Loyal Worker

Elmer Jones, the colored porter for Illinois Beta at the University of Illinois for twenty-one years, is dead, and the chapter has suffered a great loss. Elmer was in Danville, Ill., at a colored social function, June 28, when he died of a heart attack. His widow, Ora, who has been the cook for Illinois Beta since 1912, informed Fred H. Turner, Ill. B '22, E.S.D.A., of Elmer's death and arrangements were made for several of the chapter members to attend the funeral, July 1. This fall the chapter will miss Elmer who was an "institution" at the house.

Top Track Man

Lowell Baal of Iowa Delta at Drake University served as anchor man for Drake's sensational two-mile relay team last season. His team set a new record at the Texas relays and continued its terrific pace to crack the Drake relays record. The outfit placed second at the Chicago Daily News invitational meet in Chicago. Baal maintained his famous "record-meet" policy in the half-mile run by driving the Drake fieldhouse record down to 1:58.2. He also has been prominent in other activities on the campus.

Valedictorian at Georgia

Bolling Jones, III, Ga. B '41, delivered the valedictory address at the University of Georgia, May 31. He was chosen by the senior class from the five highest honor graduates. He was a member of ΦBK, ΦKΦ, ΦHΣ, Gridiron, Blue Key, Scabbard and Blade. He also was freshman intramural boxing champion and a member of the swimming, bowling and fencing teams. He is a cadet major and a brigade adjutant in the ROTC.

Win Sphinx Award

The most sought honor on the University of Pennsylvania campus is the Sphinx Senior Society award presented to the fraternity which maintains excellence in scholarship and performs the most outstanding services to the university during the year. In the past year Pennsylvania Theta took that honor. In scholastic standing the chapter was fourth in thirty-one fraternities. Honorable mention was received in a trophy given for the greatest scholastic improvement. The chapter had jumped from thirtieth to fourth place. Chapter members contributing the greatest service to the university were Robert W. Troup and Rix Nelson Yard who received two of the four highest honors awarded to the most active men on the campus. At the traditional Hey Day ceremonies Troup received the honor cane and Yard was awarded the spade.

Philadelphia Evening Bulletin

Pennsylvania Theta Award Winners at the University of Pennsylvania: Third from Left, Robert W. Troup, Jr., and Rix Nelson Yard, Extreme Right, Received Two of the Highest Honors Awarded at the University. Troup Received the Honor Cane and Yard was Awarded the Honor Spade. Both Received Student Alumni Merit Awards.

Active at Davidson College

■ One of the most active men on the Davidson College campus is Ed Lucas of North Carolina Theta. He will be a senior this fall and is serving as co-chairman of the chapter's rushing program. He is president of the "D" club, a representative on the Panhellenic Council, president of the junior class, a member of the Student Council, and a letterman in baseball and basketball.

Leader at Franklin College

■ Robert R. Jones, new Eminent Archon of Indiana Alpha at Franklin College is an outstanding man on the campus besides being scholastically minded. For three years he has been on the college president's honor list. He is a member of AΦΓ and Blue Key. During the past year he served as chairman of the Prom and worked on The Franklin staff as reporter, feature writer, feature editor and sports editor. He also has served as copy editor and associate editor of The Almanack. Jones has been active in intramurals and has served as botany laboratory instructor.

Campus Sing Awards

Alpha at Arizona

■ Arizona Alpha at the University of Arizona won the annual All-University Sing this year. The chapter presented a beautiful arrangement of the new sweetheart song. The chapter also won the runner-up banner in the intramural race by winning the softball championship, losing only one game.

Alpha at Minnesota

■ For the third time in four annual interfraternity sings at the University of Minnesota, Minnesota Alpha has won first place. This year the Minnesota Alpha singers were under the direction of William Connor. As a result of winning the sing three times, the chapter has permanent possession of the trophy. Second place, this year, was won by Alpha Delta Phi and third place was taken by Psi Upsilon. Acacia won the Fred Waring Sing Trophy.

Alpha at Missouri

■ The Lawrence Tibbett award and the first place trophy in the annual University of Missouri interfraternity sing in Columbia, Mo., went to Missouri Alpha on that campus. Second place in the sing on May 1st was won by Kappa Alpha. Last year's winner, Kappa Sigma, placed third.

Intramural Winners

Beta at Georgia

■ Athletes of Georgia Beta at the University of Georgia took the first leg on the new Governor's trophy donated this year to the University by Governor Eugene Talmadge. The chapter showed complete domination of the intramural sports program despite the handicap of graduation of valuable men. During the past eight years that the trophy has been offered to fraternities, Georgia Beta has won seven times. In the losing year the chapter placed second.

Ga. Epsilon at Emory

■ Georgia Epsilon has completed its third year in the athletic leadership on the Emory University campus. For the third consecutive year the chapter has obtained the athletic cup awarded each year to the fraternity having the greatest number of participation points for all sports. Having secured the third leg on the trophy, it will become a permanent property for the mantle of Georgia Epsilon. The Jeff McCord trophy has been awarded for the past four years to a member of Georgia Epsilon. This cup is given each year to the athlete having the most participation points. Georgia Epsilon claims at least six winners.

The last four consecutive ones were Ralph Bridges, '40; Tom Freeman, '39; Walter Cottingham, '40; Robert Belcher, '41.

Pa. Sigma-Phi at Dickinson

■ A winner of campus trophies during the past year was Pennsylvania Sigma-Phi at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa. The chapter walked away with the first prize at the all-college singing contest. The chapter then gained permanent possession of the intramural trophy by coming out on top for the year 1940-41. The first and second legs of this cup were won in 1937-38 and 1939-40 respectively. This year's victory was brought by brilliant playing in volleyball, swimming and track participation. In the first bronze plaque award contest for homecoming decorations at Dickinson the chapter took first place.

Tenn. Zeta at Southwestern

■ For the fourth consecutive year Tennessee Zeta at Southwestern College has won the intramural athletics cup. Winning first place in spring and fall softball, tennis, boxing, badminton and golf, and second place in the majority of the remaining activities, the chapter held a commanding lead throughout the campaign. The success experienced during the last year was due largely to the unflinching interest and athletic prowess of intramural director and new E.A., John Gibson. He starred in tennis, softball, basketball and touch football, and was chosen for the All-Star teams in each of these sports. Billy Doyle was chosen by the chapter as the best all-around athlete of the campaign and was awarded a medal by the intramural board.

Kappa at Tennessee

■ Tennessee Kappa at the University of Tennessee retained the intramural trophy on the campus during the past year with a superb display of chapter cooperation. The intramural race was won with exceptionally close competition. The program consisted of tennis, swimming, and volleyball in the fall; relay track meet and basketball in the winter, and softball and track in the spring. The win was Tennessee Kappa's second consecutive one. The chapter's first victory was recorded in the September, 1940, issue of THE RECORD.

Scholarship Record

■ For the tenth consecutive year fraternity men in the United States have surpassed independent men in scholarship, according to a thoroughgoing survey released by Dr. Alvan E. Duerr of New York City, scholarship chairman of the National Interfraternity Conference. In 1939-1940 fraternity men increased their lead slightly over the mark for the previous year. The survey is based on the scholastic record of more than 75,000 undergraduate members of the national and local fraternities. A very small percentage of fraternity schools do not make scholastic reports available. Taking the institutions as a whole, there has been marked improvement throughout the eastern half of the country, but sixty percent of the institutions west of the Mississippi lost ground, according to the report. The same trends were found in both endowed and state institutions, and in both types was evidence that fraternity chapters respond definitely to scholastic leadership directed toward better scholarship. The voluntary imposition by the fraternities of a higher initiation requirement that the university demanded brought Ohio State fraternities above the all men's average for the first time in recent years. The best group record, according to the survey, was made at Furman, where the five fraternities averaged twenty-five percent better than the all men's average. Furman headed the nine schools at which all the fraternities were above the all men's average: Davidson, Millsaps, Mississippi State, Polytechnic Institute, Washington College, Akron, Eureka, and Miami. Strong gains were registered at Minnesota and DePauw.

Purdue Training School

■ The Second Annual Fraternity Officers Training School was held at Purdue University June 9-13, 1941, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon was represented by Dean Fred H. Turner, E.S.D.A., and Albert J. Scoth, chapter supervisor, staff members. The school considered problems common to fraternities as set out in the program. Any one holding office in a fraternity was eligible for admission. Dean Turner spoke on "Constructive Initiation" and "Fraternity Adjustments in a Changing World." Mr. Scoth discussed "Training of Pledges, Counseling and Guidance." The school attracted representatives from nineteen fraternities in six universities. Four national fraternity officers attended. The school closed with a banquet at which President Herman B. Wells spoke on "Your Future is Now."

House Mothers Meet

■ For the third consecutive year Purdue University has sponsored a house mothers' training school. The sessions this year were held from June 16 to July 11 and attracted a record group, 127 women. Regular classes were held in menu planning, food purchasing, objectives of student living groups, how to apply for a position, house budget, simple cost accounting, direction of labor, house maintenance, problems of late adolescence, purchasing of furnishings and equipment, alumni relationships, development of social competence, intellectual stimulation in living groups, development of socially desirable attitudes, place of the fraternity in modern education, basic principles of counseling, and place of the house mother in the community. Special lectures were given by faculty members and officials of Purdue. Guest day was held on July 2nd, attracting twenty-one representatives from national fraternities and sororities. Albert J. Scoth, chapter supervisor, and Don M. Gable, associate editor of THE RECORD, represented Sigma Alpha Epsilon on that day.

Council Competition

■ Undergraduate interfraternity councils throughout the United States and Canada will compete this year for the initial award of a handsome four-foot bronze statue, which will go to that council which, in the estimation of the executive committee of the National Interfraternity Conference, has been outstanding in the formation and execution of a program to make the fraternities on its campus contribute to the educational and social program of its institution. The statue, which was the gift of an unnamed friend of fraternities, will be awarded annually and is to be displayed in a suitable campus building by the winning council the year of temporary possession. The points to be considered in making the award are as follows: scope of authority vested in the council by the university and by the fraternities themselves; success of the council in exercising wisely the responsibilities so granted to it; scholastic standing of fraternities as compared with the all-men's average in the institution as a whole; financial soundness of the fraternities making up the council; character of social activities, value of the council to the institution as viewed by the president and or the dean of men; community activities of the council as distinguished from purely college or university activities. Councils participating in the contest will make their application to L. G. Balfour, Attleboro, Mass., chairman of the National Interfraternity Conference. The presentation of the award will be made annually at the N.I.C. dinner.

Prentis N.I.C. Speaker

■ Henning W. Prentis, Jr., Mo. A '03, president of the Armstrong Cork Company, and president of the American Manufacturers Association will be the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the National Interfraternity Conference, to be held at the Hotel Commodore, New York City, Friday evening, November 28. Requests for reservations should be addressed to Floyd W. Smith, 572 Madison Ave., New York, or Lauren Foreman, E.S.R., P. O. Box 1856, Evanston, Ill.

Mr. Prentis is one of the most sought-for speakers in America and is sure to prove a big drawing card for the dinner. Members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon who wish to attend should get their requests for reservations in early. The dinner this year promises to be even more impressive than that of last year when 3,600 members of Greek-letter organizations heard Wendell Willkie, Lowell Thomas, Dr. Henry Wriston, Dr. Dixon Ryan Fox and other notables pay tribute to the college fraternity. The executive committee of the National Interfraternity Conference has extended an invitation to the members of the National Panhellenic Congress to attend the dinner. The entire balcony, together with Parlor B, will be reserved for them and for representatives of the Women's Professional Panhellenic Association and the Association of Education Sororities. The main ballroom and the adjoining east ballroom will be reserved for member fraternities of the N.I.C. and a limited number of representatives of the honor society and professional fraternities.

Fraternity Loses Senator Pat Harrison

By Ben O. Coleman
W.C. Rho '37

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON'S Congressional leader, Senator Byron Patton ("Pat") Harrison, La. E '02, of Mississippi, who, as President Pro Tem of the Senate and Chairman of the Finance Committee, held a key position in providing the means of financing President Roosevelt's defense budget, died in Emergency Hospital in Washington, D.C., June 22, 1941.

Senator Harrison became President Pro Tempore of the Senate following the death of Senator Key Pittman, Tenn. Z '88, of Nevada, who died in Reno, Nev., November 10, 1940. He retained the chairmanship of the powerful Finance Committee. His seniority made him the ranking member of the Senate Foreign Relations and Rules Committee, but he declined the chairmanship of this.

For thirty years Senator Harrison was a colorful and influential figure in Congress. In March, 1941, he celebrated his thirtieth year in Congress. He was the "baby" member of the House when he began his first term in that body, March 4, 1911. He served eight years in the House and twenty-one years in the Senate.

In the midst of one of the most important tasks of his career, that of handling legislation necessary to finance the government during the present emergency, he was forced to undergo an operation for an intestinal obstruction, May 16. He rallied well after this ordeal but in midweek, took a turn for the worse and died of exhaustion. At his bedside were his wife, the former Mary Edwina McInnis of Leaksville, Miss., and his son, Pat, Jr., Miss. Γ '31. Two other children, Mrs. James W. Cummings of Bethesda, Md., and Mrs. Irwin Miller of Nashville, Tenn.; a brother, Burroughs Harrison of Kilmichael, Miss., and a sister, Mrs. C. E. Saunders of Crystal Springs, Miss., also survive.

Christened Byron Patton Harrison, he simplified the name to "Pat Harrison," when he first entered politics and was elected district attorney in his gulf-coast district when twenty-three years old. Born in Crystal Springs, Miss., August 29, 1881, the son of Robert and Myra Patton Harrison, he was forced to go to work early because of the death of his father, a Confederate veteran. Selling newspapers as a boy, he managed to be graduated from the Crystal Springs high school, and with a "stake" he got playing semi-professional baseball, entered Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge. There, he waited on table in the mess hall to help pay his way. After being graduated, he became a school teacher and studied law at night. Two years later he was elected principal of the school at Leaksville. He also opened a law office there.

Colleagues suggested a state funeral in tribute to Harrison's statesmanship and popularity, but the family, knowing the senator's preference for simplicity, demurred. The body lay in state in the Senate chamber, June 23. Among the many tributes paid to Senator Harrison was that of Congressman Charles A. Plumley, Vt. A-Σ-II '96, of Vermont, which appeared in the Congressional Record, June 23.

The entire Senate membership was invited to accompany the body to Gulfport, Miss., the senator's home, where funeral services were held, June 25. A special train left Washington on the 24th. Members of Congress included Clifford Davis, Miss. Γ '18, of Tennessee. Services were held at the Methodist Church in Gulfport. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

The National Fraternity was represented by Gaston H. Hewes, Miss. Γ '24, president of the Mississippi Gulf Coast Alumni Association and other members of the association included Wallace Weatherley, Tenn. Ω '16; Edson McCabe, Tenn. K '20; Judge George Murphy, Miss. Γ '21, and G. B. Cousins, Jr., Miss. Γ '32. Mr. Hewes was in charge of the Fraternity's representation by request of the National Officers and he selected A. C. Hewes, Miss. Γ '27, and Victor Pringle, Miss. Γ '32, to represent Mississippi Gamma at the University of Mississippi. Paul Johnson, Jr., Miss. Γ '38, son of Governor Johnson, also was in attendance.

The funeral was the largest by far that Mississippi has ever held and by its simplicity was very impressive. Public and private business in Gulfport and surrounding coast communities was suspended during the funeral hours and flags throughout the state flew at half staff until sunset.

In tribute to Senator Harrison the Washington Alumni Association of ΣAE adopted resolutions which were sent to Mrs. Harrison. They read:

Whereas: The Sigma Alpha Epsilon Alumni Association of the City of Washington, District of Columbia, has learned with profound sorrow and deep regret of the death of our loyal and devoted brother, the Honorable Pat Harrison, now, therefore, be it

Resolved: That we extend to his widow and family our sincere sympathy in their sad bereavement.

His devotion to the Fraternity, his sympathy and courteous demeanor toward all, and his outstanding statesmanship have endeared him to the members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon throughout the entire country.

His passing is a distinct loss to the Fraternity and to the Nation. His good counsel and advice will be sadly missed by all. We grieve with his family and the entire country in this hour of sadness. Be it Further Resolved: That these resolutions be spread at length on our minutes and that a copy be sent to his family.
