SACRIFICES must be made but until you are called upon to do some definite part in the defense program, the United States Government counsels NORMAL LIVING.

Your patriotic duty at this time is to complete your education so that you will be better qualified to do your part later if selected.

Radical retrenchments in social programs endanger heightened civilian morale. Your social program can be adjusted to strengthen Government defense activities.

Minerva's Golden Sons in the Wake of War

By Don M. Gable
Ohio Delta '35

IN THE march of events, in the Wake of the War for the United States, ΣAE has suffered losses in its roll of members.

Tragedy struck the Fraternity on that historic day, December 7, 1941, when the Japanese slyly stung Pearl Harbor. ΣAE's first reported victim was Ensign Joseph G. Smartt, Texas Δ '41, bomber pilot in the U.S. Naval Reserve, who was killed in action at Kaneohe Bay, T.H.

When news of Ensign Smartt's death reached the Fraternity, members recalled World War I when 156 ΣAEs gave their lives for their country. Ensign Smartt has joined the Golden Sons of Minerva as the first member to make the supreme sacrifice in World War II. His photograph has been placed in the Levere Memorial Temple, Shrine of Minerva.

Since hostilities began in the Pacific and the United States has become engaged in war "on all fronts," reports of several other members making the supreme sacrifice have been received. Another victim of the Pearl Harbor attack was Joseph F. McDonald, Jr., Nev. A '41, who died in the defense of Wake Island. Word was received from the Navy Department on December 26th that Mr. McDonald was a volunteer in the anti-aircraft gun crew defending the island. News of his death was the first word of any civilian casualties on the island.

On December 15th Neil G. Martin, Ark. A-Y '39, became a Golden Son when he was killed while flying on combat duty at Rangoon, Burma. 2nd Lt. Foy Roberson, N.C. E '40, was killed, December 21, 1941, in a collision at sea while on patrol duty. He was stationed at the Army Air Corps Base at San Diego, Calif.

A double tragedy was reported to the Fraternity when 2nd Lt. Elmer Munn, Colo. Z '39, pilot of an Army bomber, was killed in an air crash near Boise, Idaho, January 15, 1942. His father, Elmer M. Munn, Colo. Z '15, dropped dead in El Paso, Texas, when he learned of his son's death.

The nation was paralyzed with the report of the death of Carole Lombard, cinema star, and fifteen ferry pilots, in a transport air crash near Las Vegas, Nevada, January 16, 1942. Among the pilots was Charles Nelson, Minn. A '39, N.D.A.

Robert Uhlmann, pledge of Michigan Iota-Beta at the University of Michigan, and twin brother of Roy Uhlmann, Mich. I-B '41, was killed in service during hostilities in Hawaii. The chapter plans an initiation ceremony in memory of Pledge Uhlmann who went into service before initiation. More members may have died in the invasion, but reports have not been received at the National Office.

Perhaps the Fraternity has been fortunate in the number of losses it has had in comparison with the number of members reported in service for the United States. As this issue of THE RECORD goes to press more than 1,000 men have been reported serving their country. Many of these men are in perilous places and have been spared to date. For instance, the father of 1st Lt. William Ivan Fryer, Ky. K '35, bomber pilot in Honolulu, reported that his son was located at Hickam Field in Honolulu when it was bombed by the Japanese and "he came through unhurt."

Founders Day

Thus, the Fraternity approaches its eighty-sixth anniversary with tragedy in its midst, but with the determination that ΣAE will carry on. Throughout the country during the weekend of March 9th, the founding date of the Fraternity, members will be gathering to share in the common bond and to praise those members who have joined the Chapter Eternal in World War II. Chapters Collegiate and Alumni Association are urged to plan their celebrations of Founders Day in order to invite as many members in service as possible. Contacts with members in nearby camps should be made in order that the service men may share in celebrating ΣAE's birthday. Alumni, this day, will pay tribute to their youth.

Tribute to youth is the order of the day, tribute to those in service and to those who will join the ranks. Perhaps the most appropriate words for ΣAEs may be quoted from Joseph F. McDonald, Nev. A '15, charter member of the University of Nevada chapter, who is editor of the Nevada State Journal. Following the death of his son, Joseph F. McDonald, Jr., on Wake Island, Mr. McDonald prepared an editorial entitled, "His Heritage." It read:

"Something in the great scheme of things, far beyond our understanding, brings to us at some point in the few fleeting years that hold forth for each of us, the great realization that somewhere, somehow the sorrows and the joys, the day-dreams and the realities of life in Free America are not ours for the asking but are ours to be cherished and protected. It is to the youth of the land that we turn.

"Such is the heritage of the typical American boy, born under the freedom of the Stars and Stripes.

"The world unfolds before him. It is his to conquer, not by the sword but by perseverance, integrity, kindness and the will to work and to give and take.

"His faults may be many, but, mingled with his virtues, they only serve to bring into greater relief those qualities of manhood which down through the years have made America great.

"In the placid waters of Hawaii, on the barren coral isles of the Pacific, in the Philippines, in the air and on the sea, everywhere the flag of freedom flies, the American boy today sees his plans and his day-dreams shattered, but he does not hesitate to risk or give his life that those who are to follow him may enjoy the same God-given heritage, that is America.

"It is in the memory of an American boy that these few lines are written. Words cannot express, nor cold type denote the feelings of those to whom he was near and dear, nor can they express the feelings of other American fathers and mothers, throughout this vast land whose memories span the years from babyhood to Boy Scout to soldier.

"His country will never let him down. Victory will be inscribed on his gravestone."

When ΣAEs meet on Founders Day it is hoped these words from Mr. McDonald will be read as he seems to express that which is in the minds of all ΣAEs, Americans. Details concerning the deaths of members in this article may be found in the Chapter Eternal Department of this issue, page 32.

The Fraternity in Service

Active at New Basic Flying School

WITH the opening last November of the Air Corps' new $4,500,000 basic flying school, six miles southwest of Enid, Okla., Sigma Alpha Epsilon was well represented in both officer and cadet ranks.

Lt. Col. Albert B. Pitts, Ga. Φ '11, Miss. Γ '12, was named commanding officer. He received his pilot training in France and served during World War I and in the Army of Occupation. He attended Georgia School of Technology, the University of Mississippi, and Sheffield College, Yale University. Lt. Col. Pitts has been at Kelly Field, Tex., and previous to that he served three years in the Philippine Islands. Shortly after the declaration of war Colonel Pitts was transferred to the office of the Chief of the Air Corps in Washington, D.C., where he is now stationed.

Major R. Bruce Davenport, Ind. B '28, had the distinction of flying the first training plane to the new school from the Vultee plant in California. Director of Training at the Enid Field, Major Davenport is well qualified for present duties.

Captain Vincent M. Miles, Jr., Ark. A-Y '37, has been a flying instructor at Randolph Field until he transferred to the new Enid school where he is stage commander as well as squadron commander.

Lt. Dale L. Gaeth, Wash. A '40, is squadron adjutant for the 475th School Squadron at the new basic flying school. A salesman in civilian life, he reported to Randolph Field, Texas, prior to his arrival in Enid.

Aviation Cadet Paul M. Stanch, pledge of Virginia Tau of the University of Richmond, is well on his way through his basic course at Enid, upon completion of which he will enter ten additional weeks of advanced training before being commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army Air Corps.

Aviation Cadet Edwin M. Shanks, Pa. Z '41, will be sent to an advanced school after completing his basic training at Enid.

Acting Chief of Air Corps

Major General Walter Read Weaver, Va. Θ '04, is acting chief of the Army Air Corps with headquarters in Washington, D.C. His assignment to this position was made by the War Department, December 12, 1941. The orders relieved Weaver of his assignment as Commanding General of the Southeast Air Corps Training Center at Maxwell Field, Ala. As acting chief of the air corps he will direct all supply and training operations of the army air forces. Details of his career were given in the March, 1941, issue of THE RECORD. A photograph of Major General Weaver appears on the title page of this issue.

Flying Hero Honored

In honor of the late Captain Sam Kaye, Tenn. Ω '18, flying hero of World War I, the Columbus, Miss., air base was formally designated in January as Kaye Field. Captain Kaye, who shot down eight German planes and took part in other victories, received four decorations and served in the famous 94th Aero Squadron. The War Department announced naming of the 4267-acre advanced flying school for Captain Kaye, member of a prominent Columbus family and a first commander of the American Legion Post. He died in March, 1939.

In the Thick of Things

Captain Glenn R. Lemmon, Iowa B '19, is with the 251st C.A. (A.A.), a California National Guard Regiment which was the first inducted and the first to leave the continental limits in peace time for overseas service, at Camp Malakole, T.H. There he has been in the middle of all local excitement since arrival in the islands in November, 1940. Captain Lemmon reports that he received the December issue of THE RECORD after the attack on December 7th. Through a fraternity ring he met Lt. S. F. Crabtree, Ala M '41. They planned a get-together with other members, but have postponed it due to conditions.

Saw Honolulu Hit

The Rev. David C. Stubbs, Ga. E '29, and Mrs. Stubbs had ringside seats when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor. They were passengers aboard a Dutch ship and at the time of the attack they thought American defense forces were staging a sham battle. The Dutch vessel Jagersfontein was putting into Honolulu when the unannounced war began and the Stubbs with others dashed to the decks to watch the "realistic sham battle." The Stubbs were en route to Malaya as missionaries. They were ignorant of the Japanese attack until they docked, even though some of the bombs struck uncomfortably close to the craft which continued into the harbor. Watching from their ringside seats, the Rev. Mr. Stubbs said they were so convinced the engagement was a sham battle that they unwittingly applauded Jap dive bombers, saying to one another, "Only American trained Navy men could put on such a display of speed and timing."

Joins Defense Work

Brigadier General Dana T. Merrill, Maine A '98, retired, is Coordinator of Civilian Defense for Hamilton County, Ohio, and Kenton and Campbell counties, Ky. Announcement of his appointment was made in Cincinnati, December 22, 1941, and approval given by the Fifth Army Corps on recommendation of the Hamilton County National Defense Council. He directs the working out of plans whereby communities on both sides of the Ohio River at Cincinnati may be amply protected from possible air raids and sabotage. He has made his home at Fort Thomas, Ky., since his retirement as Brigadier General, as announced in the December, 1940, issue of THE RECORD. He was in command of the 10th Infantry Brigade, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

Report from Egypt

■ Lt. Garrett Fonda, Neb. A-II '37, is an American Armored Corps Observer in Cairo, Egypt. According to the Foreign News Round-Up broadcast over WEA, December 3, 1941, Lieut. Fonda, who is a cousin of Henry Fonda of movie fame, with a fleet of British trucks actually drove through a German column, moving in a fog that blacked out everything more than ten feet away. Fonda's car broke from the parade and escaped, but others were not so lucky. Lieut. Fonda took refuge in an American tank. The stream of machine-gun bullets bounced off. They sounded like rain on the roof, he said, but they didn't give the same pleasant feeling. The report was made by Grant Parr, speaking from Cairo. When Fonda was at the University of Nebraska, he served as Eminent Archon of Nebraska Lambda-Pi. Attention to Fonda's part in the broadcast was called by John C. Collins, Neb. A-II '37, Wash. A '39.

On Observation

■ Second Lieutenant George J. Watts, Mont. A '41, has been in the Army Signal Corps in England observing the British air craft warning system. Upon completion of this work and return to the United States he is to present the information to the U. S. Signal Corps. He was selected from a group of radio engineers to make the observation.

Promoted to Major

■ The rank of major has been bestowed upon James R. Monk, Jr., La. E '26, at Camp Polk, La. Major Monk received his promotion in November and is camp provost marshal and is also the commanding officer of the military police detachment. As captain he served in infantry, headquarters and station complement, Corps Area service command.

Use His Pictures

■ When Lt. Cortland Bassett, Mass. K '41, went to Fort Meyers, Va., he had a new motion picture camera, and as a result, he took a lot of pictures of the camp in color. So successful has he been that the pictures are to be incorporated into a story concerning the fort.

COORDINATOR—Brigadier General Dana T. Merrill, Maine A '98, Retired, Head of Civilian Defense in Greater Cincinnati, Ohio.

1,000 STRONG!

More than 600 members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon were reported to the National Office as being in service December 1, 1941. But that was during National Defense Days. With the change of events, December 7, and the United States now in war "on all fronts," come reports of more than 400 more members serving their country, making a total of 1,000 reports.

And there will be more. THE RECORD is attempting to keep up with events in order that all members in service will know about each other and possibly be able to contact each other in the ranks. Notes concerning members in service are increasing rapidly, but news items of all members will be given in each issue as long as possible. As a result of the news items appearing in the December issue many members responded. Perhaps the most impressive and encouraging note came from Philip Anderson, Minn. A '39, at Camp Roberts, Calif. Words from him were: "Not until the December issue of THE RECORD which I just received this week, my first copy since I have been in the Army, did I realize how useful and entertaining the listing of the men in service could be. I have been able to contact brothers just today. I think it is a fine idea."

In order to further bring the Fraternity to members in service plans are being formulated to provide each camp library with copies of THE RECORD.

Knox in Baltimore

■ Arthur H. Knox, III, $\Psi\text{-}\Omega$ '02, architect of the Levere Memorial Temple, is now located in Baltimore, Md., where he is a construction engineer for the Defense Housing, erecting 696 units for aviation workers at the Glen Martin plant. He completed his work as engineer at Aberdeen, Md., where 300 houses for workers were constructed at the Proving Ground. He was transferred to Baltimore on November 27th.

Priorities Field Service

■ Charles B. Shaeffer, Kan. A '16, is in charge of Kansas City priorities field service office of the Office of Production Management. The announcement was made in December by the co-ordinator for the Southwest district of the priorities division of OPM. Mr. Shaeffer was in Washington for intensive training in preparation for his new position. He is president of the Munger Investment Company in Kansas City, Mo. He was president of the Bunting Hardware Company before his retirement in 1933. In the first World War he was a lieutenant in the ordnance department.

Tells About Pearl Harbor

■ In peaceful July, last, Ensign Kenneth Landis, III, $\Psi\text{-}\Omega$ '40, flew from Honolulu, Hawaii, to marry Miss Rowena Van Petten of Evanston, Ill., in the Levere Memorial Temple. The couple returned to Honolulu for a honeymoon and Ken went back to submarine duty. Then came the Pearl Harbor blow from the Japanese. In response to many inquiring friends concerning the safety of Ensign Landis and his wife, he issued a censored form letter, February 1. All was well but the December 7th experience was harrowing. He wrote: "I was rudely awakened at home by the sound of bursting shells and falling bombs. So, it took very little time to dress and get into Pearl Harbor. Upon arriving at the base I grabbed my gun crew together and proceeded to give the Japs a taste of anti-aircraft fire. We fired until we were too tired to fire anymore and then shifted crews. I'm proud to say that we downed one plane and I'm also sure that I know we hit plenty more. We were too busy and excited to be scared then but after it was over, my knees shook plenty. As you probably read in the papers, there were plenty of bombs and falling shrapnel all around us but I assure you I escaped the whole raid without a scratch. In the meantime, Roe (his wife) was home watching the anti-aircraft and planes, not knowing where and if to hide, and worrying about me at Pearl Harbor. We were lucky as there were no bombs that landed around our house. Roe, and all the others here, want to stick it out and be near their husbands. So, we all carry our gas masks around and dig our bomb shelters a little deeper and vow to give the Japs a terrible welcome if they come back." Ensign Landis has been transferred from submarine duty to the U.S.S. Pelias, a new ship. He says Hawaii is still the island paradise that it has always been and always will be despite war. "The weather is balmy and the swimming is wonderful," he commented.

Loyalty to Country and Fraternity Linked

By Lauren Foreman

E.S.R.

MEMBERS of Sigma Alpha Epsilon can show their loyalty to America and to their Fraternity at the same time by purchasing United States Defense Bonds and donating them to the Levere Memorial Temple Sustaining Fund.

Such Defense Bonds will be accepted at face value and may be applied to subscriptions for Founders or Life Memberships in the Chapter National of ΣAE.

Resolutions, authorizing the acceptance of Defense Bonds at face value from members subscribing for Founders or Life Memberships, were adopted by the members of the Supreme Council of ΣAE and the Trustees of The Levere Memorial Foundation at meetings held at the Levere Memorial Temple in Evanston, Ill., on January 16th on the suggestion of Rene P. Banks, Ohio Δ '17, chairman of the Endowment Campaign Committee

Life Memberships for Kin

RENE P. BANKS, Ohio Δ '17, Ore. A '19, chairman of the Levere Memorial campaign and past Archon of Province Lambda, has helped his fraternity by obtaining Life Memberships in the Chapter National as birthday gifts for his fraternity relatives. His most recent gift was for his brother, Willard A. Banks, Colo. Z '13. In each case Mr. Banks plans with the National Office to have the Life Membership card delivered to the relative on his anniversary. Life Memberships in ΣAE may be secured with the payment of $50. Two dollars and fifty cents of each $3.00 paid into the Chapter National annually may be applied toward a Life Membership and the Life Membership may be had with the payment of the balance on $50.00. Life Memberships are appropriate birthday or graduation gifts.

named by Eminent Supreme Archon George N. Short.

Defense Bonds donated by members will be held in the Levere Memorial Temple Sustaining Fund and will become the nucleus of a fund which it is hoped in time will provide an income sufficient to provide for the maintenance and operation of the Levere Memorial Temple so that it will be unnecessary to draw anything from the general funds of the Fraternity for this purpose. Surplus income can be used for various constructive projects of the Fraternity.

Investments for the Levere Memorial Temple Sustaining Fund will be made by the Trustees of the Foundation with the advice and consent of the members of the Advisory Council whose approval by a four-fifths vote must be secured before the Trustees can sell any assets of the Fund or make any new investments.

The Trustees of the Foundation are the members of the Supreme Council and the Eminent Supreme Recorder of ΣAE. The Advisory Council is composed of Norman H. Pritchard, Ind. A '04; Joseph F. Govan, Ark. A-Y '02; Charles F. Grey, Ill. Θ '11; Edwin O. Blomquist, Ill. Ψ-Ω '15; and Judge Alfred K. Nippert, Ohio E '94, Past E.S.A.

Sixty-One New Life Members

LIFE MEMBERS of the Chapter National of Sigma Alpha Epsilon numbered 1,950 on February 3rd, sixty-one alumni having completed payment of the $50 fee since November 4, 1941.

Several alumni who had not previously paid the annual Chapter National dues of $3.00 became Life Members by paying the full amount of $50 but the majority took advantage of the plan under which alumni who have paid annual dues for several years may be given a credit of $2.50 for each yearly payment and become Life Members by paying the balance necessary to make up the $50 fee.

To Roland P. Francis, Ohio P '15, an architect of Lakewood, Ohio, to whom Life Membership card No. 1,950 was issued, goes the distinction of being the first man to become a Life Member by the payment of annual Chapter National dues for twenty consecutive years, from 1923 to 1942. During the World War I, he served in the Coast Artillery and was commissioned as a second lieutenant.

There are also forty-nine Founders of the National Endowment Fund who have paid $1,000 each and several subscribers who are paying for such memberships in instalments.

Unless otherwise directed by the donors, all receipts from Founders and Life Memberships are applied to reduction of the debt on the Levere Memorial Temple which now amounts to only $30,000, payments of $7,500 having been made since July 1, 1941.

"LOOK TO THE RECORD"

McKinley Collection

By Eva M. Hansen
Temple Librarian

The collection of pictures and historic objects connected with the life of William McKinley, Ohio Σ, forms one of the most interesting parts of the museum in the Levere Memorial Temple. Among recent additions is the autograph of Nancy A. McKinley, mother of President McKinley, which was given to the museum by O. K. Quivey, Ind. B '12, Past E.S.A. A card acknowledging expressions of sympathy tendered the widow at the time of President McKinley's death, was sent to Ohio Sigma of ΣAE, at Mount Union College, July 29, 1902. Recently this card was presented to the museum by this chapter which initiated President McKinley. A. P. Rickard, Ohio Σ '07, of Canton, Ohio was one of the Temple visitors who showed especial interest in this collection. In December, Charles F. Collins, Mass. B-T '12, Past E.S.A., contributed an unusual article for the McKinley group. A silk banner with blue background and white stars, has a pen and ink drawing of McKinley in a white circle in the center. Under the portrait are the words "Patriotism, Protection and Prosperity." It is well framed in mahogany with the explanation in one corner, "Banner used at Republican Convention at St. Louis, Mo., 1896." When McKinley was nominated it was waved by Col. John B. Doherty, a delegate from Connecticut. A recent visitor from McKinley's home town, Canton, Ohio, suggested that the National Office secure for the museum one of the new postage stamps having McKinley's portrait on it. No president is placed on a stamp until after he dies. The denomination of the stamp used for the purpose depends upon his place in the line of presidents. In this case, because William McKinley was the twenty-fifth president, his likeness is on a twenty-five cent stamp. This stamp is now in the McKinley case. Temple visitors who have known much about President McKinley recall his great patience and kindness to his invalid wife during her long illness. Many call him one of our country's most beloved presidents.

Notes on New Books

EDITOR'S NOTE: In the December, 1941, issue of THE RECORD it was announced that books by ΣΑΕ authors and other contributions to the Levere Memorial Temple Library would be reviewed in each issue of the magazine providing enough books were received from each issue to the next to warrant the space. Since the reviews in the last issue several contributions have been made. Reviews on these follow.

PARADISE LIMITED—What person hasn't dreamed of a trip to Honolulu? If you have been fortunate enough to visit Hawaiian Islands, were you so fascinated that you wanted to learn more? A beautiful job in presenting the history of the Hawaiians has been done by Thomas Blake Clark, Tenn. E '29, Tenn. N., assistant professor of English at the University of Hawaii. Mr. Clark has visited all of the Hawaiian Islands (and has gone around the world in his adventures) but he does not try to give an exhaustive history as that cannot be done in one volume. The author likes Hawaii and begins Paradise Limited with "Where Streets Are Poetry," in the days twelve years ago, when Mr. Clark went there to be an instructor in English composition. Then he tells of the Hawaiian stories he would like to write, giving a glimpse of interesting characters. Entertaining is the history Mr. Clark presents, the only trouble the reader having is the confusion in names. One reads of a Hawaiian personality and when he encounters that personality in print again, he has lost it due to the difficulty in remembering the peculiar names. But one name you will remember—Kamehameha I, Napoleon of the Pacific, a fascinating chieftain who for a joke's sake would not let his white guests know they were eating dogs for dinner until their plates were clean! With this delightful informal history of the fabulous Hawaiians, describing the natives' struggles with the missionaries and whalers, etc., Mr. Clark's Oriental England (his first book) and Omai are contemplated for the ΣAE Library.

FIFTY YEARS OF PUBLIC LIFE—

Spanning the administrations of sixteen presidents of the United States, Daniel C. Roper, S.C. F '88, former Secretary of Commerce, presents his autobiography, Fifty Years of Public Life (Duke University Press), in collaboration with Frank H. Lovette. Mr. Roper's book is recommended to those particularly interested in governmental work and the careers of men serving the public. Mr. Roper held important offices under nine presidents. His positions were not spectacular but he served his country in many responsible jobs and is able to give readers a broad view of happenings during his years of service. Mr. Roper begins his story when he was five years old in South Carolina and carries through to his retirement from public life and "Setting Our House in Order," which carries the reader fairly up to the minute in what our country faces today. Incidentally Mr. Roper, Past Honorary Eminent Supreme Archon of ΣAE, speaks of fraternity: "While in Wofford College, in the autumn of 1885, I became one of the founders of the South Carolina Gamma chapter of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. I was impressed then, as I am now, by the opportunity which the fraternal spirit, whether in or out of college, has of serving humanity. Fraternities, however, need to guard against snobbishness and to stress character and scholarship. Such fraternal groups, if wisely formed, may be of advantage after college life."

GUATEMALA—Caroline S. Lloyd Jones, widow of Dr. Chester Lloyd Jones, Wis. A '02, has made complete the collection of several books by the late Dr. Jones in the Levere Memorial Temple Library by contributing Guatemala, Past and Present and The Consular Service of the United States. Guatemala (The University of Minnesota Press) is the first comprehensive survey in any language of the political, economic and social history and organization of the Central American country. Dr. Jones, who was professor of economics and political science at the University of Wisconsin, gives a vivid account of the richest, the most populous and the most influential of the republics. Those who are alert to world affairs will find this book interesting. It is full of facts, more than 400 pages and a handsome cover. The Consular Service of the United States (The John C. Winston Company) was published for the University of Pennsylvania when Dr. Jones was a research fellow in Political Science there in 1906. This book, Number Eighteen in the political economy and public law series, gives the history and activities of the U.S. consular service, dwelling on the development of its relations to trade.

THE SCENIC TREASURE HOUSE OF OREGON—If you want to take a trip through a beautiful state in one evening's reading, obtain a copy of The Scenic Treasure House of Oregon (Binfords & Mort), by Warren D. Smith, Wis. A '02, professor of geology and geography at the University of Oregon. This neat little book, well illustrated (with a double page of Crater Lake as an introduction) is a glorified field trip by sea, mountain, desert and river under the guidance of well-known Mr. Smith. He gives romance and adventure backed with geological and historical facts. He begins with the appreciation of scenery and the geologic framework of Oregon and ends with hints to travellers and out-of-door organizations in the state.

MISCELLANEOUS—A beautifully bound volume of the Chi Psi Centennial History and Catalogue was a gift of Chi Psi's H. Seger Slifer to the fraternity and sorority library which is unique with its great representation of bound volumes of fraternity magazines and histories. Lucius Q. C. Lamar, His Life, Times & Speeches (Second Edition, 1896), has been contributed by Benjamin O. Coleman, W.C. P '37. This imposing story on Lucius Lamar, Miss. '66, was written by Edward Mayes, LL.D., Ex-Chancellor of the University of Mississippi. This is the third copy to be received for the library. Commemorating the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Class of '88, English High School, Boston, Mass., has been contributed by the publisher, George A. Moore, Mass. B-T '94. The book, well illustrated, is unique in the fact that it is no doubt the first book published by a high school class and concerns the first high school in America. Mr. Moore was of the English High School class of '88. The class of '88 had voted at its annual meeting in 1939 to publish a souvenir of its fiftieth reunion, and as president of the class, the work of publishing the souvenir was assigned to Mr. Moore. Interesting in the biographical sketches are comparative photographs, showing the class members as they appeared then and as they looked in 1941. Mr. Moore, an inventor, is a Life Member of the Chapter National and resides in Medford, Mass. "Dayton Clarence Miller: Physics Across Fifty Years," by Robert S. Shankland, Ohio P '29, head of the department of physics at Case School of Applied Science, is a pamphlet reprinted from the American Journal of Physics, Vol. 9, No. 5, October, 1941. The pamphlet was sent to the National Office by Jack Thoman of Ohio Rho.

Three Province Conventions

ALPHA

*By Gunnar E. Erickson
Mass. Kappa '19*

WITH Vermont Beta at the University of Vermont as host, the biennial convention of Province Alpha consisting of chapters in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont, was held at Hotel Vermont in Burlington, Saturday and Sunday, December 6-7, 1941.

All New England chapters were represented and Province Alpha officers were in attendance, besides Charles F. Collins, Past E.S.A.; Lauren Foreman, E.S.R.; Leslie W. Miller, Past Province Archon, and Edward M. Peters, Past Province Archon, and representatives of the Boston Alumni Association.

The business sessions opened Saturday morning with Province Archon Robert R. Haskell in charge. He gave a report of his stewardship during the past two years. A number of excellent reports were presented by the delegates, showing knowledge of chapter affairs and a great deal of study. These reports formed the chief points of convention discussion.

The Province scholarship trophy was again awarded to New Hampshire Alpha at Dartmouth College. The Committee on Extension reported its work with a local fraternity at the University of Connecticut which is petitioning for a charter. The meeting was opened to a delegation of three from the local and they did an excellent job of presenting their case. The convention voted unanimously to recommend at the next National Convention that the local, Sigma Phi Gamma, be granted a charter as a chapter in ΣAE.

Silent prayer was given in memory of three members who had contributed so much of their time and energy to the advancement of the best interests of the fraternity. These members who died since the last convention were: Edward Mellus, Mass. Γ '95; Clarence W. Stowell, Maine A '00, and Herbert H. Bennett, Mass. I-T '10.

William W. Paddock, W.C. P '06, of Boston, Mass., was elected Province Archon, filling the position held by Mr. Haskell. Other officers elected were: William D. Morton, Jr., Mass. Γ '27, Deputy Archon; George Barner, Mass. Γ '30, Treasurer; Gunnar E. Erickson, Mass. K '19, Recorder; Franklin E. Ferguson, Mass. B-Y '38, Alumni Secretary.

Mr. Paddock, the new Archon, was a member of the local, Beta Lambda Beta at George Washington University, Washington, D.C., which petitioned and was admitted to ΣAE in 1902. He served as Eminent Archon of Washington City Rho and after being graduated, he was president of the Washington Alumni Association. He also served as treasurer of the Boston Alumni Association and treasurer of Province Alpha. He has attended several National and Province conventions.

The convention voted to hold its next session with Massachusetts Delta at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, celebrating the chapter's fiftieth anniversary in 1944. The convention will be held during the first or second week of December, 1943.

The various committees arranged for an interesting social program which included a banquet and a formal dance on the roof garden of Hotel Vermont. The dance was well attended and the host chapter did an excellent job of selecting dates. Following the dance a number of the alumni adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Congdon. Due to the splendid efforts of Roger Hunting, Jerry Ditore of Vermont Beta and Alumnus Adviser Richard Congdon, Vt. B '34, the convention was a success.

EPSILON

THE biennial convention of Province Epsilon was held at the Hotel George Washington, Jacksonville, Fla., Monday and Tuesday, December 29-30, 1941, with all chapters represented except Alabama Iota. There were also present: Cobb C. Torrance, E.S.W., and Lauren Foreman, E.S.R., both of whom are Past Archons of the Province, and the officers of the Province, Archon J. Henson Markham, Deputy Archon S. R. Bridges, Jr., and Recorder-Treasurer L. McCoy Whitmire.

Business sessions were held Monday morning and afternoon and Tuesday morning. The reports from the chapters showed that conditions are generally good and that steps have been taken to meet such emergencies as may arise from the entry of the United States into war.

The war was brought home to the delegates Monday when Deputy Officers for 1942-43 were elected as follows: Archon, J. Henson Markham, Fla. Y '24, Jacksonville, Fla.; Deputy Archon, Asbury C. Latimer, Ga. B '36, Atlanta, Ga.; Recorder-Treasurer, L. McCoy Whitmire, Ala. I '34, Birmingham, Ala.

The Convention voted to invest a part of the surplus in the treasury of the Province in U.S. Defense bonds.

Social affairs, arranged by the Jacksonville alumni, consisted of a luncheon and buffet supper at the hotel on Monday and a dance at the Florida Yacht Club Tuesday night which was also attended by a large number of alumni.

Sons of Minerva On Battle Front

AS IN EVERY war country has been involved since the founding of Sigma Alpha Epsilon on March 9, 1856, members of the Fraternity were serving in all branches of the military and naval forces of the United States when hostilities were opened by Japan on December 7, 1941.

Many of them were serving in Hawaii, the Philippines and other exposed points in the Pacific and among the Americans who made the supreme sacrifice on the opening day of the conflict was Ensign Joseph G. Smartt, Texas Δ '41, an account of whose heroic death is carried in this issue.

Since that date other deaths have been reported and new gold stars placed on Minerva's flag. Already over 1,000 ΣAEs have been reported as being in active service and there is every reason to believe that, as war activities expand, the number of those in uniform will increase to such an extent as to surpass the record of the Fraternity in World War I when nearly 8,000 of its members were in the service and 156 proved their valor with their lives.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon is proud of its members who have joined the colors and knows that they will give a good account of themselves, no matter what dangers or hardships they may be called upon to face in line of duty.

ΦA

Fraternity Prospects

ALONG with all other institutions, Fraternities will have many new problems to face as the result of the United States being at war. Likewise, they will have new opportunities for service to their members and to the institutions of learning in which their chapters are located.

While it is considered possible that the Federal Government may ask the colleges and universities to shorten the educational period by going on a year-round basis, there seems little likelihood that the educational processes of the nation will be upset in such a way as to interfere with the functioning of the colleges and universities or of the fraternities.

From the financial standpoint, year-round operation should prove a definite advantage to those fraternity chapters which own houses since they will be able to make 100 percent use of these facilities instead of having them stand idle during the summer months and producing no income from rent while many of the overhead expenses must go on.

Consequently, an optimistic view of the prospects for fraternities may be taken with reason but, at the same time, all necessary steps should be taken to provide for such unforeseen emergencies as may arise. The manpower of chapters should be kept up and expenditures rigidly controlled. Elaborate social affairs, entailing heavy costs, should be eliminated, as being in bad taste and so that the savings on these and other expenses can be put into a reserve fund for the future.

Keeping Records Of Service Men

TO KEEP adequate records of the members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon who are serving in the military and naval forces of the United States and allied nations will impose an additional task on the National Office, the successful performance of which will require the assistance of all members of the Fraternity, collegiate and alumni.

A card index file has already been established at Evanston and each of the Chapters Collegiate has been requested to set up such a file for information about its members in the service, to create the office of War Records Secretary, and to elect a capable and reliable man to perform its duties.

Individual alumni and the families of members in the service are requested to help in this work by sending information to the National Office so that it may be entered in the files and published in THE RECORD. Communications should be addressed to "Sigma Alpha Epsilon, P.O. Box 1856, Evanston, Illinois."

It is desired to keep records as completely as possible while the war is in progress, rather than to wait and then have to collect this information when the war is over. The aid of all who will help in this important and patriotic work will be appreciated.

Education Best Asset

"STAY IN college until you have completed your course, or are called into military or naval service"—that is the advice that is being given to students by authorities who are in intimate touch with the problems of young men and are acquainted with the policies of the United States Government in the present emergency.

No one can tell what will happen to material wealth as the result of the war and the readjustments that will follow in its wake but the one certain thing is that the man with education and training will have a definite advantage over the man who lacks this equipment and will possess an asset which can not be taxed away or taken away from him in any other way.

Also, the man with education and training will be able to serve the country better than the man without them and the patriotic thing for each young American to do is to equip himself so as to be able to give the fullest measure of service of which he is capable.

In the present situation, it is only natural that many students should be stirred by the urge to take an active part in the great events which are taking place and be tempted to leave their books and laboratories for the camp and field. The call to adventure will be attractive to many but all should remember that from both the patriotic and the selfish standpoints, they should not leave their college work half-completed but carry it to completion and then be ready to answer the call of duty, prepared to carry out whatever task may be assigned to them.

The same considerations which should influence students to continue their college work should cause parents to realize that college training is now more important than ever before and resolve to give their sons this great advantage, if it is at all possible for them to do so.

Commissioner

FOR the first time since the National Fraternity has been computing the relative scholastic achievements of its various chapters, Kentucky Epsilon at the University of Kentucky stands at the top.

This chapter achieved its position of honor by being first in scholarship on a campus with 16 fraternities for the school year 1940-41. Under the new formula computations, which are explained in the special statement on this page, Kentucky's percentile rating for the year is 97.07. It is highly significant to note that Kentucky not only recorded a gain over 1939-40 of 29.42 percentiles, but also raised itself in the national rankings from 31st to first place. This clearly shows the progress that can be made by a chapter if it recognizes the need for scholarship and, by the adoption of a well-outlined program, does something about it. Kentucky has proved conclusively that scholarship can be improved through the application of hard and consistent work.

The national scholarship average for ΣAE has declined in 1940-41. The 1940-41 percentile average is 1.12 percentiles below the 1939-40 average for the National Fraternity.

Although only 45 chapters recorded net losses in comparison with 42 chapters with net gains, there are other reasons to explain this drop: (1) the losses suffered were more severe than the gains recorded; (2) in 1939-40 there were only eight chapters with centile ratings below 10.00, whereas in 1940-41 there were nine chapters with centile ratings below 10.00. These factors have led inevitably to the recorded decline in the national average.

Although the increase of 1939-40 seemed to point toward a promising upward trend, the declining average of 1940-41 reflects one important development: the chapters at the lower half of the scale are nullifying to a damaging extent the meritorious work of those chapters in the upper half. If chapters in the lower half succeed in directing their plans toward the raising of their scholastic position, and if the chapters in the upper half can maintain their present gratifying performances, the downward trend of the national scholastic average can be halted.

Your Commissioner has been able

Special Statement

Readers of the Scholarship Report of Sigma Alpha Epsilon for the Year 1940-41, appearing on this and the following pages, may recall the special announcement in the December, 1941, issue of THE RECORD, page 182, entitled "New Scholarship Formula."

This announcement pointed out that relative scholastic standings of the Chapters Collegiate of ΣAE, beginning with the college year 1940-41, would be determined by the use of a new formula developed to put into effect the recommendation of the 1939 Convention, and adopted by unanimous vote of the Supreme Council after an exhaustive study of the subject.

The order of the Supreme Council of December, 1941, instructs the Scholarship Commissioner, beginning with the current report and continuing in future, to use the following formula in calculating the ratings of each ΣAE chapter:

$$\frac{100}{N} \times [(N-S) + .5] = R$$

N equals the number of fraternities at the given institution.

S equals the standing or position of ΣAE (for example, third in ten).

R equals the centile rating.

The rating of each chapter will thus be calculated at the center of the interval.

Acting in accordance with these instructions, the Commissioner has put this formula into effect with the publication of the 1940-41 Report appearing on this and the following pages. All material in Table I (and the following tables), including not only the present report-year, but also all previous years there included for comparison, has been recalculated under the new formula. Comparability is therefore retained and protected. Likewise the all-ΣAE National Trend Line has been recalculated and corrected throughout to reflect the application of the new formula.

Throughout the study of the formula your Commissioner elected to make no recommendation regarding either the retention or the alteration of the old formula.

The Supreme Council has made a unanimous decision. Calculations of scholarship rating issuing in future from the office of the Commissioner will, therefore, reflect the new formula. Chapters of ΣAE should bear this point in mind in examining the present 1940-41 Report.

to gather reports on scholarship from 103 collegiate institutions at which ΣAE has chapters. Included in the 1940-41 computations are reports from three schools not represented with available data for the 1939-40 scholarship computations. This may mean that university and college authorities are finding such presentations an effective method of improving scholarship. With the present number of reports representing 90 percent of the ΣAE chapters, the figures presented in this discussion may be considered relatively complete and significant.

Seven chapters were in first place on their respective campuses during 1940-41 in comparison with six campus leaders in 1939-40. In 1939-40 Furman, Ohio Wesleyan, North Carolina, Occidental, Millikin, and Cumberland were the leaders. This year only Furman and Occidental have been able to repeat their peak performances. Kentucky, Oklahoma A. and M., Case, University of the South, Wofford, and Lafayette have won their way into the select group.

The scholastic average of the Fraternity for the past eight years is presented in Table II. Elsewhere in this report appears a graphic representation of these final centile figures completely recalculated to reflect the new formula. This graph offers an easily understandable picture of the record of ΣAE national scholarship for nearly a decade.

Table I presents the comparative centile ratings recalculated to reflect the new formula, for four academic years ending with the year 1940-41. This table is presented so that those interested may have complete data available to compute the trend of any chapter's scholastic record during these four years.

Kentucky has shown the greatest improvement among the nine leaders but was closely pressed by Oklahoma A. and M., which leaped from 26th place to second place, and by the University of the South, which raised itself from 29th to fourth place. Wofford and Case recorded increases of 11.61 percentiles, and 9.44 percentiles respectively, while Furman maintained its average at the same level as that of 1939-40, although in competition with one less fraternity. The record of Lafayette remains consistently strong in the face of competition with 18 fraternities.

Cited for Honors

Your Scholarship Commissioner wishes to extend warm congratulations to Kentucky Epsilon, and to the eight other leaders who are awarded honorable mention:

- Oklahoma Mu
- Ohio Rho
- Tennessee Omega
- South Carolina Gamma
- California Epsilon
- Ohio Delta
- Pennsylvania Gamma
- South Carolina Phi

The chapters at North Carolina, Colorado State, and Arizona are to be commended for maintaining their positions against strong competition from other fraternities.

Outstanding Gains

The most spectacular single improvement among the chapters was recorded by Louisiana Tau-Upsilon at Tulane. This chapter climbed from last place in 1939-40 to 24th in 1940-41. This tremendous gain of 60.39 percentiles was recorded in competition with 16 fraternities, a fact which of course adds to its significance.

Other important increases were recorded by Massachusetts Iota-Tau at M.I.T., with a net gain of 46.74 over 1939-40; Arkansas Alpha-Upsilon at the University of Arkansas, with a gain of 42.37 over 1939-40; Massachusetts Beta-Upsilon at Boston University, with a net gain of 42.36, and Arizona Alpha at the University of Arizona, with a gain of 42.27.

Still other strong increases have been recorded by California, with a net gain of 40.54 over 1939-40; Louisiana Epsilon at Louisiana State, with a net gain of 40.49, and by Franklin, Beloit, and Norwich, each with a net gain of 33.33. Regardless of the point from which a gain begins, the significance of that gain lies in the increase itself. This percentile increase reflects the fact that the chapter is doing its part to strengthen not only its own position but also that of the National Fraternity.

Losses for the Year

Massachusetts Kappa at Massachusetts State College, suffering the most severe loss for the period, dropped from 24th place to 102nd place, with a percentile loss of 70.00. Other severe and damaging losses were recorded by North Dakota State, dropping from 27th to 94th place with a loss of 60.00 percentiles; Wisconsin, dropping from 32nd to 91st place with a centile loss of 56.25; Bucknell, dropping from 47th to 101st with a centile loss of 44.45; Allegheny, dropping from 45th to 97th with a percentile loss of 42.86; and Georgia, dropping from 11th to 46th with a loss of 34.37 percentiles. Of lesser magnitude but of serious

In Table VI can be found a comparison of individual Σ AE chapters with the all-fraternity average and the all-men average at each institution. By examining this table, each chapter will be able to tell at a glance whether it is above or below the all-fraternity average on its campus for 1940-41, and whether it is above or below the all-men average on its campus for 1940-41. Summarizing the results of this table, we find that:

Summary for 1940-41

In relation to the all-fraternity average:

1. 52 chapters were BELOW the all-fraternity average
- 45 chapters were ABOVE the all-fraternity average
- 17 chapters had no data available

114

In relation to the all-men average:

2. 46 chapters were BELOW the all-men average
- 49 chapters were ABOVE the all-men average
- 17 chapters had no data available

114

For convenience in comparison the 1939-40 summary is included here:

Summary for 1939-40

In relation to the all-fraternity average:

1. 64 chapters were BELOW the all-fraternity average
- 41 chapters were ABOVE the all-fraternity average
- 8 chapters had no data available

113

In relation to the all-men average:

2. 51 chapters were BELOW the all-men average
- 43 chapters were ABOVE the all-men average
- 19 chapters had no data available

113

In Table VII are listed those chapters from whom your Scholarship Commissioner was not able to secure reports. The E.A.s of the chapters listed in this table should put forth every effort to have such scholastic information made available.

How Your Chapter Can Test Its Position

Whether we like it or not, we must for the indefinite future operate our chapters under war-time conditions. The strain of the emergency may be long and bitter. The distractions may be many. But failure in scholarship during the coming year will be just as damaging to the present and future of your chapter as it ever has been in normal peace time. In fact everything presently points to far greater damage arising from such failure.

Entirely new efforts must be made by every chapter member to help the first two classes of freshmen and sophomores to carry a far greater share of the scholarship load, since they are the ones upon whom the scholarship load is going to fall. This statement is not a subject for debate. It is already a foreseeable fact. Chapters must begin their counter-action at once and without half-measures.

Your chapter can test its current position (for the reportable portion of your academic year 1941-42, as compared to the extensive data in the foregoing report) without having to resort to complicated figures or formulae. Simply ask yourselves the following questions, and delegate some capable brother in the house to compile the correct answers for a later report at a full chapter meeting.

Use Simple Line Graphs to Make Your Progress Visual

Take a suggestion out of the foregoing Report of your Commissioner.

The Questions

1. What is the rank in scholarship for your chapter among the fraternities on your campus for the first semester? How many fraternities are there on your campus?
2. What is the grade (or grade-point) average for your chapter for the first semester of this scholastic year, including also the average for all fraternities, for non-fraternity men, and for all men?
3. What is the number of men, first by initiates, and second by pledges, who failed in one or more subjects during the first semester of this year? Explain in detail.
4. What is the exact total of flunks made by the chapter during the first semester?
5. How many pledges failed to make grades satisfactory for initiation?
6. How many initiates and pledges dropped out of school during the first semester on account of grades? Explain in detail.
7. What methods do you use—if any—in maintaining decent scholarship, the kind of scholarship that gives you influence with the college administration, the kind of scholarship that gives you leverage with parents in pledging their sons?
8. Do you have a graduate counselor or chapter tutor?
9. Do you maintain a supervised study table?
10. Do you have a locked, glass-enclosed bulletin board for the systematic posting of grades of all initiates and all pledges, so that the chapter may KNOW who is in the locomotive cab doing the pulling?

* N. D. A.—No Data Available.

Set up a simple line-graph showing the standing of ΣAE on your campus in relation to the all-men's average, the general fraternity average, and the non-fraternity average. The offices of the dean of men or the registrar on most campuses will be glad to assist in getting the necessary few figures. Post this graph along with your chapter grades inside a locked, glass-enclosed bulletin board. Your silent partner bulletin-board may prove to be worth its weight in gold during the tough and trying times ahead.

Let it be remembered that every chapter of every fraternity is permitted to exist on any given campus only by sufferance of the college or university itself. During the times ahead, as never before, every chapter must consciously aim to follow a balanced program of pledging in which adequate emphasis is placed upon decent academic work. Only through a conscientious chapter respect and esteem for decent scholarship can one of the central problems of the fraternity be solved.

Educational administrators have their eyes on every chapter of ΣAE in this country. The only complete defense for the fraternity system in the academic sphere, and the only justification for the continued existence of fraternities in general and ΣAE chapters in particular on our respective campuses, is the achieving of the kind of scholarship which merits the respect of college and university authorities.

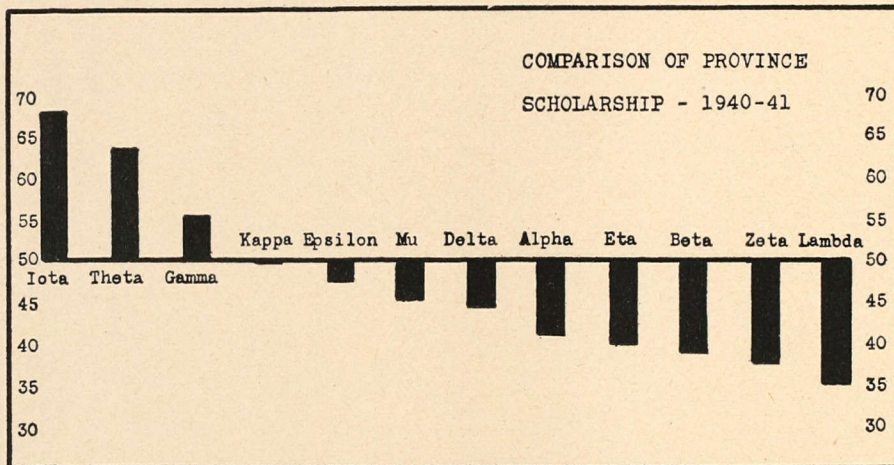

It is the belief of your Commissioner that ΣAE is ready, willing, and able to initiate this program.

SCHOLARSHIP AVERAGES FOR SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON 1931-32 -- 1940-41

BULLETIN

Editor's Note: As this issue of THE RECORD went to press, news came of the death of another member, a victim of World War II. In order that members may know of the latest reported victim, this information is inserted herewith.

WILLIAM J. PRICHARD
Mississippi Theta '39

■ 1st Lt. William J. Prichard, Miss. Θ '39, Army Air Corps, was killed in action in the Dutch East Indies, February 8, 1942. He entered the Air Corps in 1937, training at Randolph and Kelly fields. He attended Sunflower Junior College at Moorhead, Miss., and Mississippi State College, where he became a member of Mississippi Theta of ΣAE. His parents' home is in Inverness, Miss. Among his survivors are his wife and a son, William J., Jr., of Augusta, Ga., and a brother, Lt. Waldemar Landry Prichard, Miss. Θ '41, who is located at Fort Jackson, S.C. Before going into foreign service, the late Lieutenant Prichard was located at Felts Field, Park Water, Wash.

Joint Conference in N.Y.

■ For the first time in the history of the National Interfraternity Conference a joint session was held with the National Panhellenic Congress when fraternity leaders gathered at the Hotel Commodore in New York City, November 27-29, 1941. Sigma Alpha Epsilon was represented by Lauren Foreman, E.S.R.; Dr. John O. Moseley, Past E.S.A. and Director of Leadership Training; Charles F. Collins, Past E.S.A.; Dr. Fred H. Turner, E.S.D.A.; Floyd W. Smith, N.Y. P '09; Don M. Gable, Associate Editor of THE RECORD, and Jack K. Colbert, Traveling Secretary.

The main feature of the conference was the joint dinner on the 28th at which fifty-nine fraternities and twenty-one sororities were represented, a total of more than 2,000 persons. The Panhellenic Congress also shared in the College Fraternity Editors' Association dinner held at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel on November 29th.

The National Interfraternity Conference and the National Panhellenic Council carried on separate sessions which were largely concerned with the problems resulting from the defense emergency. National Defense was in evidence when the martial music of a drum and fife corps from Cornell University cadets marched into the banquet hall bearing the flags of the United States and Canada and those of the N.I.C. and the N.P.C. As colors were presented, Jean Dickinson, Metropolitan Opera star, sang "The Star Spangled Banner," and Bruce Boyce, concert artist, followed with the equally stirring "Canadian National Anthem." The Rev. Paul Hickok, national chaplain of ΑΤΩ, gave the invocation. Cornell University Instrumental Club and Glee Club provided music.

Lowell Thomas, ΚΞ, again proved that a news commentator can be an excellent toastmaster. Besides the speakers he introduced Wendell Willkie, ΒΘΙΙ, guest speaker at the 1940 dinner. Speakers included John G. Bowman, chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh; H. W. Prentis, Jr., ΣΑΕ, president of the Armstrong Cork Company; Lynn Stambaugh, national commander of the American Legion; Dr. Robert G. Sproul, president of the University of California. Judged the most outstanding in the country, the Interfraternity Council of Michigan State College became the first recipient of the National Interfraternity Conference Trophy.

Other ΣΑΕs at the dinner besides those mentioned above were Albert M. Austin, Past E.S.A.; Elmer B. Sanford, Mich. I-B '03, Secretary of the Board of Trustees; Charles Allen, Archon of Province Gamma; Robert M. Strozier, Ga. E '29; Harry Griswold, Ga. E '15; Rev. Elwyn H. Shear, N.Y. ΣΦ '11, New York Sigma-Phi Adviser and chapter representatives, John Loomis, N.D. A.; John Shepardson, Mass. K, and Howard Moffett, N.C. N. These men participated in the Undergraduate Council meetings at the Conference.

Progress toward the classification of Greek letter organizations and societies was indicated by Dr. Fred H. Turner, ΣΑΕ, dean of men at the University of Illinois. It is expected that some order will be brought out of the present chaos by a committee representing the various associations. Dr. Moseley gave a report on "Greek Week."

At the closing session of the session John M. MacGregor, ΑΤΩ, was elected chairman of the N.I.C., replacing L. G. Balfour, ΣΧ. The meeting of the College Fraternities Secretaries Association marked the tenth anniversary of that organization. Lauren Foreman, ΣΑΕ, spoke for fraternities.

That fraternities and sororities have many problems in common was again emphasized in the closing event of the three-day program, the annual dinner of the College Fraternity Editors Association in which the members of the Sorority Editors Conference participated. This event was held at the Waldorf Astoria on Saturday night. Various phases of magazine making were discussed by George L. Macy, director of the Limited Editions Club; Jessica Daves, managing editor of Vogue, and Otis L. Weise, ΔΧ, editor of McCall's. Mrs. James Young told of some of the experiences of her family in Japan when her husband, James Young, ΦΓΔ, while serving as chief of the International News Service in the Far East, was incarcerated in a Japanese prison. George Starr Lasher, ΘΧ, took over the duties of toastmaster, after Miss Helen C. Bowers, ΚΚΓ, and Leland F. Leland, ΤΚΕ, retiring presidents of the two associations, had introduced their members. He presented certificates of awards to the winners of the fraternity magazine competition. A silent tribute was paid to Oswald C. Hering, ΔΚΕ, whose death deprived the association of its president elected last year. Robert Pilgram, ΦΚΣ, was elected president of the association.

New TKE President

■ L. W. Tuesburg is now national president of TKE as a result of the resignation of Herbert H. Helble. Mr. Helble resigned as Grand Prytanis due to the press of other obligations. Mr. Tuesburg had been serving as Grand Epi Prytanis (national vice president).

Purdue Training School

■ Again Purdue University will sponsor a training school for house directors, house mothers and others in charge of student living groups, June 15 to July 10, 1942. The purpose of the summer session is to improve the competency of persons responsible for the student life and house management in student living groups. This will be the fourth meeting to be sponsored by Purdue with a large staff and special lectures. Pamphlets concerning the school have been sent to all house mothers of ΣΑΕ. Others wishing information may write directly to Dr. Dorothy Stratton, dean of women, or Mrs. Lena McDougale, ΚΚΓ house mother at Purdue, referred to as the "house mother of house mothers."

Settlement School Issue

■ The December, 1941, issue of The Arrow of Pi Beta Phi was dedicated to the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tenn., to bring Pi Beta Phi everywhere a new realization of the work that is being done at Gatlinburg, especially from the point of view of human interest, a new estimate of the measure of good that has come to the Gatlinburg community and the surrounding mountain region through the work of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. A series of photographs were very cleverly worked through the December issue, beginning with "with a heritage of pioneer Grandmothers . . . and Grandfathers . . . have come these children, . . . this boy . . . this girl . . . to be educated by Pi Beta Phi . . . in old skills, . . . in the three R's, . . . in ways of health, . . . and in ways of beauty, . . . that they may make their contribution to a growing, changing community life."

Good Fellow Drive

■ Sigma Alpha Epsilon was among fifteen fraternities to participate in the Good Fellow Christmas Drive sponsored in Chicago, Ill., December, 1941. Five hundred alumni of fraternities held a luncheon on the 22nd, the proceeds going to the purchase of Good Fellow Christmas baskets. The affair was held at the Grand ballroom of the La Salle Hotel. Edward A. Twerdahl, Jr., ΦΚΨ, served as chairman. Headquarters for the fraternity Good Fellows were at the Interfraternity club at the La Salle. Harry A. Ackerburg, Ill. Ψ-Ω '14, past president of the Chicago Alumni Association of ΣΑΕ and president of the Interfraternity club, served as chairman of the contributions committee. Baskets were given to families with four or five children. For years the Good Fellow Christmas Basket movement was sponsored by the Chicago Alumni Association of Phi Kappa Psi. This year other fraternities joined in the benefit.

The Fraternity's Gridiron Stars

By Harry Ackerburg

Harry A. Ackerburg, III, $\Psi\text{-}\Omega$ '14, President of the Interfraternity Club of Chicago, Who Conducts Sigma Alpha Epsilon's All-America Football Poll Each Year.

THE 1941 football season was unusually kind to Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and ΣAE has good reason to be proud of the exceptional quality of its gridiron celebrities.

From the 1940 ΣAE All-America Football Team, guard Ben Sohn of Southern California, center Paul Hiemenz of Northwestern and half-back Herman Rohrig of Nebraska were elected to the Chicago Tribune All-Stars, meeting the Chicago Bears last August. "Amby" Schindler of the 1939 All-America was called back to Soldier Field to receive a handsome trophy in recognition of having been elected the most valuable player on the 1940 Tribune All-Star squad.

In professional football circles, Johnny Drake, the former Purdue star, continued as the most consistent ball carrier in the pro circuit. George McAfee, formerly of Duke and currently identified with the champion Chicago Bears, was loudly acclaimed the outstanding broken field running sensation of recent years.

Graf Gets Tribune Trophy

▪ The Chicago Tribune's 1941 most valuable football trophy went to Jack Graf, Ohio Θ '42, fullback on the Buckeye team at Ohio State University. The presentation was made between halves of the basketball game between Ohio State and Indiana University, February 2. The selection of the time of presentation was most appropriate as Graf is captain of the basketball team. Wilfrid Smith of The Tribune sport staff presented the trophy. Athletic Director L. W. St. John commented on Graf's winning the award: "I don't know of a more deserving boy for such an honor. He's a hard worker, a clean player and a hard fighter. You'll go a long way to find another like him." Football Coach Paul Brown said: "I wish I had a couple more like him for next year's team."

In selecting the 1941 ΣAE All-America Football Teams, the same procedure was followed as for the three preceding years. Candidates for All-America honors were limited to members of the senior class. ΣAEs from all over the country were urged to submit their favorite elevens. The final selections were, for the greater part, based on this consensus.

Beginning with the ends, Pete Hershberger of Ohio State and Harrison Rue of Vanderbilt proved to be popular choices, closely pressed by Eustace Conway of Mississippi State.

The Southeastern Conference furnished a splendid pair of tackles in Don Edmiston of Tennessee and Thomas E. Greene of Georgia. Three other powerful tackles challenged their positions in the persons of Don Walton of Vanderbilt, Frank Karas of Michigan State and Harley McCollum of Tulane.

The guard posts are admirably filled by men who were captains of their respective teams. Raymond Segale of Oregon and Eugene White of Indiana were awarded these positions. William Burt of Georgia challenged their right. Center Peter Mandich of Tulane, another team captain, proved to be the most popular line choice.

Next under consideration comes the backfield, and what a backfield! In the post-season East-West game, alternating at left half with Northwestern's much publicized Bill deCorrevont, was a young gentleman from the University of Virginia, Captain William Dudley. Rated number one on practically everybody's All-America Teams, Bill Dudley made Mr. deCorrevont look bad by comparison. Famed as one of the greatest college passers in the country, Dudley was equally effective on defense, in his uncanny ability to sense and intercept passes. His total of 134 points scored during the regular fall season stands as a national college record for 1941. Of the 200 college seniors drafted by the National Football professional league, Bill Dudley was the number one choice.

Elected the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten, Jack Graf of Ohio State holds undisputed possession of the fullback berth. Coming from an athletic ΣAE family, he made an enviable record, despite the handicap of injuries. Ohio State, a team contending for national honors, suffered its one defeat of the season at the hands of Northwestern. Had injuries not forced Graf to remain on the sidelines during the entire game, it might have been a different story.

To Coach Wallace Wade is credited the statement that James Thompson Prothro, Jr., is one of the greatest blocking backs and quarterbacks ever to come out of Duke. Coming from an authority like Wade, and considering that Duke went through its regular season undefeated, what more need be said to justify Prothro's right to the quarterback spot?

Unfortunately for Mickey Anderson, he had to play his final year on a team that did not measure up to usual Trojan standards. However, anyone who witnessed his sparkling field generalship and all-around playing ability could not very well deny Mickey a place in the line-up.

This, then, is our All-America Team—but, first let us consider an alternating backfield. There's quarterback Vike Francis of Nebraska who played well on the western half ΣAE Fullbacks Meet: Left to Right, Jack Graf of Ohio Theta at Ohio State University, and Pat Harder of Wisconsin Alpha at the University of Wisconsin. of the East-West contest. He is a brother of the famous Sam. Halfback Sonny Bruce of Mississippi State would team up beautifully with halfback Tommy Harrison of Florida. Quarterback Eugene Davis, captain of a mighty Pennsylvania aggregation, could easily be shifted to the fullback assignment to complete this excellent alternating backfield.

Naming a minor eleven, consisting of representatives from the smaller schools, was admittedly a much more difficult task, the balloting being considerably lighter than was the case in major selections. Center Jean Mason of undefeated James Millikin University might well dispute Captain Earl Wert's position, and Bill Faison of Davidson might easily have been awarded one of the tackle posts. However, the lineups will have to stand as presented, in accord with the findings of the consensus poll.

We doubt if any fraternity can present a more imposing array of football talent. ΣAE is indeed proud of its gridiron celebrities!

Beta-Upsilon Celebration

Massachusetts Beta-Upsilon at Boston University will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary in April and in anticipation of this event is drawing up plans with the assistance of the Boston Alumni Association and the officers of Province Alpha. The chapter was founded in 1892. As the mother chapter it has observed the development of the Province until today there are eleven chapters in Province Alpha, made up of Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Ohio Mu Wins

Ohio Mu at Denison University has two new plaques adorning the chapter house as a result of winning volleyball and speedball contests on the campus. On the volleyball court the chapter team swept through all opposition without registering a loss. The closest game was with Kappa Sig. The team overcame a 6-1 lead in the final game, piling up a 16-5 advantage.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

DOWN CHAPTER WAY

Vote to Buy Bonds

Arkansas Alpha-Upsilon at the University of Arkansas is buying Defense Bonds to start a house building fund. At a meeting in January the chapter passed a motion that each member be assessed enough for the Eminent Treasurer to purchase one $25.00 Defense Bond each month, to be applied on the building fund. The chapter is in need of a new house and struck upon this idea of starting a reserve fund. This method of saving money and helping the U.S. at the same time could well be used by other chapters of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Ark. Alpha-Upsilon Scores

For the second consecutive year the touch football championship at the University of Arkansas has been won by Arkansas Alpha-Upsilon. The ΣAEs edged out their traditional rivals, the Kappa Sigs, and last year's runners-up, 6-0 to retain the championship title. Outstanding plays by Hannan and Loflin brought them selection for the All-Star team. Townsend and Glenn were placed on the second team.

Va. Kappa Rents New Home

Virginia Kappa at the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Va., has rented a home. Having striven for a new home for several years, the chapter is proud of its beautiful site on the Jamestown Road. The new property includes an acre and one half of land which is covered by six huge oak trees and picturesque landscaping. The house is Georgian-Modern in architecture.

March, 1942

Louisiana House Dedicated

■ Louisiana Epsilon's new home on the campus of Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, La., was appropriately dedicated at a dinner, the first meal served in the house, on Sunday, December 14, 1941.

Paul D. Borron, La. E '29, acted as toastmaster and the dedicatory address was delivered by Judge Alfred K. Nippert, Past E.S.A., who assisted generously in the financing of the new house and has been keenly interested in the project.

In an interesting ceremony, the keys to the house were passed by Elmore Morgan, La. E '26, the architect, to W. Preston Barnes, La. E '12, president of the Louisiana Epsilon Home Corporation, and thence to Julius Hydrick, Eminent Archon of the chapter.

Following his address, Judge Nippert exercised his peculiar talent for raising funds by promising to match all donations made for furnishings by alumni dollar-for-dollar. He secured $1,500 in cash and pledges, thereby assuring the chapter $3,000 for this purpose. Roy L. Heidelberg, Miss. Γ '05, manager of a string of hotels, whose catering department had served the excellent dinner, electrified the assemblage with the announcement that he would accept no remuneration for the dinner or the service of entertainers he had provided.

Among alumni from outside Louisiana present were Judge Nippert, Lauren Foreman, E.S.R., and J. Lewell Lafferty, Past Archon of Province Theta.

Maine Faculty Banquet

■ Carrying on a custom inaugurated seventeen years ago, Maine Alpha entertained nearly 100 members of the University of Maine faculty at a venison dinner at its house on the evening of December 3, 1941. This affair has become an outstanding event to which faculty members look forward with keen anticipation on the Maine campus and is recommended to other Chapters Collegiate as an excellent plan for establishing cordial relations between their student members and the members of their respective faculties. Among the guests were President Arthur A. Hauck of the University and Lauren Foreman, E.S.R., whose visit to Maine Alpha was arranged to coincide with this interesting affair.

Utah House Remodeled

By Stan Andersen
Utah Upsilon '43

■ Guarantee that Utah Upsilon at Utah State College will remain intact through the war period has been made by means of a sound financial policy and a timely swing to campus prestige and prominence. With American colleges facing lean years of enrollment as they enter their first wartime terms since 1918, Utah State Agricultural College, where ΣAE was established in 1939, likewise looks towards depletion of regular academic rolls as its young men answer their country's call to arms. Utah Upsilon already has made numerous contributions to the defense effort.

Relative security of the chapter as it prepares to traverse the war years is signaled by its recently renovated house, designed after modern American architecture. The project was carried out with sound financial concern for the future, in its immediate as well as long-term aspect. Completed before the start of the 1941-42 academic year, the "new" chapter house has been a distinct boost to the Utah chapter.

As a result of the project a spacious living room is provided. Standing on the polished oak floor of the living room, members may appreciate an excellent view of part of picturesque Cache Valley through a wide south window. The dining hall, off the living room, is connected by French doors.

On the second floor a library study and two dormer rooms were added to the house, amplifying facilities greatly. The entire interior of the house was redecorated. Furnishings for the new parts were purchased by means of a special assessment whereby each member of last year pledged $20.00. The ΣAE Wives and Mothers Club donated attractive end tables and reading lamps in the living room and made draperies for the windows. Fireplace equipment was given by Albert J. Scoth, Ore. A '18, chapter supervisor.

25 Years at Nevada

By Leo J. Puccinelli
Nev. Alpha '43

■ March 9, 1942, finds Nevada Alpha at the University of Nevada celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary. When ΣAE came into existence at Nevada, it found only one other national fraternity. From that time on, both the school and the fraternities grew at a fast pace and ΣAE has consistently been one of the leaders.

The early history of Nevada Alpha, 1917 was not an easy one. Shortly after the installation of the chapter by Billy Levere, World War I broke out and true to ΣAE tradition, Nevada Alpha joined the armed forces almost to a man. There came a time when the chapter had but one pledge on the campus, and meetings had to be held in the office of Prof. Frederick L. Bixby, Nev. A '18. The Fraternity worked to preserve what it had and to build toward a brighter future. One Nevada Alpha man was initiated in France during the war.

The coming of World War II finds Nevada Alpha well on its way to joining the armed forces. At least thirty alumni can be counted on the rolls of service (see Military Alumni News) and a few active men have enlisted. One of the first reported victims of World War II was Joe F. McDonald, '41 (article in Chapter Eternal department of this issue).

At the present the chapter is very active on the campus. Leaders include the president of the student body, student senate president, seven men in Scabbard and Blade and good representation in football, basketball, track and honorary organizations. For the fourth consecutive year the chapter has been interfraternity basketball champion and has won the trophy for the fifth time in six years. The chapter at its silver anniversary, as at its beginning, is facing hardships of war. It can truly be called the Battle Born Chapter in the Battle Born State.

Governor Entertains

■ Keen Johnson, Ky. E '21, governor of Kentucky, entertained the active members, pledges and rushees of his chapter, Kentucky Epsilon at the University of Kentucky, with a dinner party at the Executive Mansion in Frankfort, Ky., last fall. More than 100 members of the fraternity attended the affair. Governor Johnson is very devoted to his chapter and the National Fraternity. He is Honorary Archon of Province Iota, including chapters in Kentucky and Tennessee. The chapter has made strides lately. Its top rank in scholarship is featured in another article in this issue. The chapter has led in scholarship on the Kentucky campus for two semesters. The chapter is optimistic about its future scholastic record in view of the fine averages made by the pledges. The chapter also leads in athletics, standing at the top on the campus in intramurals, with touch football, volleyball, free throw and tennis championships to the chapter's credit. In thirteen years the chapter has won the all-campus championship seven times and has been runner-up five times. The very active Minerva club recently gave the chapter another valuable gift, a silk American flag and standard.

"An Active Active"

By Bill Klein
Wash. Beta '44

Stan Doepke of Washington Beta at Washington State College truly deserves the title of "An Active Active." In addition to playing a prominent part in Washington Beta, he has been flight instructor at the Pullman-Moscow airport for more than a year. He also has played varsity guard on Babe Hollingberry's giant-killing Cougar grid squad. He completed his senior varsity football service in a blaze of glory on the Cougar team which knocked off Stanford, Oregon State, California, Oregon and Idaho. At present he plans to enter airline service when graduated from Washington State. He has more than 1,000 hours in the air and holds an instrument rating. He is now teaching the advanced C.P.T. course. Other Washington Beta men in the limelight are Joe Jaeger and Jim Simonton who were recently initiated into Sigma Delta Chi. George Dullanty, Bill Taylor and John Barrett are pledged to Alpha Kappa Psi. Myron Calkins recently was initiated into Tau Beta Pi. The chapter plans a joint initiation with Idaho Alpha in celebration of Founders Day, March 8. Emmett B. Moore, E.S. Ch., and chapter adviser, will conduct the initiation.

Busy at Indiana

Serving as president of several organizations is just part of the activity of Robert Gates of Indiana Gamma at Indiana University. He has been Eminent Archon of the chapter as well as serving as president of the Indiana Student Union Board and president of Dragon's Head, senior honorary society. He also has been senior swimming manager, business manager of the University Theatre, member of the Sphinx Club, Blue Key, ΦHΣ, Skull and Crescent, TKA and ΔΣΠ, and chairman of the Junior Prom and the Student Refugee Committee. He also has been a member of ΠΣΑ, Dolphin club, "I" Men's club, and the Student Government committee.

Spelling Bee Chairman

Ace Griffiths of Idaho Alpha at the University of Idaho recently served as chairman of a spelling bee, proceeds from which were given to the Red Cross. Griffiths is president of Kappa Delta Pi, national education honorary society. The chapter recently sponsored its annual Bowery dance. The Idaho Alpha German band consisting of Robert Stevens, Fred Siegfriedt, Carl Minden, Ed Keller and George Jefferson, entertained. Martin Fry, who is majoring in horticulture, recently received the position of assistant in the university greenhouse.

Two of Franklin College's Most Dependable Basketball Veterans Are Members of Indiana Alpha: Left, Earl Wert, Guard, of Marion, Ind.; Right, Don McClain, Center, of Kirklint, Ind. Both Are Also Football Stars. McClain Served As First String Center and Wert Played at a Guard Position as Well as Captaining the Grizzly Eleven during the Last Season.

R.I. Alpha Receives Cup

For the second consecutive year Rhode Island Alpha at Rhode Island State College has won the interfraternity singing contest. For winning this year the chapter was presented with a gold trophy.

Ala. Iota Mothers Active

The Mothers Club of Alabama Iota at Birmingham-Southern College has a membership of thirty-three with about eighteen attending regular meetings. During the past two years the club has redecorated the lower floor of the chapter house; purchased silver and new furniture for the music room, and has made substantial improvements on the second floor of the house. The two presidents responsible for these activities are Mrs. M. S. Lively and Mrs. W. G. Hudson. Mrs. E. M. Morton has been elected to serve for 1942-43.
