Student-Governor Accepts 20-Year-Old Bid

7 HE nation's youngest governor at the time he was elected and a leading authority on ordnance production were honored at Minnesota Apha's Founders Day banquet Saturday, March 7, at the St. Paul Hotel, St. Paul, Minn.

Other honored guests at the affair, marking the fortieth anniversary of the chapter at the University of Minnesota, and the eighty-sixth birthday of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, were Charter Members Col. A. C. Whitney, Frank Nutter, and Charles Hensel, all initiated in 1902.

Newest SAE at Minnesota is Harold E. Stassen, Governor of Minnesota, who was initiated at a ceremony conducted by the active chapter the Wednesday preceding Founders Day. Brother Stassen, who was graduated from the University law school in 1929, recently re-enrolled at the University for graduate classes and was pledged as a student by the active chapter. In his earlier student days he had been rushed by Minnesota Alpha but, due to the fact that he was working his way through school and was employed for long hours on various jobs, he felt that he could not afford fraternity membership at that time. The badge was pinned on the Governor by Dr. Walter C. Coffey, Ind. A '01, president of the University of Minnesota.

The year's most outstanding brother, receiving the Alumni Association's award for the greatest achievement of the year, was Charles L. Horn, Minn. A '12, Founder of the National Endowment Fund, president of the Federal Cartridge Corp., and the head of the Twin Cities Ordnance plant, second largest plant of its kind in the country. Mr. Horn turned the first spadeful of dirt for the new war project less than a year By Lowell Jones Minn. Alpha '42 ago; shells already are being produced.

L. G. "Dode" Wynn, Wis. A '15, was master of ceremonies for the program that followed numerous alumni get-togethers throughout the afternoon and the dinner that evening. More than 150 Twin City and Northwest alumni and actives attended the annual affair.

The Rev. Forrest L. Richeson, Iowa Δ '30, opened the program with a short invocation. George Rich, Eminent Archon of Minnesota Alpha, told of the sound financial and numerical condition of the chapter and introduced pledges and actives prominent in campus and scholastic affairs.

Lew P. Reeve, Iowa Γ '15, executive of an Austin, Minn., meat packing plant, told of changes in the wartime meat packing industry. Ralph "Shorty" Sherman, Minn. A '15, awarded the Minnesota Alpha cup to Bud Little, past E.A., as the senior who has done the most for the chapter. The Robert Streater award was presented to Harold "Mac" Cragg, most promising second year man. Charter Members Whitney and Hensel were introduced. D. C. "Clint" Edwards, Minn A '13,

D. C. "Clint" Edwards, Minn A '13, presented the achievement award to Mr. Horn. The award was given last year to Max Conrad, Minn. A '26, Winona, Minn., aviator credited with saving the lives of twelve duck hunters during the November 12 blizzard last year.

Charter Member Frank Nutter presented a jeweled pin to Governor Stassen and Herbert J. Miller, Minn. A '18, executive secretary of the Minnesota Resources Commission, gave the address of the evening. Everett B. Haedecke, Minn. A '30, was general chairman for the affair, assisted by Dick Johnson, Minn. A '40, and Jack Kuehn, Minn. A '37. Bill Braasch of the Chapter led singing of "Violets" and "Friends."

Governor Harold Stassen was born on a Dakota county farm six miles from the Twin Cities in 1907. He attended a little red schoolhouse two miles from his home, later going to St. Paul Humboldt high school, finishing the six grades in four years. He got a newspaper route to earn money and tripled it in two months. When he was fifteen his father fell ill, so Harold took over planting, harvesting and selling the crops for a year, entering the University of Minnesota the following year, 1922. To put himself through the University he worked as a grocery clerk, grease boy in a bakery between semesters and was a Pullman car conductor for three years, leaving with the train every afternoon after his law classes and returning that night. His political career began on the campus, where he was an intercollegiate debater, champion orator, captain of a national championship rifle team, alluniversity class president and an honor student.

After graduation he and Elmer J. Ryan, now in Democratic politics, opened a law office in South St. Paul, a stockyard community of 10,000, and in a few years were employing four other lawyers. Governor Stassen was admitted to the state bar in 1929, ran for the Dakota county attorney's post in 1930, Ryan doing most of his campaigning as Stassen was ill for some time prior to elections. He won the election, was later re-elected and in 1938 was elected governor of Min-

Minnesota Alpha Founders Day Celebration Marked by Presence of Minnesota Governor: Left to Right, at Speakers Table at Banquet, St. Paul Hotel, St. Paul, Minn., March 7, 1942, Hon. Harold E. Stassen, Governor of Minnesota and New Initiate of Minnesota Alpha at the University of Minnesota; L. G. Wynn, Wis. A '15; George Rich, E.A. of Minnesota Alpha; Herb J. Miller, Minn. A '18; Lew Reeve, Jowa 1' '15. Center, Left to Right, Karry Hall; Ed Landes, Minn. A '41; Ed Shaw, Minn. A '41 (Standing), Bert Lund, Minn. A '42, and Karl Neumeier, Minn. A '44. Right, Col. Alfred C. Whitney, Minn. A '03, Charter Member; Charles Horn, Minn. A '12; DeWitt Edwards, Minn. A '13, and Governor Stassen. nesota at thirty-one, youngest governor in the history of the state and at that time the youngest in the country. In campaigning he toured the state, giving speeches and making it a policy never to talk more than twenty minutes. In winning that election he defeated incumbent Governor Elmer A. Benson's Farmer Labor Machine that had controlled state politics for eight years. Once in office, he proceeded to cut government expenses $5,000,000 without reducing relief budgets. He's big—six feet, three inches—married in 1929 and has a son and a daughter. Some folks call him the "wonder boy of Minnesota."

Governor Stassen was president of the Minnesota County Attorneys' association in 1935-6; president of the Minnesota Young Republican league, 1936-7; and is a member of $\Delta \Sigma P$, $\Gamma H \Gamma$, Grey Friars, Scabbard and Blade, and is a Republican and a Mason.

Governor Stassen entered active duty as a lieutenant commander at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., April 6. He was sworn in the Naval Reserve in March. After a thirty-day training period, he returned to civilian life to await call again to active duty.

Charles L. Horn, Minn. A '12, came to the University "a green country kid," he says. He was pledged to ΣAE and gives the Fraternity credit for, as he says, pledging men for "something inside of them rather than for what they looked like, because I didn't look very good." He was graduated in law, taking an active part in chapter administration while at the University and being instrumental in seeing that the Fraternity got its first new home.

After practicing law in North Dakota for several years Mr. Horn found that he "was no lawyer," so he came back to Minneapolis and went to work with Col. A. C. Whitney, Minn. A '03, in the wagon and auto body business. Mr. Horn might be called a "reviver of dying busi-nesses," because before very long he had bought a nearly defunct piston ring business, put it on its feet and sold it. Not long after, he purchased the Federal Cartridge Corp., then on its last legs, and built it into a profitable enterprise. Last year he won a contract from the government for construction of the new Twin Cities Ordnance plant at New Brighton, Minn., and started producing vital ammunition at that plant several months ahead of original schedule.

Mr. Horn's wife died several years ago, leaving him with two sons whom he is rearing to be ΣAEs . For years he walked four miles to work every morning during all kinds of weather. He is a frequent anonymous contributor to many charities and worthwhile institutions and has sent many underprivileged boys to summer camps.

Dr. Hand Portrait Unveiled By George Ratliff

Miss. Jheta '42

ISSISSIPPI THETA at Mississippi State College at last has achieved a goal toward which it has been striving for a long time in the obtaining of a portrait of Dr. William Flowers Hand, Miss. Θ '93. This almost life-size portrait which adorns the chapter house walls was unveiled at the alumni-initiation banquet on March 13th.

Portrait of Dr. William Flowers Hand, Miss. O '93, Unveiled at Mississippi Theta at Mississippi State College, March 13, 1942.

The portrait of Dr. Hand was painted by Mrs. V. N. Vaughn of Richmond, Va., and it was paid for mostly by contributions of the members at their weekly meetings during the past four months. Mississippi Theta feels that it is and will be much better by having the portrait of its favorite member in its eyes as he is in the hearts of all.

Dr. Hand is state chemist, professor of chemistry, director of the budget, dean of the School of Science, vice-president of the college, and winner of the Herty award for outstanding work in analytical chemistry in 1941.

Some might think of Dr. Hand as a great man because he is counsellor of students in his capacity as dean of the Science School or because he is vice-president of Mississippi State. No doubt these things make for greatness and we would never minimize their importance. However, we think Dr. Hand great for far more reasons than these.

It is claimed that the real gentleman will not make a poor man conscious of his poverty, an ignorant man conscious of his ignorance, the unimportant man conscious of his inconsequence. Whether it be true that a man's very greatness is responsible for his gentlemanly traits, we will never know. But we feel that it is far more likely that his gentlemanly traits will make him. Therefore, we believe Dr. Hand great because first of all he is a gentleman, and secondly, we think of Dr. Hand as great because he is truly a great ΣAE .

For these reasons Dr. Hand's portrait, because of his outstanding record, is truly an inspiration to all of Mississippi Theta's members now and will continue to be so in all the years to come.

Lewie V. Gilpin, Minn. A '35, William J. Maddox, W.C. P '11, and Mr. Stell. O. K. Quivey, Ind. B '12, Past E.S.A., was also present.

WISCONSIN

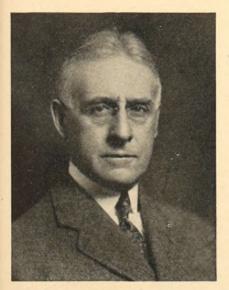

The Milwaukee Alumni Association held a banquet at the Milwaukee Athletic Club in Milwaukee, Wis., March 6. Special attention was called to the members from Wisconsin who are in service for the United States.

Heads Federal Reserve Bank

M ORE responsibility and greater honor came to a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon when William W. Paddock, W.C. P '06, Archon of Province Alpha, was appointed president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, Mass., February 27, 1942.

In December, 1941, Mr. Paddock stepped into the Fraternity limelight when he was elected Archon of Province Alpha at the Province's convention in Burlington, Vt. He has long been active in fraternity work.

Mr. Paddock was serving as first vice president of the Federal Reserve Bank when named to the head of the institution and the appointment was approved by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. He assumed his new duties April 1. He has been connected with the Federal Reserve System since 1918 and previous to that had been a national bank examiner for three years. His first position in the Reserve was also as bank examiner. After two years of these duties he became deputy governor of the Boston Reserve Bank in 1920. He became first vice president in 1936. Prior to becoming a national bank examiner he was in commercial banking in Clinton, Iowa, his birthplace. Mr. Paddock is a veteran of the Spanish-American war and later served in the Philippines, 1900-02.

Province Conventions

DELTA

By Ralph R. Bozell Ind. Beta '15

7 HE twenty-fifth biennial convention of Province Delta was held at Bloomington, Ind., March 6-7, 1942, with headquarters at the Student Union Building of Indiana University, home of Indiana Gamma of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Indiana Gamma was a gracious and generous host and had made every provision for the work of the convention and for the comfort and entertainment of the delegates.

The convention opened with a luncheon in one of the private dining rooms of the Union Building, the guest of honor being Dr. Herman Wells, Indiana president. Richard Habbe, Province Archon, introduced Dr. Wells and he responded with a warm welcome to the visitors and clearly outlined the problems that must be met by fraternities during the present war emergency. He projected the idea that fraternities should now begin to think in international terms to prepare for the era that lies ahead.

The first business session got under way in Town Hall, Union Building, Friday, March 6. Names of members who had joined the Chapter Eternal since the last convention were read and a responsive service for them was lead by Don Smalley. Patches of mourning crepe were worn under the badges of all the members present. A discussion on scholarship was led by Ohio Delta and Ohio Rho delegates.

That evening a buffet supper was held at the chapter house. On Saturday morning Dean Bates of the University addressed the delegates with reference to the problems confronting fraternities due to changes being put into effect by the University to accommodate a twelve-month school year. Committee reports were given and general discussions on pertinent problems of chapter conduct followed. Neal Gilliatt lead the delegates in a discussion of chapter finances and then outlined a practical procedure in economy in house operation and bill collection.

Officers elected were: Captain Louis Nippert, Ohio E '28, Province Archon; Ralph R. Bozell, Ind. B '15, Deputy Archon; Eth B. Baugh, Ind. B '23, Recorder-Treasurer; Campbell J. Graf, Ohio Θ '16, Alumni Secretary. Richard Habbe, retiring Archon, was named Province Honorary Archon. Correspondence concerning the Province should be directed to Mr. Bozell as Captain Nippert is in military service.

At noon more than eighty members gathered in Alumni Hall, Union Building, for a luncheon. In the afternoon in the Bryan Room, Union Building, Indiana Gamma members presented the playlet, "The Founding of ΣAE ." The alumni faculty members assisted the active men to exemplify the ritual in the initiation of two pledges. A tour through the new music hall was made by most of the visitors.

That evening the Founders Day banquet was held in the Alumni Hall. Archon Habbe introduced Mickey McCarty, Ind. Γ '15, as toastmaster. Telegrams from Past E.S.A.s O. K. Quivey and John O. Moseley and Warren M. Turner, Auditor of Chapter Accounts, were read. G. A. Ginter, E.S.H., responded with a most enlightening talk on the Levere Memorial Temple and Foundation, Logan of Indiana Gamma presented a watch charm badge to Jack Graf of Ohio Theta, a gift from Province Delta in recognition of Graf's outstanding record in athletics. Archon Habbe stressed the need for improved scholarship and paid tribute to the efforts being made in the Province chapters. He presented the scholarship trophies to Ohio Delta and Michigan Iota-Beta for highest scholarship standing and the best scholastic improvement for 1940-41.

Mr. McCarty brought the evening's generous and enjoyable program to a pleasant and sober conclusion with these original words:

Birthday Message

It's our fraternity's birthday today, It's time to be mirthful and gay;

It's time to spread joy among each college boy

And teach him the true Sig Alph way.

It's our fraternity's birthday, my friend

- It's today that actives and alumni unbend;
- So as we gather down here, with a drink and a cheer,
- Our greetings to the Founders we send.

It's our fraternity's birthday you see So let's lift our glasses in glee;

And let's drink with a zest, to the world's very best

Yes, the best in the world, ΣAE .

ETA

P ROVINCE Eta's convention was held at the home of Colorado Delta, Colorado State College, Fort Collins, Colo., Saturday, March 14, 1942. Delegates were present from all chapters except Colorado Zeta and New Mexico Phi. The Denver Alumni Association was also represented. Province officers present were: Archon Charles F. Brannan, Recorder John M. Coke, and Treasurer R. Rodney Hughes. Deputy Archon Gerald J. Henaghan was unable to attend, as he is now living in Chicago. Lauren Foreman, E.S.R., represented the National Office.

The business session of the convention was held Saturday afternoon. Reports made by the officers and the chapter delegates indicated favorable conditions throughout the Province. Colorado Lambda at the Colorado School of Mines reported that it expects to complete payment of the mortgage on its house during the current college year.

Officers were elected as follows: Archon, John M. Coke, Colo. A '28, Golden, Colo.; Deputy Archon, Clair H. Blanchard, Wyo. A '25, Laramie, Wyo.; Recorder, Fred N. Holland, Idaho A '22, Denver, Colo.; Recorder, Gurnett Steinhauer, Colo. Z '31, Golden, Colo.

The next convention is to be held with Colorado Chi at the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colo., on the last week-end of February, 1944.

Social affairs consisted of a lunch and dinner at the Colorado Delta house. Both were well served and greatly enjoyed by all present.

THETA

By A. C. Askew, Jr. Okla. Mu '44

DELEGATES and members from chapters in Province Theta met with Oklahoma Mu at Oklahoma A. and M. College on the weekend of March 6-7-8 to celebrate its biennial convention. All chapters were represented and eighteen members from Mississippi Gamma and Theta chartered a bus to Stillwater.

Province and National Officers in attendance included Cobb C. Torrance, E.S.W.; Albert J. Schoth, chapter supervisor; J. Lewell Lafferty, Honorary Province Archon; Grover D. Strother, Archon; Norman McCorkle, Deputy Archon, and Ira W. Davis, Treasurer.

The convention officially opened Friday morning, March 6, with Province Archon Strother in charge. Registration and a smoker were held the night before, followed by "bull sessions." At the opening session chapter reports were given. A good share of each report was taken up with the war and the problems it presents.

On Friday noon a memorial luncheon was held at the Grand Hotel. The names of members who joined the Chapter Eternal since the last convention were read and Max Mitchell, Okla. M '36, gave a prayer. Remaining chapter reports were given Friday afternoon and the report of the Province Archon was made. Dinner was served buffet style Friday night and the delegation witnessed the Oklahoma A. and M. basketball team defeat Oklahoma University.

Business sessions were resumed Saturday morning and a general talk was given by Chapter Supervisor Schoth. Saturday afternoon E.S.W. Torrance led an informal discussion. Finances, rushing, scholarship, initiation procedure, pledge training and other subjects were discussed.

The annual Founders Day banquet was held Saturday night in the dining room of the women's dormitory on the campus. Both Oklahoma chapters attended in a body. Judge Earl Foster, Okla. K '12, talked on " ΣAE Defends Democracy." Alumni at the banquet included several faculty members: Ed Stapley, Okla. M '31; Robert Stratton, Ohio T '15; James H. Zant, Texas Δ '20; W. W. Ray,

One of the highlights of the banquet was a skit produced by Ira W. Davis. It was impromptu and a surprise to everybody, including the toastmaster, Jack Smith of Oklahoma Mu. Following the banquet an informal convention ball was held.

Officers elected were: J. Lewell Lafferty, Honorary Archon; Grover D. Strother, Archon; Norman McCorkle, Deputy Archon; John Baugh, Treasurer; Ira W. Davis, Recorder, and Dr. Felix Welch, Alumni Secretary. Awards were presented at the banquet by Mr. McCorkle. The scholarship award went to Oklahoma Kappa, and Edley Jones award was given to Louisiana Epsilon.

IOTA By R. H. Horsley Jenn. Nu '32

WITH addresses by Dr. Fred H. Turner, E.S.D.A., Dr. John O. Moseley, Past E.S.A. and Director of the Leadership Training School, and Gen. J. Washington Moore, Past E.S.A., as features, Province Iota's biennial convention was held, February 26-27-28, at the Hotel Hermitage in Nashville, Tenn.

Serious new fraternity problems brought about by the war figured in all addresses and discussions before the convention. Social affairs were held to a minimum and all business sessions were enthusiastically attended by a full representation of the eight chapters in Province Iota.

The convention delegates were entertained at the home of L. Buchanan Loser, Ga. Ψ '29, president of the Nashville Alumni Association, on Thursday evening, February 26th, and the first business session was held Friday morning with Province Archon Albert W. Hutchison, Jr., Tenn. N '30, presiding.

Dean Turner and Dr. Moseley and other guests were presented, and after the announcement of committees, reports of officers and other opening business, Dr. Moseley spoke on the fundamentals of the Fraternity. Later in the first session he gave a most informative talk on the ΣAE ritual.

At noon Friday the convention honored the "War Horse" of ΣAE , Gen. J. Washington Moore. Nashville Alumni and members of Tennessee Nu at Vanderbilt joined in honoring General Moore for his many years of devoted service to ΣAE . Dean Turner brought greetings from the Supreme Council and Dr. Moseley delivered the principal tribute of the meeting in which he praised General Moore for his pioneer leadership and continued interest in all affairs of ΣAE .

Committees organized and held sessions after the luncheon and the convention reconvened for the afternoon session with Dr. Turner delivering an address on general fraternity problems. He stressed the importance of keeping up the morale of chapters and urged members to continue their studies for better preparation to serve the nation. An open discussion of chapter problems followed Dr. Turner's address.

Belle Meade Country Club was the scene of a reception and the convention dinner Friday evening. Members of Tennessee Nu and the Nashville Alumni Association joined the convention delegates in an early observance of Founders Day. Hon. John J. Hooker, Tenn. Λ '24, past Province Archon and the immediate past president of the Tennessee State Bar Association, and Dr. Turner were the convention dinner speakers. Following the dinner delegates attended the Junior Prom at Vanderbilt University.

Minutes of the last convention and reports of the various committees were given Saturday morning to start the final business session. One of the principal reports covered the improved conditions of Kentucky Kappa at Centre College.

A resolution urging chapters and members to invest in War Savings Bonds and Stamps was adopted. The delegates selected Jackson, Tenn., for the next convention with Tennessee Eta at Union University as host chapter. Numerous amendments to the Province by-laws were adopted. The convention instructed Province officers to urge more members to visit the Levere Memorial Temple and to attend the Leadership School. Province Iota officers are to consider financial assistance to stimulate more visits to Evanston.

The following Province officers were elected: Honorary Province Archon, Mayor Walter Chandler, Tenn. K '09; Province Archon, Judge Andrew T. Taylor, Jr., Tenn. H '33; Deputy Archon, Robert H. Horsley, Tenn. N '32; Recorder-Treasurer, Judge Joe Brown Cummings, Tenn. A '34; Alumni Secretary, Oscar Letcher, Ky. K '05.

Chapter administration, finances, rushing, pledge training, the abolition of Hell Weeks, chapter morale and the war conditions brought serious discussions during the convention. Dean Turner summarized the business of the convention and praised delegates for their attendance of all meetings, their interest and accomplishments.

Dean of Men Madison Sarratt, ΣN , of Vanderbilt University, was the principal speaker at the final luncheon Saturday at Hotel Hermitage, and following the luncheon delegates toured Nashville.

Following the Panhellenic tea dance at Vanderbilt University, members of Tennessee Nu entertained delegates at the chapter house before they attended the Student Council dance which was the final event of both the ΣAE convention and the Vanderbilt Junior Prom series. National leaders, Province officers and delegates agreed that the Nashville Convention was one of the most successful ever held in Province Iota.

KAPPA

By Robert R. Aurner Scholarship Commissioner

P ROVINCE KAPPA CONVEN-TION with California Delta at the University of California at Los Angeles as the host chapter was held March 7-8, 1942, and the opening session took place in the beautiful new home of California Delta, Saturday morning, March 7. All chapters in the Province were represented and all but one Province officer were in attendance.

Business sessions were held Saturday morning and afternoon and Sunday morning, adjoining in early afternoon on Sunday. Reports from the chapters reflected generally satisfactory conditions.

On Sunday the major subjects discussed were improvement in scholar⁴ ship and the general welfare of the Province. A two-hour scholarship seminar was held from 11:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M., with active and highly promising participation by the delegates. Many practical and valuable ideas for scholarship improvement, tested by actual operation in the Province chapters, were brought forth and discussed in detail. California Epsilon at Occidental leads the Province by a wide margin. Representatives of that chapter presented in detail some of the methods by which they have developed their high and consistent performance. Representatives of Nevada Alpha, although deeply discouraged over the poor performance of their chapter, seemed to be much "bucked up" by the results of the seminar. Jim Hastings, Calif. Γ '40, former Traveling Secretary, gave a splendid short talk based on some of his practical experiences, and his able comments added much to the value of the discussion.

New officers of the Province were installed Sunday afternoon. They included Judge O. K. Morton, Ill. Θ '14, Calif. A '16, Honorary Archon; Edward G. Hatchcock, Calif. Δ '30, Archon; William J. Milliken, Calif. B '34, Deputy Archon, who is the retiring Archon; James Hastings, Calif. Γ '40, Recorder, and Rex T. Silvernale, Calif. Δ '33, Treasurer.

Social attractions at the convention started Saturday with a special luncheon at the California Delta house. Speakers were Bernie Masterson, Neb. A-II '34, assistant coach at the University of California at Los Angeles, and Clyde Johnsen $\Phi K\Sigma$, assistant dean of undergraduates at U.C.L.A.

The brilliant and formal joint initiation of sixty neophytes was held Saturday evening at the Hollywood-Roosevelt Hotel. Ed Hathcock served as Eminent Archon and did a grand job of interpretation with every word committed to memory. The Founders Day banquet followed by a special program and entertainment, sponsored by the Los Angeles Alumni Association. Speakers were Scholarship Commissioner Aurner and Judge Alfred K. Nippert, Ohio E '94, Past E.S.A. Judge Nippert added enormously to the strength of the banquet program in his inspiring address, calling for support of alumni and their backing of chapter administration for the emergency. Everyone was delighted that Judge Nippert could attend the affair. A convention dance followed the banquet and was well attended.

LAMBDA

By Emmett B. Moore E.S. Ch.

A LL chapters of Province Lambda were represented at the Province Convention with Washington Alpha at the University of Washington in Seattle, Wash., Friday and Saturday, April 3 and 4, 1942, and the guests were George N. Short, E.S.A., and Judge Clyde G. Jeffers, Iowa B '05, Supreme Court Justice for the State of Washington. Besides several alumni, Province Archon Robert C. Thurston, Wash. A, Ore. B '27; Deputy Archon Spencer R. Collins, Ore. B '21, and Recorder-Treasurer Don W. Fry, Wash. A '21, were in attendance.

The convention opened promptly on Friday morning, April 3, with reports of officers and the chapters, occupying most of the day. Great interest was shown by the representatives in the various reports. Late in the afternoon the committee sessions were held and from these meetings came very good reports.

On Friday evening the convention banquet was held at the New Washington Hotel. A number of Seattle alumni joined in the affair. Brief talks were given by several alumni and Judge Jeffers gave the principal speech.

Scholarship was discussed on Saturday morning. A discussion followed the talk on scholarship by Emmett B. Moore, E.S.Ch. Aiding in the discussion was Glenn T. Nygreen, Wash. A '39, assistant dean of men at the University of Washington. Copies of the scholarship report will be distributed to the chapters as requested by the delegates. The balance of Saturday was taken up with committee reports and discussions.

Eugene, Ore., was selected as the site for the next convention with Oregon Beta at the University of Oregon as host chapter. All officers were reelected except that Glenn T. Nygreen was named Alumni Secretary for Washington and Oregon to succeed Martin Blakely, Ore. A '37.

The convention closed with the initiation of sixteen pledges of Washington Alpha. The ceremony was conducted by E.S.Ch. Moore at the Masonic Temple. The outstanding feature of the initiation was the presence of five fathers whose sons were inducted. Each of the fathers placed the badge on his son. On Saturday evening the delegates were entertained at a formal dance at the chapter house.

- Lt. Hillard D. Hicks, Idaho A '39, is with Pan American Airways in Peru.
- James Woodrow Swink, S.C. Δ '34, is with the Charlotte, N.C., office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Bureau.

Warren R. Neel, Ca. Φ'03, former state highway engineer of Georgia, is now located in Brownsville, Texas, as Supervisor of Construction for the Western Division of Pan American Airways, in charge of bases in Mexico, Central America and South America.

Thomas P. Walker, Nev. A '15, president of the Gulf States Utilities Company in Beaumont, Texas, is chairman of a war emergency council composed of operating electric companies throughout the United States for the purpose of extending the fullest cooperation to the government in the war effort. Headquarters for the board were set-up in Washington in April. Mr. Walker represents the electrical companies in dealing with the government on questions relating to maximum use of their facilities in the victory drive. Mr. Walker entered utilities work in 1915, joining the Reno, Nev., Power, Light and Water Company.

Moscow Mission

 Brigadier General Philip R. Faymonville, Calif. A '09, is head of the American Supply Mission to Moscow. He was promoted to this position by President Roosevelt.

Bags Jap Bombers

Ist Lt. Earl R. Stone, Jr., Calif. A '40, reported to his parents in Los Angeles, Calif., in January that he had bagged three Japanese bombers while on the Bataan Front with General MacArthur. He was taking a whirl with the dawn patrol of the 17th Pursuit Squadron when his chance came to bag the Jap bombers. After being graduated into the Army Air Corps at Kelly Field, Texas, last April, Lt. Stone went to Nichols Field, Manila, and has been in the Philippines ever since. His brother, Westcott B. Stone, Calif. F '42, is also doing his bit for the war effort, as he is an aviation cadet at Kelly Field.

Clips Seven Jap Planes

Captain Hewitt Wheless, Texas P '38, shot down seven Japanese planes in the Philippines when his bomber was attacked. As a result of his extraordinary heroism Captain Wheless received the Distinguished Service Cross. Captain Wheless bagged the seven enemy planes from a group of eighteen, and then scored hits on two transports before returning for a safe landing. While he is busy in air battle, his wife and small daughter are in Fresno, Calif., where Captain Wheless was last stationed in the United States.

Reported Missing

Lt. Miles F. Barrett, Wash. B '40, Marines, was reported missing on the Houston, according to information carried in newspapers, March 16. However, the report was not confirmed. His brother, John, is a member of Washington Beta at Washington State College.

May Be Prisoner

Robert Box, pledge of Missouri Alpha at the University of Missouri, has been reported captured at Guam. First reports of Pledge Box in service indicated that he had been killed in action. Pledge Box's home is in Kansas City. After being pledged by Missouri Alpha, he went into service, prior to initiation.

Reported Prisoners

Through the efforts of Emmett B. Moore, Mont. A '24, Eminent Su-preme Chronicler, the National Office has been informed of members who probably are prisoners of the Japanese. Theodore B. Olson, Wash. B 44, was listed among the men in the Navy who were believed to have been taken prisoner by the Japanese. The list was announced by the Navy Department in February. Frank Crowe, Idaho A '41, also was in-cluded on the list. Crowe's family has not heard from him since before Christmas and he was then located on Wake Island. Mr. Crowe had informed his family that there were approximately six members of the Fraternity on Wake Island. However, he believed that at least two of them were employees of the Pan-American Airways.

The Last Word

Alex M. Dreier, Calif. A '38, war correspondent, was the last American commentator to broadcast from Germany before World War II. He was banned from the air, it is reported, because he objected to censorship. He was a representative of the National Broadcasting Company. Mr. Dreier was formerly associated with the United Press.

Magazines for Service

Beginning with the March, 1942, issue of THE RECORD, more than 300 copies of the magazine were sent to Army and Navy libraries in order that all members in service would have a chance to read the publication. Copies of THE RECORD will be sent to the libraries for the duration.

The National Office is attempting to keep a record of all men in service, but is maintaining home addresses for mailing unless otherwise requested. Members may see THE RECORD in service libraries or have relatives forward their copies from their homes. The National Office has found that providing the publication for libraries is appreciated. Many letters in regard to service material in each issue and placing THE REC-ORD in libraries have been received from members and others. For instance, 2nd. Lt. Nick H. Nance, Library Officer, Service Club Library, Keesler Field, Miss., wrote: "On behalf of the Officers and Enlisted Men of Keesler Field, I wish to thank you for the copy of THE RECorder, which you have sent to this field. As there are many men sta-tioned at this field who are interested in your magazine, we would appreciate your placing this library on your gift list." When this issue went to press the

When this issue went to press the National Office list of members reported in service totaled more than 1,600. This was an increase of about 600 reports since the March issue. New reports since that issue appear in this number.

Safe and a Promotion

• Three months to the day after the Pearl Harbor attack the parents of B. L. Layton, Jr., $Ga. \Phi$ '36, learned that he was safe. Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Layton of Atlanta, Ga., received a cablegram, first since last November, from their son in the Philippines. The last message was signed by Major Layton, informing his parents that he had been promoted from a first lieutenant. In civilian life Major Layton was in the insurance business until called to active duty in January, 1941, as a second lieutenant in the coast artillery. His address is Iloilo City, Panay Island, Philippines.

There . . . and Away

Ensign Kenneth T. Viall, Ind. B '39, was at Pearl Harbor, December 7, when the Japanese attacked, according to a letter from him, dated February 24 and received March 25. He said that since the attack, he has crossed the Equator and has been very busy. Being an aviator, he spoke of his recent experience in repelling a Jap bomber attack of eighteen planes. "Our fighters and anti-aircraft guns shot down sixteen and possibly seventeen," he wrote. "We also got two in the morning, making a total of nineteen for the day. We lost two fighters and recovered the pilot of one. We suffered no damage from bombs." Ensign Viall is with the U.S.S. San Francisco. He sent his Chapter National dues for 1942 and apologized for the delay!

Saves Sailor's Life

Ensign Robert Newmann, Ill. Ψ - Ω '40, former Northwestern University swimming star, put his ability to test recently when he saved the life of a U.S. sailor in Atlantic waters somewhere along the south coast. Ensign Newmann, commissioned when he was graduated from Northwestern, dived from a ferry and saved a sailor's life. He heard his cry for aid and, after stripping off his uniform, made the rescue. The sailor had fallen off a raft and was being carried out to sea. Details of the rescue were not given due to censorship. Ensign Newmann reported for active duty in July, 1940, at Pearl Harbor with the Pacific Fleet and has been in service since that time. In October, 1940, he was married to Miss Marguerite Parshall at the Levere Memorial Temple in Evanston, III.

He also retains his command of the Washington Provisional Brigade.

Student Prexy in Service

Billy Mitts, Miss. 0 '42, president of the Student Association at Mississippi State College, is now serving his country. He received orders in February to report to Fort McClellan, Ala., for active duty with the Army, as a second lieutenant. His last official act as student prexy was to preside at a special chapel service when committees were appointed to serve on civilian defense set-up for the college.

Typical Cadet

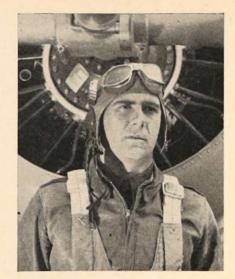

Lt. Burdette Wertman, Neb. Λ-Π '42, now attached to the 61st Pursuit Squadron on the east coast was chosen "Typical Air Cadet" when he was graduated from Ellington Field, Texas, the world's largest multimotored flying school. The Sunday World-Herald Magazine gave a full page to Lt. Wertman recently. He was transferred from the Quartermaster Department of the National Guard to aviation cadet in May, 1941. He was sent to Sikeston, Mo., for ten weeks primary training, then ten weeks at Randolph Field, and after ten weeks at Ellington Field, he received his wings.

Organize in Greensboro

Down in Greensboro, N.C. there is a new alumni association as a result of the efforts of several alumni. A charter was granted by the National Fraternity to Greensboro alumni in March. Officers of the new association are Ed Lucas, N.C. Θ '15, president; Paul Schenck, N.C. Ξ '07, vice president, and Montgomery S. Hill, Ga. Φ '11, secretary-treasurer. Other charter members include J. J. McCranie, Jr., Fla. T '27; Stephen Lumpkin Upson, Ga. B '29; Britt Armfield, N.C. Ξ '24; Ray Dawson, Va. K '24; James P. McRae, N.C. Ξ '22; Thomas Turner, Jr., N.C. Ξ '23; Samuel S. Wiley, N.C. Θ '32. Real organization started last Christmas when a dinner was sponsored by alumni for active members, pledges and their dates in Greensboro. Secretary-Treasurer Hill said: "The old fellows were interested and the young fellows were enthused; hence our action."

Named to Oglethorpe Post

Dr. Alston Callahan, La. T-T '33, has been appointed to the chair of ophthalmology at Oglethorpe University in Atlanta, Ga. Dr. Callahan served as assistant instructor in ophthalmology in the Tulane University Medical School from 1934 to 1936, after which he entered private practice in Vicksburg, Miss. He was graduated from the Tulane Medical School in 1933, receiving the M.S. degree from Tulane in 1936.

Measures Solar Radiation

In a crusade for national health from sun radiation, Dr. L. F. Miller, Mich. A '99, Wis. A '01, of the physics department at the University of Minnesota, has invented a new instrument, called pyro-heliometer, for measuring sky radiations, which means the beginning of a new scientific study of value to medicine. At Inger, Minn., where Dr. and Mrs. Miller have a cabin, he began experimenting in 1933 with the sun's rays. Dr. Miller made the announcement recently at the University of Arizona, where for five years he has directed, "long distance," the accumula-tion of sky radiation data. The first practical application of the data, he said, will be in the field of medicine. The new scientific study will be the first to find out whether the sun's light contains bands of radiation more detrimental to patients than when the sun's direct light is blocked out and the patients receive only radiations of light from the whole sky. At the University of Minnesota Dr. Miller has been doing correlative solar radiation studies in connection with air-conditioning and heat radiation in houses. The Miller pyroheliometer is so delicate in its recordings that it shows on charts even the characteristics of passing clouds and records invisible clouds which sensitive instruments miss entirely. Dr. Miller has been deluged since the begin-ning of his work for results of his findings to help meteorological experiments for the British government and engineering in the United States. It was from Washington that he received the request to compare the old Eppley instrument with a flat disc and the new pyroheliometer with a spherical disc.

"LOOK TO THE RECORD"

1856 License Plate

A new gift to the Museum of the Levere Memorial Temple is a license plate, 39.1856, presented by John T. Fosdick, Jr., Neb. Λ-Π '36. In presenting the plate to the Fraternity Mr. Fosdick commented that his 1939 South Dakota license, 39-1856, indicates the founding date of ΣAE. The 39 stands for third month, ninth day (March 9), and the year 1856. While Mr. Fosdick carried this license number on his car he was president of the South Dakota Alumni Association and adviser of South Dakota Sigma. He is now with the Reinhold Publishing Company of New York. He may be reached at 4 Park Ave., New York, or Box 598, Havenford, Pa. An article concerning Mr. Fosdick's unique license was carried in the September, 1939, issue of THE RECORD.

"Ambassador of Light"

Dr. Matthew Luckiesh, Ind. B '09, director of Lighting Research Laboratory at General Electric's lamp department in Cleveland, Ohio, will be North America's "ambassador of light and sight" to South America, leaving Cleveland by plane, June 18. The wizard of light and author of many books will visit the chief cities of Argentina, Brazil, Uruguay and possibly Chile, and expects to return late in July. Climax of his 15,000-mile flight will take place in Rio de Janeiro where he will deliver the main address at the First Inter-American Conference on the Prevention of Blindness. His topic, "The Partnership of Light and Sight," will encompass the science of seeing and its relationship to mankind both in peacetime and at war. While in Rio, he will meet with the President of Brazil, the Minister of Health and other high governmental officials. Dr. Luckiesh looks upon seeing as the life-blood of production in the all-out war effort.

LAND MAN—Milton S. Eisenhower, Kan. B '24, Land Use Coordinator and Associate Director of Extension Work, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C.

Tells About New Building

" "New Horizons for New England Mutual," an article by Charles F. Collins, Mass. B-Y '12, past E.S.A., appearing in the February issue of Bostonia, Boston University Alumni Magazine, vividly de-scribes the insurance firm's new home office building in Boston, Mass. Mr. Collins, Agency Secretary, begins his article with the founding of the company, in 1835, when the first mutual life insurance charter was issued in the United States. The new building was constructed a century after the company's founding. Unique in the construction was the provision of an obconstruction was the provision of an ob-servation platform for visitors. This was called "Ye Overseers' Observatory." Be-cause there has been so much interest in the architectural addition of the New England Mutual building to Copley Square, the company has decided to open the struc-ture to visitors at attack periods during the ture to visitors at stated periods during the day. The building, with a tower and clock, includes store space, an auditorium, an assembly hall, a sub-basement for 125 employees' cars, and a vault, the world's first all-welded, flood-proof, bomb-proof vault with many ingenious devices.

Planning Director

• Frederick P. Clark, N.Y. A '33, is Planning Director of the Regional Plan Association of New York City. He resigned his position as Executive Director of the New Hampshire State Planning and Development Commission. Mr. Clark was sought out for his new work because of the exceptional planning achievements which were accomplished in New Hampshire while he was identified with the state commission. He was the youngest chief executive in the state planning field when he was appointed in New Hampshire in 1936. He will divide his time between his old and new positions until July 1 in order to wind up current aspects of the New Hampshire planning program."

MAN CANNOT TELL—A most timely book, based on the challenge to liberty, is Man Cannot Tell, by Philip Lightfoot

Scruggs, Va. O '23, of Lynchburg, Va. Man Cannot Tell (The Bobbs-Merrill Company) is a novel on Nathaniel Bacon's rebellion, and all those who are interested in American history, love Virginia or have enjoyed a trip through that historic state, will appreciate Mr. Scruggs' novel and its amazing characters blended into historical facts. The book concerns Bacon's revolt against Virginia's royal Governor Berkeley, led by the young planter Bacon in 1676. The author gave five years to reading and research to make his work meticulously faithful to historic truth. He begins his story in a humble way, on a Virginia tobacco plantation, and builds into the colorful picture of life in colonial America. Jellis Holt is the main character who came to America, a servant to a planter, John Branch. When he gains his freedom he joins Nathaniel Bacon. Author Scruggs is a descendant of planters and knows his Virginia. The reader will learn something about "Man cannot tell what roots hold him to earth that bore him."

War Effort

SHOWING their loyal-Chapters Aid ty in the present national emergency, many of the Chap-ters Collegiate of SAE have expressed their intention to set up special funds for the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds and Stamps, either by direct contributions from members or by curtailment of expenses for social affairs. Actual purchases have been reported by the following:

Arkansas Alpha Upsilon at the University of Arkansas, California Beta at the University of California, Massachusetts Kappa at Massachusetts State College, Mississippi Theta at Mississippi State College, Missouri Beta at Washington University, Tennessee Zeta at Southwestern University, and Texas Delta at Southern Methodist University.

It is hoped that each of the 113 Chapters Collegiate will join in this movement. The National Office will be glad to assist chapters by accepting funds for investment in Savings Bonds which will be held in trust for the benefit of the contributing chapters and at their disposal.

To Brothers In Service

FROM Brother John O. Moseley, Past E.S.A. and Director of Leadership Training, has come the timely and constructive suggestion that members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, now serving in the armed forces of the United States, be asked to assist in maintaining morale on the Fraternity's home front by writing letters to their chapters.

This suggestion is passed on to you with the earnest request that you take the time to write such a letter. The boys in the chapter will be glad to hear from you, interested in your experiences and particularly in the fraternity contacts you have made in camp, on the field or at sea.

With so many of the older and more experienced members being called into military and naval service, the Fraternity is facing a dearth of leadership in the Chapters Collegiate which may present a problem of first magnitude.

A letter from you to your chaptermates, telling them that you now realize more than ever what membership in SAE means to you and urging them to get the most and best out of their fraternity life as active chapter members while they can still prove stimulating and will carry more weight than a communication from any other source.

Here at the National Office we are trying to build up complete records of the men under arms and we shall appreciate all information about vourself and brothers you meet in the service which regulations will permit you to send.

ONE of the most appre-Mother's ciated letters received at the National Office in a Loyalty long time was that from Mrs. Katherine E. Olson of Portland, Ore., mother of Theodore B. Olson, Wash. B '44, supposed to have been captured by the Japs at Wake Island, who sent her check for $3.00 to cover his Chapter National dues with a note in which she said:

"Enclosed please find my check for dues for my son, Theodore Olson. He was at Wake Island, so I am paying for him as I feel he would want to keep up if he were here."

BONDS BOUGHT BY FRATERNITY

The National Board of Trustees which has charge of the investment funds of Sigma Alpha Epsilon has purchased U. S. Government bonds amounting to $71,000 for the Rec-ord Life Subscription Fund since May 15, 1941, according to infor-mation furnished by Elmer B. San-ford, Mich. I-B '03, Secretary of the Board Board.

Given Study

AFTER intensive War Problems study of the unusual problems which have been forced on the fraternities and their college chapters by participation of the United States in the war, a report has been prepared by the War Committee of the National Interfraternity Conference and copies have been furnished to each member fraternity for distribution to its chapters.

The report was adopted at a joint meeting of the members of the War Committee, members of the Executive Committee of the Conference, and representatives of member fraternities, at which Sigma Alpha Epsilon was represented by Past Eminent Supreme Archon Charles F. Collins, held in New York, March 11, 1942.

It contains much information of great value to the Chapters Collegiate and should be given careful study by the officers of each chapter, particularly those officers responsible for chapter house economy. A copy of this report has been forwarded to each Chapter Collegiate of ΣAE and each Alumnus Adviser from the National Office.

Gold Stars of Minerva

TRACEDY for Sigma Alpha Epsilon in connection with World War

II began with casual-ties among men who had enrolled for training when it became apparent that there was danger of the country's being drawn into the conflict. Seventeen members of the Fraternity had given their lives prior to the Pearl Harbor attack and the Supreme Council has ruled that they shall be listed as victims of the war and included with other Gold Stars of Minerva when the history of the present war is written

A complete list of the SAEs whose deaths, while in training or other activities connected with the war, have been reported, is presented in this issue of THE RECORD, together with the names of those who have made the supreme sacrifice since December 7, 1941. On April 7th the total stood at thirty-five.

From this list it will be seen that Ensign Malcolm Charles Kirby, Okla. M '35, a Naval Reserve flier, was the first SAE to be killed while in training and that the first to lose his life at the hands of the Japanese was Walter C. Kent, Jr., Tenn. Ω '28, who was shot down while flying a Chinese plane.

As reported in the March issue, Ensign Joseph G. Smartt, Texas Δ '41, was killed during the attack on Pearl Harbor. Neal G. Martin, Ark. A-Y '39, was the first man killed after the declaration of war by the United States, according to reports received.

Refugee Students

THE International Student Service of the United States is asking the support of college fraternity chapters in its effort to assist European refugee students to carry on their training in American colleges by supplying free room or board, or both, to a refugee student for the whole or a part of the school year, 1942-43.

During the past eight years, the I.S.S. has secured scholarships for over 600 European refugees and now has applications from more than 150 students for whom such scholarships are available but who can not take advantage of them because of their inability to meet college living expenses.

Any Chapter Collegiate of Sigma Alpha Epsilon which is in position to offer such assistance to a refugee student and wishes to do so can get full information in regard to candidates by writing to Mr. Alvin Johnson, Chairman, International Student Service, 8 West 40th St., New York, N.Y.

DEAR BROTHERS: Once more it is time to write to you about the program and prospects of our Leadership School. War clouds hang heavily over all lands and Mars presses closely upon Minerva in every corner of our fraternal realm. Combining wisdom with valor it behooves every loyal son of Minerva to fight heroically to protect our way of life and our institutions not only from without but also from within. Therefore, the Eighth Leadership School will be held at Levere Memorial Temple, Evanston, Ill., August 23-28, 1942.

The national emergency will constitute not an alibi for luke warm performance but a challenge to superior achievement. Many who in the past have helped us in the direction and instruction of the school will not be able to be present this year and others who through several years have looked forward with eagerness to this climactic experience of their chapter collegiate careers, will instead be following the flag on many a distant battle field. Therefore, those of us who are privileged to attend will in spirit of sacrificial service lay aside all personal programs and pleasures and give double for our absent ones.

More than ever patriotism and devotion to duty will be stressed this year. Always in the past we have maintained that fraternity and civic leadership go hand in hand. The ultimate objective of the school has ever been the preparing of college men for useful citizenship in a world continually in the making. For this reason we have upheld Humanism in teaching and in practice; we have presented plays like "The Charters of Freedom," designed to strengthen love and understanding of country; we have appealed always to motives of unselfishness, fair-mindedness and tolerance; we have sought in the perfecting of personality to draw men out of and away from themselves making them, like the unbalanced wheel, a driving force in carrying the burdens of humanity; and finally we have in our corporate living endeavored to exemplify real democracy in action.

The immediate objective of this unique annual gathering of Minerva's sons has always been: the creation and development of fraternity leadership. The leader in this field, as in every other phase of human activity, is indicated by superior qualities of character, personality and ability. The development of these qualities is attained through the employment of emotion, knowledge and experience. The leader of men must feel deeply, think clearly and act confidently.

Every activity of the School is designed to rouse the will, to instruct the mind and to implement the skills for doing fraternity work. These objectives may be attained by gaining an understanding of the ideals and purposes of the Founders, by contemplating the beauties of the ritual, by living vicariously through the struggles and triumphs of a human institution, by sharing in the aspirations of leaders past and present, by striving fraternally with contemporaries in the bonds toward the achievement of immediate objectives, by studying best chapter methods and practices and by participating publicly in many activities upon the efficient performance of which depends a chapter's success or failure.

Therefore the program of the Eighth School will follow along well established lines as follows:

1. Song. New songs will be introduced; glee clubs and quartettes will be formed: instruction on the songs and in singing will be given; and the service of song will be carried on continuously. Ask any old timer about this feature.

2. Drama. One of the most effective teaching devices is dramatic representation. Three or more plays will be presented and as many men as possible will participate. 3. Instruction. Conferences and lectures will be held in the same manner as in preceding years. The topics will be Rushing, Pledge Training, Chapter Administration,

5. Entertainment and Fellowship. As fellow shippers traveling together toward the same goal, relaxation and instruction will be made one and the same and blended in such a way as to provide simultaneously both pleasure and profit. There will be a buffet supper, a banquet, an informal dance, ΣAE motion pictures, intramural athletics, and many informal gatherings and bull sessions.

6. Fraternalism and Citizenship. Every member of the school will participate in all the general functions and in at least two special activities and more if possible. A pageant on some patriotic subject will be presented. Dinners for province groups will be sponsored. Some prizes for individ-ual excellence will be offered. Note books, pencils, song copies, programs, information sheets, fraternity literature, and other ma-terial helps will be distributed. Oppor-tunities will be given for the securing of autographs, notes, personal souvenirs and photographs. All will live together as citizens of the highest type of democracy, the one rule and guide being: the conduct of a gentleman and a $\Sigma A E$.

Since this article is appearing in an earlier issue of THE RECORD than usual, names and program details are omitted. These items can never be ascertained definitely until a few weeks prior to the beginning of the School. However a tentative program will be sent in July to all interested. Let me urge every reader of this article to put in at least one lick for your Leadership School by seeing to it that your chapter is well represented and that your representatives fill in all information blanks promptly, thereby saving time, postage, energy and anxiety. It is a small thing to do but it means so much to those who already are in this task up to the hilt. There are other things for the School you could do and I'll be glad to write you if you are interested.

Nine New Life Members

N INE alumni have completed payment of the $50 fee for Life Membership in the Chapter National since February 3rd, bringing the total number of Life Members to 1,959 as of April 8, 1942. The majority of these took advantage of the plan under which alumni may become Life Members by paying the balance necessary to make up $50, after taking a credit of $2.50 for each payment of $3.00 for annual Chapter National dues they have made. Israel Pickens, Ala. I '01, Ala. A-M '02, of Mobile, Ala., was the first man to combine patriotism with fraternity loyalty in becoming a Life Member by stipulating that his contribution should be used for the purchase of a United States Savings Bond. Accordingly, his remittance was used as part payment for a bond of $100 face value. Similar contributions will be applied to this bond and additional bonds which will be purchased as remittances come in.

Purchase of the bonds must be handled through the National Office as alumni can not buy the bonds themselves and send them in since bonds of less than $100 face value are issued only to individuals and not to corporations.

National Rushing Bureau

For the fourth consecutive year the National Rushing Bureau is in operation at the National Office in Evanston, Ill., to assist the chapters in rushing throughout the summer months. This special service to the chapters is under the direction of Albert J. Schoth, Ore. A '18, Chapter Su-pervisor, who has outlined plans for the operation of the bureau again this year with the approval of the Supreme Council. In this issue of TWR BECORD are listed the In this issue of THE RECORD are listed the Chapter Rushing Captains. Also a special form for submitting the names of rushees appears on the back cover of this issue. Alumni not only are urged to submit names to the chapters but also the recommenda-tions should be sent to the National Rushing Bureau in order that special literature and copies of THE RECORD may be sent to the prospects. In this way the rushee learns of the national scope of the Fraternity as well as becoming acquainted with the individual chapter. Because of the war situation and many colleges and universities operating through the summer months, rushing by chapters must be intensified, and the National Rushing Bureau with the co-operation of the chapters will endeavor to assist the chapters even to a greater extent than in previous years. An active member of a Chapter Collegiate must not overlook the fact that his acquaintances may not be planning to attend his particular school, but their names should be submitted to the National Office in order that the Rushing Bureau may direct the information to the proper chapters.

Moseley Speaks In Northwest By Len Moyer Ore. Alpha '43

Dr. John O. Moseley, Past Eminent Supreme Archon of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, journeyed from his home in Tennessee out west to Oregon State College in Corvallis where he appeared as guest speaker for Oregon State's annual Interfraternity Week in March.

Arriving in Corvallis Thursday, March 5, he visited the Interfraternity Sing that night and was introduced to the students of Oregon State by Dr. U. G. Dubach, dean of men. Dean Moseley's broad smile and southern accent won the immediate attention and interest of the audience.

After the sing a general house meeting was held at Oregon Alpha of SAE at which Dean Moseley explained the situation of fraternities today, their part in the world wide conflict, and their future responsibilities. He predicts the future of the fraternity as more of a social institution than it has been in the past few years.

Since colleges throughout the country are gradually engulfing the past functions of fraternities, such as aptitude training tests, social courses, placement bureaus, etc., it will be increasingly important for fraternities to train its members as future leaders of the country.

"Any man has an inexhaustible resource of power within his grasp, but few ever concentrate on controlling this power; therefore its good is usually wasted," said Dr. Moseley. "For men to gain success in the world of today and get all possible good out of their life, 'follow through' is an all important factor. Without this prime requisite, a golf player remains in the category of the novice, a person who has capabilities of a champion tennis player never passes the rank of a common every-day variety of a dubber, and so on through life. Those who don't concentrate on the 'follow through' aspect of life usually end up as ordinary individuals and never feel the power and satisfaction that come with being a leader.'

The question of discipline was raised by members of the house in regard to pledge training. This, explained Dean Moseley, using his alma mater, Oxford University, as a fitting example, comes with respect for the institution itself. The day, he admitted, has passed when college men are particularly over anxious to be the bearers of a pledge pin, therefore, it is up to each chapter to show in as many ways as possible how its fraternity will benefit the college man.

The discipline, being a rather unfriendly word to begin with, must come through training and this should be backed by pro-found respect of the chapter. In Oxford, explained Dean Moseley, the quad was a symbol of tradition and the classes of students forbidden to walk across its area would not think of committing the crime because they respected the age-old traditions. So it is with the fraternity principles and precepts; they must be so well formulated that they will be respected by any newcomer in the fold.

After the general house meeting, Dean Moseley held a special chapter meeting in which he explained the ritual. Most specifically he translated the meaning of the crest and the badge by telling of the basic his-tory of each division. His knowledge of Latin and its applied use in describing the meaning of each important word used in the ritual was especially impressive to all members, and gave them a more vivid understanding of the ritual.

The college held a special convocation for the entire student body Friday at which Dean Moseley was guest speaker. His topic was chiefly concerned with the principles of liberal and technical educations. Being a believer of men as men, and not as mere component parts, he explained his theory of the future position of man in the world and the importance of a liberal training which, he said, would make a man better fitted for a position as a future leader.

"Today," he said, "there is a tendency for the reign of specialized men, men who can do one specific part of a routine job, but tomorrow when the tide turns, men who are to be leaders will be those with liberal educations and who are capable of thinking for themselves and able to solve a widely diversified field of problems; rather than one specific division of one major problem.

To achieve these individual results which ach leader should strive to achieve Dean Moseley set forth several principles. A humanistic philosophy should lead all of man's principles. That is, man should be the primary cog in the nation's machine, bet serving mergly as a tool of the state not serving merely as a tool of the state, but state should serve as the tool of man.

Also important is integration, the recognition of those not so fortunate as college men and the assisting of all needy so a higher average level of all social beings will be accomplished. "The world population is like water," said Mr. Moseley. "It seeks its own level. At times there are turbulent waves of prosperity, but in order for the waves to be created there must also be a cavity formed, a cavity of despair. But finally things tend to smooth out, and the water forms a rather smooth surface so is it with humans."

Finally, he stated, each man must seek his own goal and do his utmost to achieve it. His goal should be determined; then a path should be blazed through the handicaps and hardships of life until he reaches it.

Speaking before 650 fraternity men Friday night, March 6, in the Memorial Union building of Oregon State College, Dean Moseley reminded the group of its position and its duties as fraternity men. "The duty of the fraternity is to make better men," said Dr. Moseley, "and if it cannot fulfill this duty, there is no real reason for its existence."

After his speech the Interfraternity Council presented Dean Moseley with a beautiful set of myrtle wood bookends and a large myrtle wood sandwich tray for Mrs. Moseley.

Dean Moseley's comfortable personality and smiling eyes won him many friends during his short, but very active, visit to the Oregon State campus.

EDITOR'S NOTE: While in the Northwest Dr. Moseley, dean of students at the University of Tennessee, also addressed undergraduates and alumni of Washington State College, March 2, when a banquet was held in his honor by the Alumni Interfraternity Council. Emmett B. Moore, Eminent Supreme Chronicler of 2AE and president of the Washington State Alumni Interfraternity Council, served as toastmaster. Dr. Moseley delivered an address on "College Leadership in Time of Crisis" at a convocation prior to the banquet. He also spoke to fraternity men at the University of Washington. He visited five ZAE chapters and met with alumni enroute.

Where Greek Meets Greek By. H. A. Ackerburg Ill. Psi-Omega '14

Fifteen years ago, on March 17th, 1927, the Interfraternity Club was introduced to Chicago. Its stated purpose was "To preserve in after life the friendships of college and university days; to provide a common meeting ground where selected college men and their guests can meet on an equal basis, with every comfort, convenience and service; to advance fraternity scholarship, protect fraternity interests, and encourage wholesome rivalry between our colleges and chapters, and lastly, to foster good citizenship, not as reformers or cranks, but as educated men devoted to the preservation of American ideals." Membership was restricted to members of a recognized group of outstanding college fraternities.

From a modest beginning with a mere handful of men and a small suite in the Congress Hotel for headquarters, the spontaneous growth of the Interfraternity Club reads like a fantastic tale borrowed from the pages of Arabian Nights. Within two months, the club had more than 400 active and enthusiastic members, paying dues on the prevailing basis of $24.00 per year. The group comprised representatives from thirty-nine outstanding fraternities and more than 100 colleges and universities. In less than a year, despite the addition of several rooms to the original suite, the quarters became inadequate, and it was necessary to provide other arrangements. The LaSalle Hotel supplied the answer

The LaSalle Hotel supplied the answer through the offer of space on the eighteenth floor, formerly serving as quarters for two separate organizations. Early in June, 1928, the membership rolls had increased to 1,200, and in the fall of that year, the club moved into its newly remodeled quarters. There followed the three most prosperous years of the club's existence. Initiation fees, which had progressively advanced with each succeeding block of new memberships, had reached a high of $125.00 per member!

New memberships, had reached a high of $125.00 per member! On July 5th, 1931, the Interfraternity Club signed a ten year lease with the Potter Palmer Estate for a new six-story building adjoining the Palmer House, then in the process of construction. This most ambitious undertaking provided for the installation of every comfort and luxury, including complete athletic facilities. The new home was ready for occupancy on October 1st, 1931. The organization carried on for a number of years in these quarters, but it wasn't long before the Interfraternity Club started to feel the full force of the depression. Slowly at first, but with everincreasing momentum, the resignations started to come. It was a new and unexpected sensation to an organization that had experienced nothing but success.

had experienced nothing but success. During the spring of 1937, just ten years after the founding of the Interfraternity Club, a meeting of the membership was called. The necessity of abandoning the present quarters was explained, and it was decided to share facilities with the Hamilton Club. Dues reached an all time high of $7.70 a month, $92.40 per annum. An additional fee was charged for athletic privileges. Too late, it was learned that the time-bonored Hamilton Club was in a precarious financial condition. The Hamilton Club failed and in the early part of 1938 the Interfraternity Club leased a portion of its former quarters on the eighteenth floor of the LaSalle Hotel. To the older members, this was like coming back home for it was here the club enjoyed its greatest prosperity. Sensing a need for a financial readjust-

Sensing a need for a financial readjustment to remove the dollar sign as a bar to fraternity good-fellowship, the members got together in March, 1941, to effect logical economies. Midnight, March 31, 1941, marked the end of the old order, and the following day dawned with several innovations designed to promote an increased utility of the club to its members.

Dues for active memberships had been drastically reduced to $20.00 per year, $4.00 less than the lowest figure established at the club's inception. Junior memberships became available at $10.00 per annum for men who had not reached the age of twenty-six. Non-resident memberships were offered to fraternity men living outside a fifty-mile radius of the club quarters, for $6.00 per year. Since April of last year, the organization has enjoyed a steady membership growth and a new spirit of camaraderie prevails.

The club quarters are open to the free use of fraternity men in all branches of military service, and interested Greek letter men are invited to inspect the club at their convenience. Out-of-town Greeks are aided in contacting their fraternity brothers while in the city. The Interfraternity Club solicits correspondence from those who might wish to consider membership in the organization.

Indiana Alpha Jubilee

By Morton Nahrwold Ind. Alpha '43

Indiana Alpha's celebration of its fiftieth anniversary at Franklin College will long be remembered by chapter members and the many alumni who attended the three-day affair, March 20-22. Events of the Golden Jubilee started Friday, March 20, with a formal dinner at Events of the Golden Jubilee started Friday, March 20, with a formal dinner at the Severin Hotel in Indianapolis for active members. Dancing followed to which alumni were invited.

On Saturday, the scene changed to Franklin, Ind., where open house was held in the afternoon. "The Founding of Sigma Alpha Epsilon," a playlet, was presented by the chapter in the college chapel Saturday evening. Following the play, a smoker was sponsored by the Indiana Alpha Alumni Association at the chapter house. Informal talks were given and James Drake, '36, served as chairman. A reception for visiting ladies was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Hougham.

Sunday morning an initiation was held at the chapter house, followed by a group photograph. Prominent alumni gathered for the banquet at the Masonic Temple at noon. Norman H. Pritchard, '04, Counsel for the National Fraternity, served as toastmaster. Will A. Burton, '03, college bursar, gave a short history of the chapter.

Charter Member Dies

Frank D. Johnston, Ind. A '92, Charter Member of Indiana Alpha at Franklin College, died at his home in Plainfield, Ind., April 4, 1942. Mr. Johnston attended his chapter's Golden Jubilee at Franklin in March. Chapter members and alumni greatly mourn his sudden death. His interest in the Fraternity was indicated by his last act of attending his chapter's fiftieth birthday celebration.

Benninghoff, '02, former professor of political science at Waseda University, Tokio, Japan, gave a timely talk on "The Struggle in the Far East as I See It." A luncheon for the ladies was held at

A luncheon for the ladies was held at the Dixie Tea Room Sunday noon. The committee in charge included Mrs. Herbert Kinnear, president, and Mrs. Hugh Vandivier, vice-president of the Minerva Club, and Mrs. Elizabeth Lee, Indiana Alpha house mother. Miss May Eleanor Sellers sang several numbers, accompanied at piano by Miss Rose Marie Kinnear, who also played a piano solo. Stereopticon slides of New England views, Brown County, the college campus and floral collections were shown by Miss Naomi Mullendore. General chairman for the celebration was Harry Mock, Jr., '33, assisted by Oren Pritchard, '25, and Maurice Johnson, '14. Publicity was handled by Hugh Vandivier, '14; William Book, '19; Paul Cook, '25; Melvin Lostutter, '19, and Herb Kinnear, Indiana Alpha active. The reception committee included Harry Hougham, '08; Harry Dragoo, '06, Past Archon of Province Delta; Karl Suckow, '15; Wallace Patterson, '40, and John Nottingham, Indiana Alpha active. The banquet was arranged by Ted Davis, '25; Harry May, '36; Leslie Barrow, '10, and Brad Staff of the chapter. Finances were handled by Jim Turney, '28; Harry Vandivier, '19, and Chick Bollman of the chapter. Other committeemen included: attendance, Hugh Kerlin, '25; Russell Yount, '32; housing, Oris Vandivier, '17, and Kenneth Andrews, '24; music, Enod Stark, '34; Ray Thomas, '11, and Robert Edgecomb, Indiana Alpha.

Pa. Gamma Moves

By Ray Milici Pa. Gamma '43

After twenty years of searching for a location on the campus, Pennsylvania Gamma at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., has finally achieved its goal.

On February 21st, the chapter moved into a beautiful white house, formerly the residence of a professor, overlooking the city and the Delaware River. In every respect the location is perfect. Not only is the house handy to all parts of the college, but it is situated on the most attractive part of the campus.

The condition of the house is so much better than the old one that it is hard to believe. All of the rooms are very large and airy and manage to hold the heat something the old house never did. Moving was far from an easy job. It took the combined efforts of all the twentyfour members of the chapter to do it. The spirit shown by the brothers during this tedious week was something the chapter could be proud of.

The house consists of two living rooms, a dining room, a kitchen and storage rooms. There are four large study rooms on the second floor and a bathroom which is undergoing some radical changes. There are two rooms on the third floor, one used as a ping pong room and the other for bull sessions, and a dormitory. The basement has not been finished but it holds good possibilities for the future.

good possibilities for the future. The chapter is renting the house from the college. It was made available by the moving of Prof. W. S. Hall, clerk of the faculty. To date many improvements have been made along the lines of papering and painting, and more is contemplated.

The active Minerva Club has aided by providing drapes for the house. Alumni are also making contributions to help defray expenses of the changes.

Now that the chapter is settled on the campus, it feels confident that ΣAE at Lafayette will rise to even greater heights.

Mass. Kappa in Defense

• Following the example set by Arkansas Alpha-Upsilon as reported in the March issue of THE RECORD, Massachusetts Kappa at Massachusetts State College has begun to buy Savings Bonds, the maturity value of which will be placed in the building fund. The chapter has been saving odds and ends of cash for a new house for two years, and now the savings bond idea seems like a good way to add substantially to the fund. Each member is assessed monthly to allow the Eminent Treasurer to purchase a twenty-five dollar bond.

Miss. Theta-Bonds

Mississippi Theta at Mississippi State College has taken a step as its part in national defense of buying four $770 Savings Bonds with part of the money in the house fund after plans for building a house were disrupted due to the national emergency. The chapter was on the verge of starting construction on a house. Plans were definite; a drive was to be made during the Christmas holidays to raise the money necessary for the construction of a house. Alumni throughout the state had promised their support and were confident that the money could be raised. The president of the college was planning to grant a lease on school property. A contractor had made three estimates of the cost, and the construction could have been started this spring. These plans have been sacrificed in order that the chapter can enter the emergency and do its utmost to aid the country in every way. This sacrifice now takes the background and attention turns upon the men of ΣAE whose lives will be in danger throught the duration.

Missouri Beta War Plan

To give all its members a chance to contribute to the chapter's war effort, Missouri Beta at Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., has inaugurated a plan under which each member is requested to deny himself some personal luxury each day and to purchase a five-cent Savings Stamp to be added to a fund the chapter is building up. The plan has been called to the attention of other chapters in the hope that they will join the movement.

Tennessee Zeta Savings

Using money which it had laid aside to put a new roof on its house, Tennessee Zeta at Southwestern University, Memphis, Tenn., has purchased a $1,500 Savings Bond as its contribution to the Nation's war effort. Announcement of the purchase of this bond was received with great enthusiasm at the convention of Province Iota, and other chapters promised to take similar action.

Offers His Services

Henry Hartman, Wis. 4 '42, was about to go into service. He had a little time, so he put it to good use by giving service to his chapter at Beloit College. He remained at Wisconsin Phi several days and as a result, many improvements were made in the house. He overhauled the chapter radio, finished a new recreation room and improved the chapter room. The chapter presented Mr. Hartman with an alumni watch charm badge when he left for the Coast Guard.

Texas Delta Buys Bonds

Fletcher Gibson, Eminent Correspondent of Texas Delta at Southern Methodist University informs the National Office that the chapter has been buying Savings Bonds. First bonds were purchased with the money which was to be used for the annual dance. Instead of renting a ballroom, the dance was held in the university gymnasium. This was the first dance held in such a manner and other fraternities on the campus are expected to follow suit. Latest improvements in the chapter house are twenty-four new and blue covered chairs for the dining room. These were donated by the Mothers Club.

Alumni Buy Chairs

California Beta at the University of California, in dire need of new dining room chairs, called upon the alumni for support. The chapter purchased sixty sturdy chairs and asked alumni to buy one chair each while the chapter in turn places the name and class of the subscriber on the back of the chair. More than one half of the chairs have been paid for by this method and the chapter is looking for 100 per cent payment. Also to help the government and to guarantee the security of the chapter in future years the chapter voted to buy Savings Bonds. Once each month a Defense Dance is held, the admission charge being fifty cents in Savings Stamps. The idea has been favorably re-ceived by alumni and guests from whom fine co-operation and support have been offered. The bonds are signed over to the California Beta House Corporation. According to Bob Hartley, Eminent Correspondent, California Beta offers its hospitality to all members in service in the San Francisco Bay area.

Leader at Union

Serving as president of several organizations is only part of the activity of Delbert Nowell of Tennessee Eta at Union University. He has been Eminent Archon of the chapter and is now serving as president of the student body and is also president of the senior class. He is a member of TKA, Nester club and the History club. Nowell proves his athletic ability by the swing of the tennis racket, being an outstanding member of the tennis team. He creates a happy "hangout" for

50th Year at Penn State

By Dick Pease Pa. Alpha-Zeta '43

This month Pennsylvania Alpha-Zeta at Pennsylvania State College is celebrating its fiftieth year on the campus and the chapter finds itself one of the leading houses at the college. Much of this is due to the untiring efforts of P. B. "Dutch" Breneman, Pa. A-Z '94, charter member, who has been chapter adviser for more than twenty-five years. Under his supervision the fine chapter house was completed in 1925. The chapter in its anniversary year is very active on the campus, being represented in thirteen of the seventeen sports and holds the presidencies of many organizations. The chapter has furthered student-faculty relations by continuing the policy of its annual formal faculty reception, held in conjunction with KKT. Because of the war and the university threesemester plan, it is impossible to celebrate the chapter's anniversary as planned. Since mid semesters fall on the week of May 11th, it was necessary to cancel Province Beta Convention with the chapter and plan the convention in Philadelphia.

Best Swimmers at Pa. Delta

Pennsylvania Delta at Gettysbury College captured the swimming trophy this year. The ZAEs swamped all competition with six firsts and one second out of a possible seven places in the annual interfraternity swimming meet. The team was composed of two upperclassmen and three freshmen. Pledges Jimmy Lewis and Tommy Ryan accounted for three first places and contributed largely to the relays. Pledge Johnny Engle scuttled all opponents in the breast stroke and gave another first place. Glenn Enck and Ed MacBean anchored in the relays and coached the team in the early stages of its development. Among other accomplishments of the chapter this year were: initiation of the largest pledge class in years; abolishment of Hell Week; four out of five of the presidencies offered on the campus, including the president of the student body.

Nebraska Takes Trophy

Nebraska Lambda-Pi at the University of Nebraska placed first in the annual homecoming decorations contest last fall and received the trophy presented by the Innocents Society. In eleven years the chapter has received the first place award six times and the second award five times. The theme of this year's display was the Hoosiers of Indiana and Nebraska. Bill Farrens, '38, assisted the chapter.

N.C. Theta in Progress

• North Carolina Theta at Davidson College reports an unusually active year in campus activities, according to E. J. Erwin, Jr., Eminent Correspondent. Of its twenty-nine upperclassmen, four are members of $O\Delta K$; twelve have earned varsity letters; seven are members of Scabbard and Blade, and three are on the Student Council. The chapter holds the presidencies of $O\Delta K$, the senior class and the "D" Club and has the judgeship of the Court of Control. Also the chapter boasts of the business managership of The Davidsonian. In the election of student officer holders for 1942-43, the chapter obtained the position of editor-in-chief of The Davidsonian.

Province Mu Initiation

 Four Chapters Collegiate of Province Mu presented forty neophytes for initiation at a joint ceremony, held in the Panhellenic Room of the Levere Memorial Temple, national shrine of ΣAE at Evanston, Ill., on Saturday, March 7. The ceremony was conducted by Lauren Foreman, Eminent Supreme Recorder, who took the part of the E.A. The other parts were filled as follows: E.R., Tom Godfrey, Wis. A; E.Ch., Bill Grant, Ill. B; E.W., Bob Sylvester, Ill. Δ; and E.W., Enos D. Lloyd-Jones, Wis. A. The chapters presenting neophytes were: Illinois Beta, 17; Wisconsin Alpha, 12; Illinois Delta, 10; Illinois Psi-Omega, I. An interesting feature was that Robert B. Ackerburg, Ill. B, received his badge from his father, Harry A. Ackerburg, Ill. Φ.Ω '14, and Robert Lewis Parkinson, Ill. Δ, received his badge from his father, Nellis P. Parkinson, Ill. Δ '15. Arrangements for the joint initiation were made by Charles H. Barker, Archon of Province Mu.

Ohio Theta Anniversary

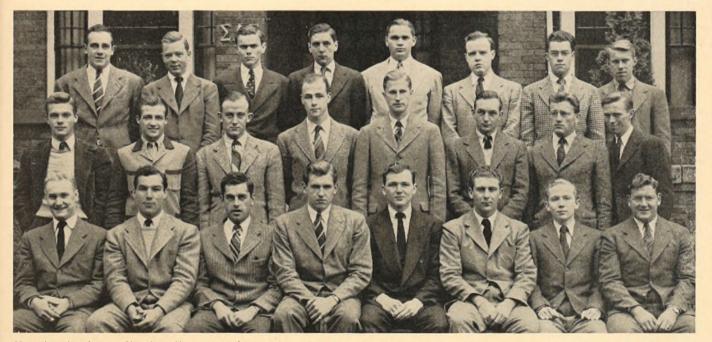

Ohio Theta at Ohio State University is making plans for the celebration of its fiftieth anniversary, June 13, 1942. On June 3, 1892, the chapter initiated its first members. In June this year those founders will be honored. Six of the founders are left. They include Rush Manley, '94; Allen Pearl, '94; Vernon Covell, '95; William Zurfluh, '94; Emmett Stull, '94; Charles Lott, '95. Following the custom established in 1940, the chapter has selected a prominent alumnus for the title of "Man of the Year." For 1941 the chapter chose James F. Lincoln, Ohio θ '07, president of the Lincoln Electric Company in Cleveland, and head of the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation. Major General Robert S. Beightler, Ohio Θ '13, on active duty with the Ohio National Guard, received the initial honor in 1940.

Capture Drake Cup

• Iowa Delta at Drake University took the trophy at the Sweetheart Sing on Valentine's Day this year, winning first place against the AT Ω s who had captured the prize for nine years. The chapter has made a recording of the numbers presented at the Sing. The chapter has had other honors this year. The pledges combined to construct the winning float for the homecoming celebration parade last fall. The chapter has won more trophies outside of intramural athletic competition than at any time in its history.

S.D. Sigma Skit Wins

South Dakota Sigma at the University of South Dakota won first place in the annual student vaudeville production, Stroller's. Jack Bain put the show over with his realistic auctioneering. He was assisted by a "beef-trust" chorus composed of Don Forney, Frank Duffy, Elroy Lemaster and Fred Huntley.

The big ten champions from Illinois Beta were Arthur Mathisen and Jack Smiley. Mathisen was named captain for 1943.

N.H. Beta Celebration

New Hampshire Beta at the University of New Hampshire celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary in Sigma Alpha Epsilon, March 21, 1942. The affair started with a banquet at the University Commons. Following the dinner an open house "vic" dance was held at the chapter house. Guests and speakers at the banquet were Charles F. Collins, Mass. B-Y '12, Past E.S.A.; President Fred Englehardt of the University; Dean Norman Alexander, N.D. A '19; Dean Leon Hitchcock. Ernest Christensen, N.H. B '20, financial adviser, served as toastmaster, and the welcoming address was given by William T. Call, E.A. of the chapter. Remarks were made by charter members and special guests, Dean Gale Eastman and Dean Harold Scudder.

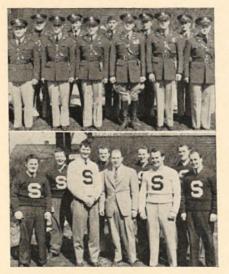

No More Paddling

Another Sigma Alpha Epsilon chapter has placed the ban on paddling! Adding to the long list of chapters dropping this practice is Ohio Theta at Ohio State University. Following is from an editorial in the March issue of The Ohio Theta. bloid:

bloid: If an alumnus of Obio Theta were to walk into the chapter house he would notice, aside from his courteous welcome, that there is little difference in "caste" between pledge and active. There would he no madhouse scene of wrestling, screaming, or cursing humanity. He would find a quiet game of bridge, the phonograph playing a new tune, or some of the boys settling down to a good bull session. There would be no sharp detonations of paddles. Herein lies the answer to this unusual state of sanity. Ohio Theta, by chapter vote, has abolished the use of the paddle in connection with pledge training. Not since the end of last school year has a paddle fanned the air. At first, we felt lost with-out them, then we discovered that a better under-standing between pledge and active was created by round table discussion. The president, the pledge, and one or two members, in this manner, could work out matters of discipline and conduct with a minimum of suffering and hard feelings. As a result of our new system, there seems to be more cooperation and initiative shown by the pledges. Their meetings are more alive, and the attendance is much better. Fewer cases for round table are coming up, because word of previous discussions sift among the men, and they try to be guided by the experience of their friends. At present, we feel justified in saying that this is the best way to train better members and insure the future of ZAE on Ohio State's campus.

That's Ohio Theta's new deal in pledge training.

Most of the work was done by members, and directors were Chet Woodard, '19, George Feiker, '41, and Bill Shepardson, '40. Every bit of the work was handled by volunteer labor, including members, pledges, alumni and even a group of rushees; all had a hand in the enlargement. Actual work started last August. The dining room is paneled in pine. The Minerva club provided draperies. Most recent improvement was a set of chairs. The alumni purchased a sink for the kitchen and the chapter bought cabinets and an electric stove.
