FRONT COVER—

MISSISSIPPI GAMMA was chartered at the University of Mississippi (more commonly known as "Ole Miss"), Oxford, in 1866, and thus is in its 91st year and enjoying the facilities of a brand new home. In 1869 the Chapter became inactive as a result of Federal Control and the Negro Invasion, but was re-established in 1882. In 1912 the Chapter was removed from the campus with other fraternities by the State Legislature. The Zeller Bill to repeal the anti-fraternity law brought the Chapter back in 1926. The Chapter did not have a house until 1935 when the famous "Eric Dawson Hall" lodge was built. After its destruction by fire five years ago, the new house on the same property was dedicated in December, 1956. It is located on L.Q.C. Lamar Road named in honor of the famous statesman who founded the Chapter. Standing out among prominent alumni today is Author William Faulkner, Pulitzer Prize winner, who lives in Oxford. This color shot is another by Albert J. Scoth, Chapter Supervisor.

BACK COVER—

ILLINOIS DELTA at Millikin University, Decatur, was chartered on January 11, 1911, the youngest of three Illinois Chapters, with Illinois Psi-Omega at Northwestern having been chartered in 1894 and Illinois Beta at the University of Illinois in 1899. The present house was acquired in 1952. The Chapter boasts of such alumni as Eugene Sutherland, former athletic director, and Elbert S. Smith, Illinois State Auditor.

HARMONY OF SESSIONS and hospitality of local alumni marked the 101st Anniversary National Convention of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and the 57th biennial meeting held at the Skirvin Tower in Oklahoma City, Okla., September 1-2-3-4, 1957, immediately following the 23rd Annual Leadership School at the Levere Memorial Temple in Evanston, Ill., August 18-30.

Highlights of the Convention presided over by Edward G. Hathcock, Calif. Delta '31 (UCLA), Eminent Supreme Archon, of Beverly Hills, Calif., included the granting of three charters to petitioning local fraternities at Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, Ripon College, Ripon, Wis., and Evansville College, Evansville, Ind.; presenting Distinguished Service Awards and Citations to two Past Eminent Supreme Archons, Judge Walter B. Jones, Ala. Alpha-Mu '10 (Auburn), Ala. Mu (Alabama), of Montgomery, Ala., and Charles F. Collins, Mass. Beta-Upsilon '12 (BU), Acting Archon of Province Alpha, of Port Clyde, Maine, and to a former Province Archon, Dr. Edley H. Jones, La. Tau-Upsilon '22 (Tulane), of Jackson, Miss., Archon of old Province Theta; bestowing the title of honorary chief of the Otoe-Missouri Indian tribe upon Gen. J. Washington Moore, Tenn. Nu '91 (Vanderbilt), of Nashville, Tenn., oldest living Past ESA, by Chief Baptiste B. ("Bat") Shunatona, Sr., Okla. Kappa '27 (Oklahoma), attorney in Wewoka, Okla.

Other highlights included the Convention banquet informal talk by Joe Foss, S. D. Sigma '40 (South Dakota), Governor of South Dakota, who flew by Beech Bonanza from Pierre with John Dewell, S. D. Sigma '53, and was greeted at the airport by Governor of Oklahoma, Raymond Gary, a banquet guest, and Earl Foster, Jr., Okla. Kappa '39, general chairman; the representation of 35 Alumni Associations, the largest number recorded at any convention, and the addition of another Province making a total of 21, Province Zeta having been confined to Kansas and Missouri and creating Province Tau for Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Oklahoman Elected ESA

Leo S. Cade, Okla. Kappa '22, of Oklahoma City, was unanimously elected Eminent Supreme Archon during the afternoon session of Tuesday, September 3. Mr. Cade, who deals in farming and investments, is manager of the Touch-down Club with office in the First National Building. He is also manager of the Cimarron Club and a member of the Petroleum Club and the Oklahoma Historical Society. He is a former vice president of the First National Bank of Geary, Okla., and a director of the Bank of Meeker. Former Archon of old Province Theta, Mr. Cade has held every office on the Supreme Council since his election as Eminent Supreme Chronicler at the Los Angeles, Calif., Convention in 1949.

Other members unanimously elevated on the Supreme Council were Howard P. Falls, Va. Tau '33 (Richmond), of Richmond, Va., Eminent Supreme Deputy Archon; Arthur L. Beck, Pa. Phi '22 (Carnegie), of Buffalo, N. Y., Eminent Supreme Warden, and Dr. Glen T. Nygreen, Wash. Alpha '39 (Washington), of Kent State University, Ohio, Eminent Supreme Herald and who was also elected Director of Leadership Training.

The new member of the Supreme Council is Gurnett Steinhauer, Colo. Zeta '31 (Denver), business manager of the Colorado School of Mines in Golden, and Archon of Province Eta (Colorado and Wyoming). He was named Eminent Supreme Chronicler, one of the most important offices on the Council due to the customary procedure of rotating in office by election at each Convention. Mr. Steinhauer is the brother of George N. Steinhauer, Colo. Chi '27 (Colorado), of Denver, former Archon of Province Eta, and Stuart Steinhauer, Miss. Gamma '41 (Mississippi) and the son of the late Frederick C. Steinhauer, Colo. Lambda '03 (Colo. Mines), who died in Denver in 1947.

Unanimously elected Eminent Supreme Recorder was Rex A. Smith, Neb. Lambda-Pi '24 (Nebraska), who had been appointed to the Evanston office position by the Supreme Council in July, 1956, following the death of Past ESA John O. Moseley, Okla. Kappa '16, Calif. Alpha (Stanford), in October, 1955. Honorary Eminent Supreme Archon named at the Convention was Neil H. McElroy, Mass. Gamma '25 (Harvard), U. S. Secretary of Defense and former president of Procter & Gamble of Cincinnati. Details concerning his Cabinet post are carried elsewhere in this issue.

A new member of the Board of Trustees is Charles G. Gambrell, Mass. Gamma '27, of New York City. He is vice-president of the Irving Trust Company on Wall Street and has been with this bank during his entire business life. He was a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force from 1942 to 1945. A deacon in the Brick Presbyterian Church, he is a member of the Harvard Club, University Club, the New York Southern Society and the Newcomer Society. He and his four blood brothers and a sister are listed in Who's Who in America. Two of his brothers are E. Smythe Gambrell, Mass. Gamma '22, Atlanta, Ga., lawyer and president of the American Bar Association in 1955-56, and William H. Gambrell, Mass. Gamma '25, vice president of the New York Trust Company, New York City. The new Board of Trustees member, elected for a term of 10 years, was nominated at the Convention by Halford J. Pope, Mass. Gamma '25, vice president.

Initiation Fee, Dues Raised

In order to assist the National Fraternity to meet operating costs and give greater service to the Chapters, the Convention voted to increase the national initiation fee of $25.00 to $30.00 and raise semi-annual Chapter membership dues from $7.50 to $8.50. This action was taken following

Special Train from Chicago

Approximately 70 members and their wives arrived in Oklahoma City late Saturday night, August 30, on a special Sooner Convention train arranged by the Santa Fe Railroad from Chicago. Besides Leadership School delegates on the train were Past ESAs Charles F. Collins, Emmett B. Moore and Lauren Foreman and Mrs. Foreman, ESA Edward G. Hathcock, ESH Arthur L. Beck and Mrs. Beck, ESCh. Glen T. Nygreen, ESR Rex A. Smith and Mrs. Smith, Chapter Supervisor Albert J. Schoth, Ore. Alpha '18 (Ore. State), Editor of THE RECORD, Don Gable, Ohio Delta '35 (Ohio Wesleyan), Ill. Psi-Omega (Northwestern) and National Treasurer E. W. ("Ted") Baker, Pa. Chi-Omicron '50 (Pittsburgh).

Despite the late arrival of the train many alumni, Chapter members of Oklahoma Kappa and Mu and local committee members were at the station in Oklahoma City to welcome conventioners. Chapter Supervisors John H. Baugh, Jr., Okla. Mu '35 (Okla. State) and Merlyn C. Jones, Utah Epsilon '45 (Utah State), had already arrived by auto. Committee workers assisting General Chairman Foster were Robert Hirschi, retiring president of the Oklahoma City Alumni Association, Province Sigma Archon Ralph R. Carlin, Chairman of the Meeting Arrangements Committee, Norman Reynolds, Hotel Reservations Chairman Bob Harris, Bill Chapman, Dick Trent, Perry Ames, Province Sigma Treasurer John Reeves, Harvey Harman, Coleman Mayes, Hoyle Lockett. Trent as head of the Reception Committee was assisted by Vincent Stephens and Bob Lee. Publicity was handled by Pat Keenan and Ross Porter. The Entertainment Committee Chairman was Perry Ames assisted by Stanley Lee and John Edwards. The Chamber of Commerce handled reservations in the lobby of the Skirvin Tower.

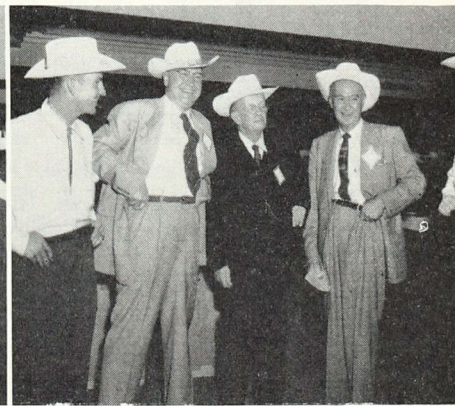

During registration Sunday, September 1, a chartered bus took delegates to visit the Oklahoma Mu Chapter house and the Oklahoma State University of Agriculture and Applied Sciences campus at Stillwater, returning in time for the opening of the Convention in the Persian Room of the Skirvin Tower that afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, with ESA Hathcock presiding. Dr. Jack (Frank S.) Wilkes, La. Epsilon '39 (La. State), Texas Delta (SMU), president of Oklahoma City University, gave the opening prayer as Chaplain of the Convention. A welcome was extended by H. B. Gold, president of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce, who brought greetings from Mayor Street and Governor Gary. Greetings from the Oklahoma

Past ESA J. Washington Moore as convention guest of honor was then introduced who responded to the welcome: He stated: "I trust, my brothers, that I may be spared to see Chapters established in the remaining two states of these United States of America—and if that happens, I shall go to the Chapter Eternal with a song in my heart." Mr. Hathcock then presented ESDA Leo S. Cade who cautioned the delegates on city laws. Province Zeta Archon Roy L. Miller was announced as the convention's sergeant-at-arms. ESA Hathcock then introduced Earl Foster as general chairman who praised the co-operation of the Oklahoma City Alumni Association. ESR Rex Smith then called the first official roll. George Kallusky of California Delta led the convention in song. ESA Hathcock then gave his report, stating "Because Oklahoma is a great ΣAE state, it deserves the honor of hosting a National Convention." In referring to the strength of ΣAE , he strongly recommended a fourth visitation officer to be employed. ESR Smith then announced committee appointments.

The Monday morning session, September 2, started with the invocation being given by Phil Bernhart of W. Va. Alpha. The first order of business was the presentation of the Credentials Committee report by Charles Motley, Archon of Province Gamma. Past ESA Lauren Foreman then gave the report of Committee on Rules and Order of Business. Leo S. Cade then gave his report as ESDA, Howard P. Falls as ESW, Arthur L. Beck as ESH and Glen T. Nygreen as ESCh., who gave a detailed account of the Leadership School as director. This was followed by the report of ESR Rex Smith. Following his report in which he listed prominent deceased members since the 1955 Convention, ESA Hathcock called for a moment of silent prayer.

Scholarship Commissioner Report

Scholarship Commissioner Ray Dein then gave his report to the Convention. He said in part: "High scholastic attainments can be achieved if some real effort is put on the job. Figures indicate that in some parts of the country our fraternity system is not living up to its possibilities or its challenges scholastically. I should like to remind you that improved scholarship for our individual members is much more than a matter of pride to the fraternity system. We are literally failing our own members if we do not set up as a desirable precept of full fraternity membership the goal of acceptable scholastic attainment."

ESR Smith then gave a report as Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Levere Memorial Foundation. This included a report of Park W. Stickney, N. H. Alpha '08 (Dartmouth), as chairman of the Levere Memorial Temple Building Committee, the Sustaining Fund, Special Scholarship Fund, Student Loan Fund, Lt. Fred E. Hummel, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund and the Advisory Council.

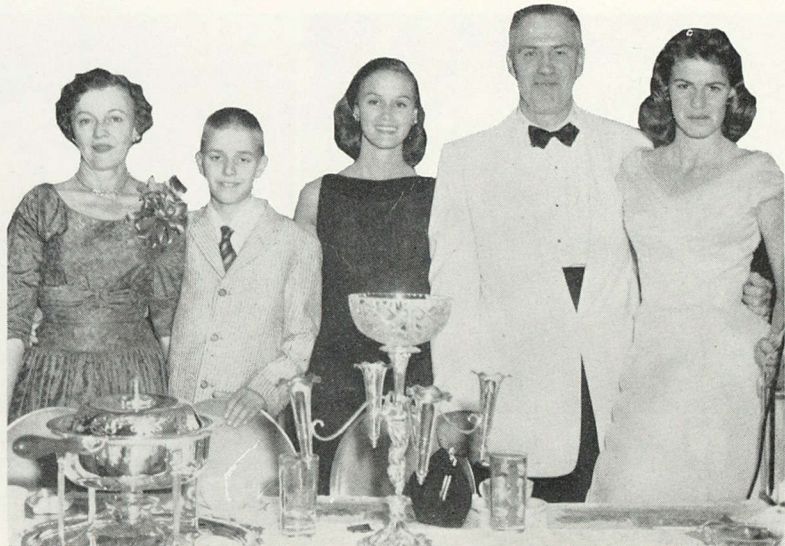

Prior to the Convention photograph at the Monday afternoon session, ESA Hathcock introduced Past ESAs J. Washington Moore, Marvin E. Holderness, Lauren Foreman, Charles F. Collins, G. A. Ginter, Emmett B. Moore, Robert R. Aurner, Cobb C. Torrance. Counsel Norman H. Pritchard then suggested that the report of the Permanent Committee on the National Laws be turned over to the Committee on National Laws. Past ESA Emmett B. Moore read the report on the Permanent Extension Investigation Committee in the absence of Past ESA Fred H. Turner, chairman, in which was given the committee's list of approved institutions for possible Chapters. Past ESA gave a report on the progress on his history writing as Archivist since August, 1955, having brought the history up to 1947. The report on the Committee on the Convention Fund was given by Province Lambda Archon Ray L. Harbert, chairman.

Vice President Hal Pope of the Board of Trustees gave the report on the Board of Trustees in the absence of Charles M. Carpenter, Mich. Alpha '17 (Adrian), president, who was confined to his home due to illness. It was pointed out that processing of mortgage loans had been transferred to the National Office in Evanston.

The Committee on Time and Place was reported on by Province Sigma Archon Ralph Carlin, chairman, recommending that the 1959 Convention be held in Chicago and that the time be set by the Supreme Council. ESA Hathcock then introduced Past ESA Walter B. Jones who was absent from the photograph. Mr. Hathcock asked Past ESA G. A. Ginter to say a few words to the Convention. Past ESA Lauren Formen referred to Mr. Ginter as one of God's noblemen and one of the most loyal and grandest $\Sigma A E s$. A letter from Bishop Iving Lee Holt, Tenn. Nu '04 (Vanderbilt), on world tour at the time of the Convention was read by a life-long friend who initiated him, Past ESA Marvin E. Holderness. ESA Hathcock presented Honorary ESA Paul A. Walker to the Convention, prior to the adjournment of the Monday afternoon session.

Turner Lashlee of Tenn. Kappa gave the invocation at the opening session on Tuesday morning, September 3. Telegrams were read from Grady Sellards, former Archon of Province Iota, and Daryl K. Troxford, director of fraternity affairs at Oklahoma State University. ESA Hathcock called on Past ESA Robert R. Aurner for his words of wisdom. Committee reports were given on the Levere Memorial Foundation by Province Chi Archon Calvin D. Smalley; Reinstatements by Province Phi Archon Jack Griffiths; Province Redistricting by Province Upsilon Archon Gene Donohue, recommending the division of Province Zeta and the Supreme Council appointing committees to investigate the division of Provinces Alpha and Epsilon for report at the 1959 Convention; the Ritual by Past ESA Walter B. Jones; Extension by Past ESA Emmett B. Moore, recommending that charters be granted to Simpson College, Ripon College and Evansville College.

Past ESA Chester D. Lee was introduced by ESA Hathcock at the beginning of the Tuesday afternoon session. Charters having been granted to the three local fraternities, the delegations were escorted into the Convention hall. Province Phi Archon Jack Griffiths then gave a report on the John O. Moseley Memorial Committee. It was reported that the memorial costs will amount to $5,300.00 and that $5,174.91 had been contributed.

ESA Hathcock called upon Scholarship Commissioner Ray Dein for the report of the Scholarship Committee. He reported that California Alpha was winner of the Washington, D. C., Alumni Association trophy for the highest percentile total for the biennium; honorable mention for consistent high percentile ratings each year of the biennium went to Indiana Gamma, Kentucky Epsilon and South Carolina Phi; well-deserved recognition for consistent high standing during the biennium went to Montana Beta, Georgia Psi and California Epsilon; for scholarship improvement during the biennium, academic year 1954-55, North Dakota Beta, for 1955-56, Colorado Chi, for scholastic excellence for a single year as recognized by the Leadership School, Indiana Gamma for 1954-55 and Kentucky Epsilon, 1955-56.

Province Eta Archon Steinhauer then gave the Finance Committee report in which he stated that a joint meeting of the National Laws Committee and the Finance Committee met for the purpose of better understanding of the flat fee proposal. The Finance Committee recommended that an increase in the budget of $30,000.00 per year should suffice to cover essential items requested in the 1957-59 budget. The committee then recommended the increase in dues as heretofore mentioned.

Resolutions Presented

Past ESA Collins gave a report on the Resolutions Committee, reporting that telegrams had been sent to Past ESAs Albert M. Austin and Fred H. Turner and Board of Trustees President Charles M. Carpenter. A telegram was read from Mrs. Alfred K. Nippert, widow of Alfred K. Nippert, Ohio Epsilon '94 (Cincinnati), Past ESA.

The Committee on The Alumni Program report was given by Province Epsilon Archon Robert Cousins, expressing appreciation for the work of Arthur L. Beck, ESH, and his leadership in the program for alumni associations. The report on the Committee of the State of the Order was given by Province Iota Archon Bob van Blaricom.

ESCh. Glen Nygreen gave a preliminary report on the National Laws Committee as chairman, prior to the final presentation planned for the following day in order that delegates could study the various problems. Election of officers followed as formerly presented.

Banquet in Hollywood Style

The Convention banquet was held in the beautifully decorated Persian Room of the Skirvin Tower, Tuesday evening, September 3. Under "Hollywood" spotlights, dignitaries were introduced by Edward Moses Frye, Okla. Kappa '41, (Oklahoma) Oklahoma City, from the banquet hall wing as they entered and took their places at the top tier of the speakers tables. In order of appearance were:

Marie Moseley, widow of John O. Moseley, Past ESA and ESR; G. L. Cross, president of the University of Oklahoma; new ESH Glen T. Nygreen; Mrs. Gurnett (Helen C.) Steinhauer; new ESW Arthur L. Beck; Mrs. Howard P. (Novella) Falls; Retiring Honorary

The lights were then dimmed and a spotlight placed on Indian Chief Baptiste B. ("Bat") Shunatona, Sr., Okla. Kappa '27 (Oklahoma), of Wewoka, Okla., and MC Frye announced from the Persian Room wing: "Chief Bat Shunatona of the Otoe, Missouri, Tribe has come this September night to honor a brother of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, who has served the order of Minerva across this great nation since 1891. General J. Washington Moore, and your daughter, Mrs. Frances Moore Rand, please remain standing before Chief Shunatona, brother of Sigma Alpha Epsilon from Oklahoma Kappa, and representative Chief of the Otoe Indian tribe."

Chief Shunatona: "By the authority vested in me by Otoe, Mo. Indian tribe, I welcome you, General Moore, as honorary chief. Your name is Wah-Ga-So-Say, which means, 'Chief Mr. Good Man' . . . It is the Indian's way of saying, 'Gentleman.' Brothers, may our eyes ever behold the purple and gold of Sigma Alpha Epsilon . . . For you, our friend and brother, General Moore . . . may good fortune always be yours." ESA Hathcock then presented Bat Shunatona as a member of $\Sigma A E$.

After presenting Mrs. Douglas, house mother of Oklahoma Kappa and Katherine ("Mom") Woods, of Oklahoma Mu, just completing 33 years, the longest record in $\Sigma A E$ history for a house mother, by retiring ESA Hathcock, Scholarship Commissioner Ray Dein made the scholarship awards to California Alpha, North Dakota Beta and Colorado Chi. He recognized the Chester D. Lee Award of Province Zeta for

Neil H. McElroy, Mass. Gamma '25

Procter and Gamble President Becomes U.S. Secretary of Defense

Born in 1904 in Berea, Ohio, he was married to Miss Mary Camilla Fry in 1929. They have three children, Nancy Sue, Barbara Ellen and Malcolm Neil, residing in Hyde Park. In addition to his responsibilities as P&G's chief operating executive, Mr. McElroy was a director of the General Electric Company and a director of the Chrysler Corporation.

McElroy has served as a trustee of the National Fund for Medical Education, a director of the Council for Financial Aid to Education, a member of the Business Advisory Council—U. S. Department of Commerce and vice chairman of the United Community Campaigns of America. He is a former chairman of the National Industrial Conference Board, a former member of the Board of Overseers of Harvard University and is a past president of the Association of Soap and Glycerine Producers and the Associated Harvard Club.

In Cincinnati he was a trustee of the Institute of Fine Arts, chairman of the Advisory Committee of the College of Medicine of the University of Cincinnati, vice chairman of the Board of Trustees, Cincinnati and Hamilton County Community Chest, and a member of the executive committee of the Citizens Development Committee and the Summer Opera Association.

McElroy has honorary degrees from Miami University, 1952; Kenyon College, 1955; Baldwin-Wallace, 1955; Xavier University, 1956; University of Cincinnati, 1956, and Bradley University in 1956.

While at Harvard McElroy served as Eminent Archon of Massachusetts Gamma in his senior year. He contributes annually to the Chapter endowment fund and is a loyal supporter of the Chapter. His brother, Paul Kinney McElroy, Mass. Gamma '20, is president of the house corporation, and has two sons, Paul T. McElroy, Mass. Gamma '53, and Lowell R. McElroy, Mass. Gamma '58. Another brother is Malcolm Lowell McElroy, Mass. Gamma '23.

Fraternity Brothers meet in Washington: Neil H. McElroy, Mass. Gamma '25 (Harvard), president of Procter & Gamble of Cincinnati, Ohio, and U.S. Senator Richard B. Russell, Jr., Ga. Beta '18 (Georgia). Senator Russell was serving as Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee on August 15 when McElroy was before the committee for a public hearing on his nomination as Secretary of Defense. Prompt approval of the soap firm president was indicated at that time.

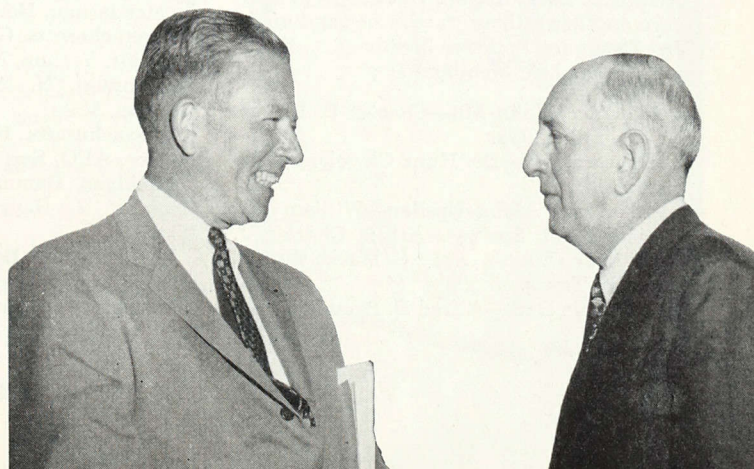

ACCEPTING appointment to probably the most responsible governmental position outside the Presidency of the United States and resigning as head of one of the country's top soap companies was the August action of a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Neil H. McElroy, Mass. Gamma '25 (Harvard), who was named U. S. Secretary of Defense by President Eisenhower and confirmed by the Senate, and who left his job as President of Procter & Gamble of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. McElroy who zoomed to the Procter & Gamble presidency in 23 years after joining P&G's Advertising Department in 1925, began a tour of certain continental military installations, prior to taking office as Secretary of Defense in Washington. Shortly after he moved to Washington he was named ΣAE's Honorary Eminent Supreme Archon at the 101st Anniversary National Convention in Oklahoma City, Okla., September 3, 1957.

To greet him in Washington was Senator Richard B. Russell, Jr., Ga. Beta '18 (Georgia), who was chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee when McElroy went before the group for a public hearing on his nomination on August 15. Senator Russell was TIME Magazine cover man on August 12, concerning the civil rights bill.

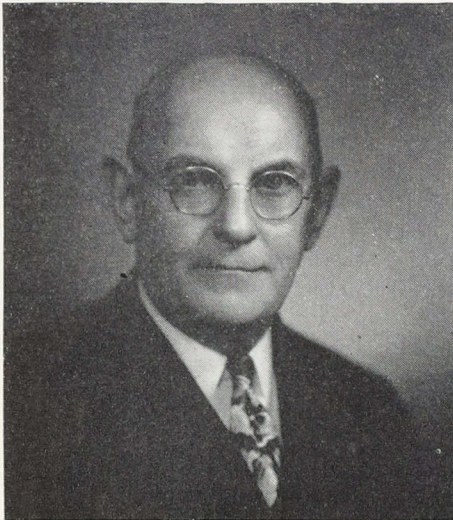

Leader In Activities

As president of Procter & Gamble, McElroy directed the varied activities of a large diversified company, but he also found time for a substantial number of local and national civic activities. In 1955 he devoted much of his time to the many responsibilities as Chairman of the White House Conference on Education. After joining P&G in 1925, his year of graduation with an A.B. degree from Harvard, he held positions of Promotion department manager and advertising and promotion manager, and in 1943 was made a director and vice president in charge of advertising.

THE NATION'S RECORD

Caffery on Special Missions

☛ Jefferson Caffery, La. Tau-Upsilon '06 (Tulane), record holding diplomat in length of service, has retired as ambassador after 29 years of foreign duty and 44 years of governmental work, but he has been on special assignments from Washington. In September he was located at the American Embassy in Rome, Italy. During 1956-57 he acted as representative of the special Senate Committee to study Foreign Aid Programs in Italy, France, Spain, Portugal and Great Britain. He was on a mission to Karachi as personal representative of President Eisenhower for the inauguration of the first president of the Pakistan Republic and of the Pakistan Republic. Caffery started his diplomatic career when he went to Bucharest as consular in 1924. He was consul in Cuba, Costa Rica and Canada. He became assistant secretary of state and then ambassador to Cuba and Brazil. He became ambassador to France in 1944, during World War II, and ambassador to Egypt in 1949, where he witnessed the construction of a magnificent embassy.

Oklahoma City New President

☛ In July Dr. Jack (Frank S.) Wilkes, La. Epsilon '39 (La. State), Texas Delta (SMU), took over his duties as president of Oklahoma City University. He took the position of Dr. C. Q. Smith, former president, who became chancellor of the Methodist school. Dr. Wilkes was featured on the front page of the Daily Oklahoman in June, showing him studying yearbooks and educational encyclopedias in preparation for his new job.

Dartmouth Award to Adams

☛ At a special ceremony in September Sherman Adams, N.H. Alpha '20 (Dartmouth), was among 17 distinguished graduates to receive awards at Dartmouth College, Hanover, N.H. The group was selected on the basis of "Success in professional life, service to the nation and service to Dartmouth."

Chairman of Holding Company

☛ Avery Brundage, Ill. Beta '09 (Illinois), long-time head of the American Olympic Committee, has been elected chairman of the Susquehanna Corporation of Chicago, holding company of the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Railway. He succeeded R. A. L. Bogan who resigned early in September.

Leaves Africa for Firestone

☛ Walter D. Waugh, Ohio Delta '25 (Ohio Wesleyan), is president of Firestone International in Akron, Ohio, after spending 20 years in Africa, first as comptroller at Firestone Tire & Rubber Company's Port Elizabeth, South Africa plant, and from 1942, as managing director. In Akron he directs the company's vast foreign operations which include 17 rubber and textile factories. Plants are located in Canada, England, New Zealand, South Africa, India, Venezuela, Argentina, Spain, Switzerland, Brazil, Sweden and Germany, and under construction in Cuba and the Philippines. Mr. Waugh entered one of Firestone's early college training classes in 1926. James C. Roberts, Ohio Delta '23, is director of rubber purchases for Firestone in Akron. He is a Trustee of Ohio Wesleyan. His father was the late James Crawford Roberts, Ohio Delta '92, and his son is Dr. James C. Roberts, Jr., who is an interne in Akron City Hospital. Mr. Roberts' brother is Eugene A. Roberts, '24, of Hamden, Conn.

Heads FBI in Chicago

☛ Richard D. Auerbach, N.H. Beta '33 (New Hampshire), now heads the Chicago office of the Federal Investigation Bureau after serving in Seattle, Wash. He switched commands with Donald S. Hosteller who had served as agent in Chicago since 1954. The move was made on September 15. The Chicago office is one of the largest FBI units with several hundred employees.

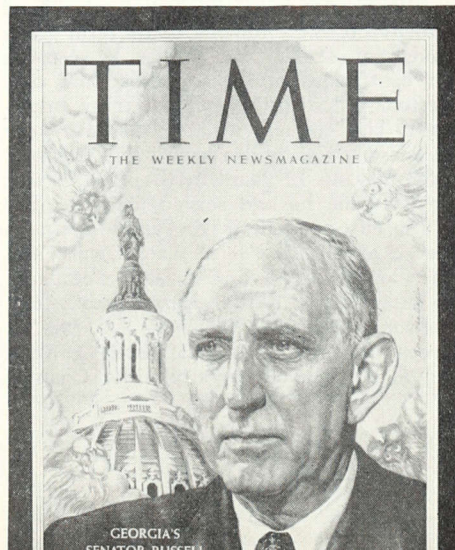

Directs Georgia Health Unit

☛ Dr. Trawick H. Stubbs, Ga. Epsilon '35 (Emory), former assistant director of the Rhode Island Department of Social Welfare and previously a member of the medical faculty of Emory University, has been appointed director of the mental hygiene division of the Georgia Department of Public Health. His work will include development of an intensive program for the treatment of the mentally ill through the general hospitals of the state. Thomas Receives AKPsi Award

Dr. Herman Pollard Thomas, Va. Tau '17 (Richmond), acting dean of the School of Business Administration at the University of Richmond, received the Alpha Kappa Psi Faculty Award recently was completion of 30 years of faithful service to the college and students. Delta Zeta

Chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional fraternity in commerce and business, awarded the certificate to Dr. Thomas at a banquet in the refectory. He also received a leather briefcase and desk pen set. Dr. Thomas was surprised to find his own face staring out at him when he opened the 1957 Web, university yearbook. In its dedicatory message the Web saluted an economist who teaches his students that money "is not nearly so important as a good life." A new Honor Society for seniors in the School of Business Administration called Alpha Society was authorized by the faculty and was organized by Dr. Thomas.

Cited for Industry—Kenan

William Rand Kenan, Jr., N.C. Xi '94 (North Carolina), of Lockport, N.Y., was one of 12 leaders in various fields to receive citations for distinguished contributions to business and community life from the University of Buffalo. The citations were presented in connection with ceremonies marking the dedication of the Tower Dormitory as a part of Education Day activities of the World Port Celebration in September. Mr. Kenan, a Founder of the National Endowment Fund of Σ AE and long-time benefactor of the Leadership School, was cited for industrial civic affairs. The citation read in part: "His career symbolizes the spirit of America. From young manhood, when he assisted in the laboratory discovery of calcium carbide, which has revolutionized industrial processes, he has been a creative builder. He has contributed his constructive talents to many enterprises in the fields of chemistry, power, railways, finance and scientific farming. He has traveled the globe and his native land to create industry through chemistry and electricity. He has made a vast contribution to the growth of the Niagara Frontier and to a large section of the State of Florida..." Mr. Kenan was featured in the Buffalo Evening News, October 5, 1957, with the headlines, "Fabled Lockport Millionaire Still Works Hard at 85." Beneath his photograph were the lines: "William Rand Kenan, Jr., 85, and a millionaire, but he's at work every morning at 7 o'clock."

He Brought Home a Princess—Happy in Texas

Clyde K. Harris, Okla. Kappa '40 (Oklahoma), was appropriately featured in the Saturday Evening Post, September 21, with the article title "I Brought Home a Princess—A former G.I. tells how he courted and won the royal daughter of one of the world's ancient ruling houses, and turned her into a Texas housewife."

This was the story of Harris' marriage and life with the granddaughter of the last German emperor, Kaiser Wilhelm, II, who, "at the time of my childhood, was hated by more Americans than probably any other man on earth," as told to Author Lewis Nordyke by Harris for the Post.

Harris, who is the brother of Robert ("Bob") Harris, Okla. Kappa '45, of Oklahoma City, hotel reservations Chairman for ΣAE 's 101st Anniversary National Convention in September, married Princess Cecelia Victoria Anastasia Zita Thyra Adelheid of Prussia eight years ago. She was of the House of Hohenzollern. Her ancestry traces back through Queen Victoria, Catherine the Great, Mary Queen of Scots, to name some familiar ones. She is a cousin of Queen Elizabeth of the British Empire. Her father was Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm of Germany.

Married in Castle

Cecelia and Harris were married in the ancient Hohenzollern castle near Hechingen, Germany. After a brief honeymoon, the newlyweds said goodbye. Red tape held up Cecelia's entry into the U.S. for four months. She got cold feet, but her father told her she must join her husband. They set up housekeeping in a four-room apartment in Amarillo, Texas, and Cecelia soon become accustomed to American life and likes it. The Harrises now live in an attractive house with their daughter, Kira, born in 1954. Harris has his own interior decorating business in Amarillo.

In the Post article he stated: "I worked my way through the University of Oklahoma as dishwasher and table hop at my fraternity house, the Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Despite my menial tasks, I was elected president of the fraternity for my senior year—1939. The point is that in my background it didn't matter whether a person was a dishwasher or an oil millionaire. Our heritage by birth was birth in America."

Fla. Alpha Leadership School

Florida Alpha at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, began its new semester with a pre-rush leadership school. The idea was taken from the annual Leadership School at the Levere Memorial Temple in Evanston, Ill., with emphasis on fall rushing. The Chapter was faced with a new situation, the near completion of a $106,000.00 Chapter house, and it was imperative to instruct the members in an entirely new method of rushing. Chapter scholarship, finances, intramurals, social program and utilization of the new house were topics. An inspiring talk was given by Foster alter, Pa. Omega '31 (Allegheny), former Florida dean, ΣAE Scholarship Commissioner and one of the Chapter's founders. His topic was "The History of Florida Alpha." The Chapter was fortunate in having Alter, Holmes Braddock, former Leadership School instructor; James L. Deen, architect, and Albert E. Harum, Florida instructor of English. The university gave full support and it was attended by Dean Nobel Hendricks and Parker Enright, interfraternity adviser.

Wins Panhel Cup 4th Time

Louisiana Tau-Upsilon at Tulane University, New Orleans, has won the Panhellenic trophy on the campus for the fourth straight time, thus setting a record in Tulane fraternity history. The trophy is awarded annually to the outstanding social fraternity as determined by scholarship, intramural athletics and planned activities. Recently the second floor of the Chapter house was remodeled. The renovation of the housing facilities was planned with an eye to the future by the Chapter's budding architects. Reported by Sam Williamson, publicity chairman.

Mich. Alpha in New Home

For the first time in its 70-year history Michigan Alpha at Adrian College is residing in the Chapter's own home. In September the Chapter, Michigan's oldest and the third oldest north of the Mason-Dixon Line, occupied a newly acquired house. Despite its comparatively small alumni list, the Chapter has been able to collect $35,000. Only a few thousand are needed to complete the furnishing of the house. Heading the drive for the home is Ed Pellowe of Adrian College and former ΣAE traveling secretary.

Va. Sigma Top Posts

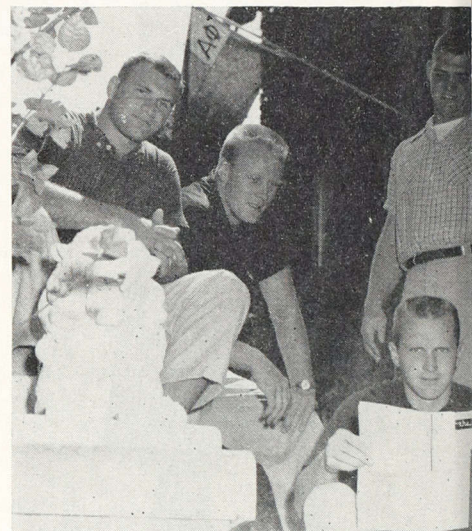

Virginia Sigma at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, completed the year with several top posts on the campus. Rob Peebles served as president of the student body and was named to Omicron Delta Kappa and "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Gil Holland served as president of the junior class and was elected vice-president of the student body for this fall. Bill Roberts was named president of the publications board. He had served as manager of the campus yearbook and will be business manager this fall. Last February the Chapter initiated its largest pledge class. Of the 21 initiates, three were selected for Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary scholastic fraternity. Jim Duckett was elected as the outstanding freshman on the campus. Later he was named vice-president of the sophomore class. Jim Davis and Rob Peebles were battalion commanders in the ROTC. In a questionnaire of coeds of Randolph-Macon Woman's College ΣAE was selected as the fraternity most desirable for affiliation. Reported by Peter Lee, '60, EC.

Gets Rotary Fellowship

Walter W. Flowers, Ala. Mu '55 (Alabama), of Tuscaloosa, Ala., has been awarded a Rotary Foundation Fellowship for advanced study abroad for 1957. One of the 130 outstanding college graduates from 31 countries to receive grants this year from Rotary International, he will study government, economics and political science in preparation for a career in law and politics at the University of London. The Rotary Club of Tuscaloosa recommended him for the Fellowship.

WITH WASHINGTON SENATORS: Raphael A. ("Lefty") Lument, Mass. Kappa '58 (Massachusetts), of Milford, Mass., who has signed a bonus contract with the Washington Senators of the American Baseball League. He is reported to be only the third bonus baby ever to join the Washington Club. He is a junior and living at the Chapter house, commuting on weekends through the baseball season. Last spring he became the first twirler to accomplish a no-hitter in modern baseball annals of the university. He struck out 18 men against Rhode Island last April. With Lument lost to intercollegiate athletics, Joseph V. Spadafara, Jr., '58, captain-elect of the 1958 team, and George J. P. McCafferty, '58, EA, remain as the last of the ALL Σ AE infield of two seasons ago.

Arizona Alpha at the University of Arizona, Tucson: TOP, Carl Thomas, two-time All-American baseball pitcher, receiving the "Outstanding Male Athlete" award from Skip Corley, Bobcat president; Warren Ridge, outstanding varsity basketballer and vice president of the student body; Dick Rezzonico, receiving award for being the outstanding sophomore man; BELOW, Chapter took first place in the men's division of the annual Varsity Show with a flashback to "Songs of the West;" members of the intramural cross-country championship team, showing, SEATED, Tom Terry and Bob Mitten, and KNEELING, Gary Johnson, Lynn Hornbrook and Ed Coyle (missing from the picture was winner of the race, Emerson Clark). Another second place was taken in bowling and two of the top three average men for the season. Ted Raymond finished with a 106 average to top the candlepin league and Ray Flynn was third with a standing of 102. John ("Stoney") Palmer wrote and directed the first prize winning skit with the theme "The late late show at the Amherst theater," done in pantomime. The Chapter took first place in intramural softball, coached by Clare Kennedy. Athletics were especially well handled by Larry Murray as director.—Reported by Leonard Belli, E.C.

Ohio Delta "Athlete of Week"

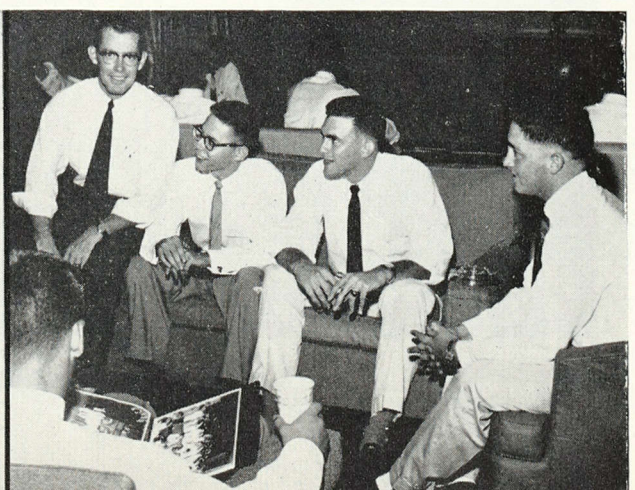

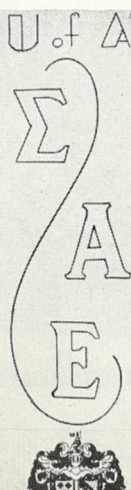

Doug Schmidt of Ohio Delta at Ohio Wesleyan University, a junior quarterback on the Battling Bishops football team, recently was named "Athlete of the Week" following his stand-out performance in the game against Mount Union College. In the first game of the season Schmidt lead the team in total offense with 73 yards. Over 50 yards were accounted for by two touch-

Mass. Kappa Takes IFC Cup

Massachusetts Kappa at the University of Massachusetts was singled out for high honors when the Chapter was awarded the annual interfraternity council trophy for 1956-57. The Chapter had 60 out of a possible 100 points. In the fall it placed second in intramural football with 12 wins and two losses. At homecoming the Chapter

Mo. Beta Ranks on Campus

During the past year Missouri Beta at Washington University, St. Louis, swept the campus with honors in most fields. Taking three seconds and three firsts in intramurals, holding presidencies of six organizations, the Chapter added further to its laurels by an extensive service project, winning the pledge basketball tournament for the third straight year, taking the quartet sing and winning the homecoming house decorations. Twenty members were in scholastic honoraries. In the first annual

Missouri Beta-Missouri Alpha basketball games, Missouri Beta won 56- to 51. Melvin Dace won the Paducah Open golf tournament and placed second in the Charleston Open. He is a past junior champion in Missouri.—Reported by Don Rockwell, EC

New addition to Kansas Beta Chapter house at Kansas State College, Manhattan: Surveying the $80,000 addition built during the summer is David C. Smith, '58, EDA. The addition enlarges the capacity of the house from 67 to 90 men. On the first floor of the new wing are an enlarged dining room, a kitchen double in size to the former one, and larger housemother quarters. The second floor and third floor consist of three study rooms and a bath for each. In the basement are two more study rooms. Added to the south part of the house is a new dorm. The house was built in 1938 at a cost of $60,000. To be added are a parking lot and driveway.

"YOUR TICKET TO LEADERSHIP" IS THE THEME OF 23rd ANNUAL LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

By DON GABLE, Editor

James B. Puryear, Mississippi Theta
DIRECTOR GLEN T. NYGREEN

DESPITE a limited attendance, Sigma Alpha Epsilon's 23rd annual Leadership School got off to an enthusiastic start late Sunday afternoon, August 18, in the Levere Memorial Temple in Evanston, Ill.

Following registration at Sargent Hall on the Northwestern campus and listening to the recording of the Centennial broadcast of 1956 in the Chapel of the Temple, 97 Chapter representatives, alumni and guests gathered for a songfest and supper in the Nippert Room with the music of Leo Terry, who completed his 20th year as School organist and entertainer. Registration was under the guidance of Ted Baker, national treasurer, Miss Norma Coon and Mrs. Florence Bertalot of the National Office staff at Sargent Hall, and Albert J. Schoth, Chapter Supervisor, and Miss Ruth O'Malley at the Temple. John H. Baugh, Jr., Chapter Supervisor, was in charge of room assignment.

Presiding at the opening dinner was Dr. Glenn T. Nygreen, ESCh., dean of men at Kent State University, Ohio. He introduced the guests and faculty as follows: Lauren Foreman, Past ESA, ESR and Archivist; Harry Ackerburg, Ill. Psi-Omega '14 (Northwestern), past president of the Chicago Alumni Association and in charge of ΣAE's All-American football selections; Arthur H. Knox, architect of the Levere Memorial Temple; Edwin O. Blomquist of the Advisory Council; Fred Trieze, Mich. Gamma '15 (Mich. State), dean of the college of education and engineering on the Chicago campus of the University of Illinois, who stated that education is the ability to get along with people and don't let studies interfere with education.

Dick Howell, Ga. Epsilon '37 (Emory), of the American Library Association in Chicago; Norman H. Pritchard, ΣAE counsel; members of the faculty, National Treasurer Ted Baker, Chapter Supervisor John Baugh, Don Bushell of Washington Alpha, Jay Beck of Ohio

Mu, Bill Chapman of Oklahoma Kappa and of the Oklahoma City Convention Planning Committee, J. D. James of Illinois Beta, Editor of THE RECORD Don Gable, Chapter Supervisor Merlyn Jones, Jim Joy of Iowa Beta, George Kallusky of California Delta and song leader, Peter Steinhauer of Colorado Chi, Joe Walt of Tennessee Kappa and former traveling secretary, Eminent Supreme Recorder Rex A. Smith, Chapter Supervisor Schoth, and Duane Kraft of North Dakota Alpha, visitor. An alumnus who visited the school but could not attend the dinner was John Mock, former president of the Chicago Alumni Association.

A memorial service was held in the Temple Chapel following the dinner under the direction of Dr. Nygreen. Song leader was George Kallusky. Taking part in the prayers were Lynn Hornbrook of Arizona Alpha, Charles M. Mulliner of Colorado Zeta, Jack Watson of Tennessee Nu, Don Terry of Georgia Beta, John Peyton of Washington Alpha, who gave the roll call of the Chapter Eternal. Tributes were paid to William W. Paddock, Archon of Province Alpha, by Harvey Denison of Massachusetts Iota-Tau; Tom Johnson, Fla. Alpha '57 (Florida), by Leonard R. Kurfirst of Florida Gamma; Mrs. Marie Stiehm of the National Office staff by Chapter Supervisor Baugh. Others participating were Allen L. Dougherty of Illinois Beta, Jim Claypool of Kentucky Kappa, Bill Shannon of Pennsylvania Phi, Jay Cavanaugh of New York Alpha, Scott Strode of Washington Gamma, Fred Brand of Wisconsin Alpha, Roger Farnsworth of Ohio Delta and Curtis Johnson of North Dakota Beta.

Activity groups were organized following the memorial service. This included initiation with Jack Beck, Bill Chapman and Pete Steinhauer; Chapter singing with George Kallusky and Don Bushell; pledge training with John Baugh and Jim Joy; administration with Joe Walt and Jim James; fraternal hospitality with Merlyn Jones, and THE HUSTLER, School newspaper, with Editor Gable who selected Allen Dougherty of Illinois Beta and David Baer of Texas Epsilon as co-editors.

The Monday morning program started with "Your Ticket to Leadership" theme from a printed program resembling a railroad ticket that folded like an accordion and designed by Editor Gable. Following roll call for 79 Chapter representatives by Baugh and Kallusky, the group heard ESR Rex Smith present his first official talk on the Levere Memorial Temple and the work of the Building Committee. He gave the history of the Temple's origin and its development. A formal pledging ceremony was led by Jay Beck and J. D. James. Follow-

Monday evening the first sectional conferences were held. Finances were handled by Al Scoth and Ted Baker; Chapter administration by John Baugh and Bill Chapman; rushing by Joe Walt and Pete Steinhauer; pledge training by Don Bushnell and J. D. James; public relations by Merlyn Jones and Jim Joy. On Tuesday morning the sectional conferences were repeated.

The highlight Tuesday morning was "Words from the Deans." Introduced by Director Nygreen, the speaker was Clarence E. Deakins, Ill. Delta '23 (Millikin), dean of students at Illinois Institute of Technology of Chicago, whose subject was: "The Fraternity—An Integral Part of the Educational Program." He quoted from Loren Hickerson of Pi Kappa Alpha: "The role of the college fraternity is to stimulate the best in the undergraduate men who belong to it. The responsibility of the college fraternity is to help its parent institution to turn out the most able men who have ever had degrees in higher education in America."

Dean Deakins stated: "You men who are here today represent the leadership of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. What a responsibility you carry. You hold the future lives of the men in your Chapter in your hands. In the years ahead our college campuses will be crowded with students. There will be no room for the lazy, the uninterested or the play boy. Our nation needs all of the trained brain-power it can develop.

"The colleges cannot be derelict in their duty to society in providing this brain-power. There will, therefore, be no room on the college campus of the future for organizations or activities that put roadblocks in the way of the accomplishments of this goal. Fraternities have the opportunity to become partners in this great enterprise of education, I challenge you, as undergraduate leaders, to accept the opportunity which lies ahead."

The Tuesday morning session closed with songs led by Director Kallusky and a "Happy Birthday" applause for ESR Smith. That afternoon Archivist Lauren Foreman gave his famous talk on "The History of $\Sigma A E$." This was followed by a general discussion of "Alumni Relations—How Do We Build Support," under the leadership of Bill Hovan, Ill. Psi-Omega, Chapter adviser.

Leadership—The Ideal

After sectional conferences Wednesday morning, a feature in the Chapel was "Leadership—the $\Sigma A E$ Ideal," under the capable leadership of Director Nygreen. That afternoon a conference on the initiation ceremony was held in the Panhellenic Room with Nygreen in charge and assisted by Jay Beck. Various Chapter members expressed their means of conducting certain parts of the Ritual.

Late Wednesday afternoon a pilgrimage was formed by auto to the graves of William C. Levere, ESA and ESR, and Dr. John O. Moseley, ESA and ESR, in Memorial Park Cemetery. Song leader was George Kallusky. Prayers were given by Buck Moore of Mississippi Gamma, Bob Hale of Tennessee Nu and Bryan Ericson of Nebraska Lambda-Pi. Archivist Lauren Foreman gave the memorial for Levere and Director Nygreen for Moseley. Wreaths were placed for Levere by Scott Strode of Washington Gamma, Patrick Shelly of Arizona Alpha, Dale Douglass of Florida Gamma and Jim Russell of New York Alpha, and for Moseley, Mike McGowan of Oklahoma Kappa, Rann Vaultx of Tennessee Zeta, Franklin E. Hollands of N.D. Beta and Tom Little of Illinois Psi-Omega. Mike DiMarko sang "Longing" and the ceremony ended with "Friends" from the octet led by Kallusky. After an open activity night, sectional conferences were again held on Thursday morning.

Guest speaker Thursday morning was Warren T. Davis, Wis. Phi '22 (Beloit), president of United Educators, Inc., in Lake Bluff, Ill. Mr. Davis received a resounding applause for his talk on "Fraternity and Education." Said he: "There are three vital skills in leadership. Listen, evaluate and organize yourself; talk and know how to communicate and make yourself clear; write with richness and simplicity, and write what you think. This applies to your college days and will apply to the business or educational world. Applying this to the business world, getting ahead is that little extra effort."

Guests Thursday morning were Roy Clark, executive secretary, and Rod Pearson, traveling secretary of Acacia Fraternity, and Kenneth Oakley, ΣAE's auditor of Evanston. That afternoon ESR Smith led a conference on the National Laws and Chapter Policy, introduced by Don Bushell. Don Gable was later introduced by Bushell and as Editor of THE RECORD, gave a talk on Chapter publications and the national magazine. He showed samples of the various types of publications and listed qualifications for entering the publication contests at the National Convention.

Thursday afternoon Charles F. Collins, Past ESA and Acting Archon of Province Alpha, who had recently returned from a tour of Europe, arrived from Port Clyde, Maine. Thursday night Joe Walt led a discussion, assisted by Merlyn Jones and others, on floats, skits, signs, panned parties, etc. for the Chapters. This was the fourth general discussion session.

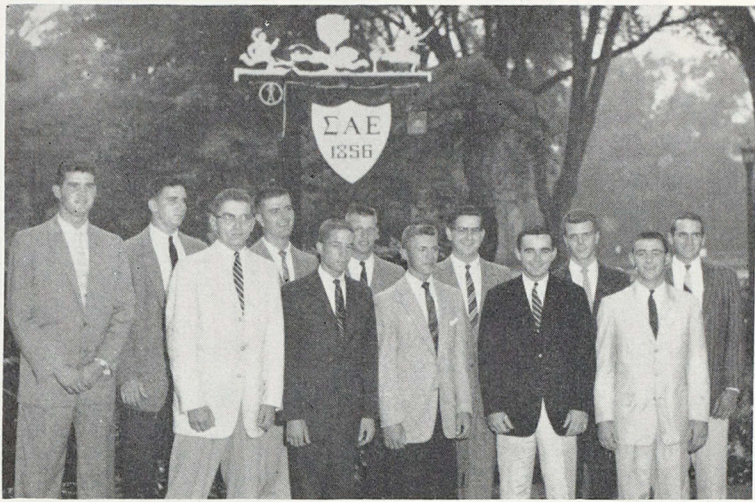

Awarding of the True Gentleman certificates was the highlight of the final day, Friday. Director Nygreen spoke on "The Faith of the Founders" and his inspiring message on the "Lasting Bond of Brothers" brought a resounding applause. Charles F. Collins, Past ESA and Acting Archon of Province Alpha, spoke on scholarship and finances. He stated: "In this upheaval period you are in an organization that has its feet on the ground."

In charge of general arrangements was Chapter Supervisor Schoth.

Organist Gives Praise

Despite steady showers at the time of the initiation, the farewell banquet at Sargent Hall was an enthusiastic affair with approximately 110 members including alumni. Following the welcome of the newly initiated men with their big brothers, Rev. Erskine Jefford, Temple Chaplain, led the group in prayer. Entertainment was provided by the quartet, octet and glee club under the direction of Song Leader Kallusky. Leo Terry was at the Hammond organ for his 20th year, and stated that he had never seen such a fine looking group of men in all of his years of playing before 100,000 people at least.

Glee Club and Quartet at Farewell Banquet

After Director Nygreen gave each new member a chance to express his feelings concerning the School and Ritual, a pledge scrap book was presented to John Baugh, pledge trainer, by Barclay Alan Boyd of Pennsylvania Delta. Director Nygreen then introduced the faculty again and gave praise to the various leaders of activity groups. He announced that the winner of the scholarship cup, Kentucky Epsilon, was not represented at the first session, as was the case with the John O. Moseley Zeal trophy winner. He could not reveal the winner of the Zeal trophy but introduced the runners-up, Oklahoma Kappa, Georgia Beta and Illinois Psi-Omega.

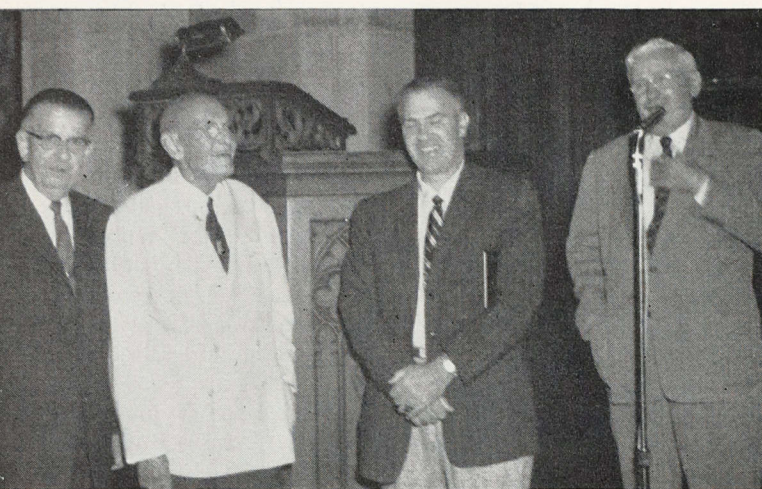

At the banquet head table were Director Nygreen, ESR Smith, Archivist Lauren Foreman, Chapter Supervisor Baugh, Don Bushnell and Kallusky. Alumni introduced were Edwin O. Blomquist of the Advisory Council; Arthur H. Knox, Temple Architect; John and "Gene" Mock of Indiana Alpha.

In the absence of Edward G. Hathcock, ESA, due to illness, the banquet farewell message was given by ESR Smith. Said he: "This is the greatest single effort we have—the Leadership School. We have tried to do everything to help you. We hope that we have put across what we want to and have tried to help you. Didn't we order perfect weather all week? Well, tonight we need a few raindrops to make the Violets grow!" The first session closed with the distribution of School Certificates by John Baugh.

SECOND SESSION

In complete contrast in enrollment, the second session of the 23rd Leadership School opened Sunday, August 25, with 290 representatives of Chapters and 310 persons being served at the welcoming dinner in the Nippert Room of the Temple.

Following registration at Willard Hall on the Northwestern campus, the Centennial broadcast recording was heard in the Chapel and a songfest was held, with Leo Terry at the organ. Introductions by Director Nygreen included Archivist Lauren Foreman, who was celebrating his sixth wedding anniversary; Chaplain Jeffords, who led the group in prayer; Glen E. French, president of the Chicago Alumni Association; Harry Ackerburg, past president of the Chicago Alumni Association and All-America authority; J. Frank Lindsey of the Besser-Lindsey Award; Edwin O. Blomquist of the Levere Memorial Temple Advisory Council; Park W. Stickney, chairman of the Levere Memorial Temple Building Committee; the first week's faculty adding Tom Piemme of Pennsylvania Chi-Omicron. Others introduced and saying a few words were ESR Smith and Past ESA Collins. Duane Kraft of North Dakota Alpha again was introduced as a visitor.

Director Nygreen announced that it was the largest group (310) to gather in the Nippert Room with an overflow of some 30 members in the ante-room for dinner. On hand was Edward G. Hathcock, ESA, who had recently recovered from an illness, and gave the welcoming address.

"You can get your 'Phi Alpha Juice' here," said ESA Hathcock. "In the leadership School, seek out the inspirational things in the Temple. Your staff is made up of humble men who want to help you. There are different kinds of leadership but we learn in ΣAE their importance of responsibility. We need a greater sense of responsibility. You must learn the different degrees of loyalty. Carry out your obligations for ΣAE ."

Following the second session welcoming dinner, a memorial service was held in the candle-lighted Chapel. Under the direction of Nygreen, prayers were given by James S. Donahoo of Alabama Iota, Leroy O. Banks of Colorado Zeta, Emmett Pace of North Carolina Nu, Thomas B. Pitcher of Florida Upsilon, John W. Adams of Kentucky Epsilon, Phillip E. Camp of Massachusetts Beta Upsilon, John K. Heilig, Jr. of Florida Alpha, John Baugh, Clem M. Doxey of Louisiana Epsilon, Terry Williams of Ohio Delta, Edward J. Lord of Montana Beta, Richard Skillman of New Mexico Tau, Kenneth E. Steppe of North Carolina Alpha, James E. Behling of Ohio Lambda, Eldon W. Younger of Oregon Alpha, and Thal Scott Cox of Tennessee Kappa. Memorial remarks were made by Director Nygreen and songs were led by George Kallusky.

Immediately after the memorial service Sunday night of the second session, activity groups were formed for the initiation, Chapter singing, pledge training, administration, fraternal hospitality, the founding playlet and

The Hustler. Co-editors of The Hustler named by Don Gable were George K. Walker of Alabama Mu and David W. McKain of Connecticut Beta. Staff members volunteering were David A. Eppard, Pennsylvania Gamma; Bill Shannon, Pennsylvania Phi; Richard C. Hopkins, Pennsylvania Chi Omicron; Allyn J. Schafter, Iowa Beta; Bill Schintzler, Massachusetts Delta; Bill Mitchell, Alabama Iota; Phil Camp, Massachusetts Beta Upsilon; Pledge Ron Schaming, Pennsylvania Chi-Omicron; John Barber of Tennessee Eta; Tim Balfour of Pennsylvania Omega; Jim Boyd of Indiana Gamma, and Chuck Stanley of Washington City Rho. Assistant photographers were Warren Merwin of California Kappa and Jerry Willis of Phi Alpha at Simpson College.

Large Group Gathers

Approximately 290 representatives appeared from 98 Chapters for roll call Monday morning. Following the formal pledging of eight neophytes, ESA Hathcock gave a beautiful talk on ΣAE Ideals and the Escutcheon. This talk was recorded on tape for Chapter use. The entire afternoon was devoted to scholarship discussion with the Chapters indicating the various methods for enforced study rules. Chapters low in scholarship were called upon to explain their position. That night sectional conferences were held. Added to the pledge training section was Tom Piemme, Recorder-Treasurer of Province Nu, of Pittsburgh.

Following sectional conferences on Tuesday morning, guest speaker was William S. Zerman, Phi Gamma Delta, dean of men at Ohio Wesleyan University, and former traveling secretary for the Phi Gams. He called strong attention to the rising tide of enrollment in colleges and universities. Said he: "As leaders in your college communities and in communities after you leave school you will be more and more concerned at increased enrollment. Millions of dollars are going into dormitories and other student buildings, but what about actual education? How will this affect the four-year college and the junior college? Statistics show that not enough people are going into educational fields.

"And how do fraternity organizations fit into this picture?" Dean Zerman asked. "How are we going to rebuild our houses? This is a serious problem. Fraternity—what is friendship and how is it expressed? Formal Chapter meetings are very important. With fraternity and friendship you still have a business to run and it must be thought out.

"We have responsibility for each other. You should worry about scholarship early in the year for as a leader you can't just sit back and be popular on the campus. This is your opportunity to learn how to lead. Everything that you learn at your Leadership School is common sense, but you must think what the objectives are."

Tuesday afternoon was devoted to Archivist Lauren Foreman on his glowing "History of ΣAE " and a second general discussion based on alumni relations under the direction of Bill Hovan, Ill. Psi Omega (Northwestern) adviser. Sectional conferences followed that night after dinner at Willard Hall.

Wednesday morning, following sectional conferences, Director Nygreen delivered his message on "Leadership." Said he: "The leader of your Chapter, the EA, should trade credit for work; give the other member credit for what he does. Watch the scholarship. If a man is a leader in some field on campus but does not meet the scholarship requirements, speak up and keep that man out. Of course you will be criticized, but that you must take. A Chapter cannot afford a low scholarship man."

With a dreary, drizzly rain most of Wednesday in lieu of ideal weather since the previous Friday, a group photograph was arranged in the "Court of the Archons" following a conference on the initiation held in the Panhellenic Room with Jay Beck, Director Nygreen and ESA Hathcock taking part. This was followed by a pilgrimage to the graves of Past ESAs William C. Levere and John O. Moseley.

The Powers allowing, the ceremony went off beautifully with not too many members running to their cars for raincoats. Oddly there actually was no rainfall during the services. As of the previous week Archivist Foreman gave the memorial talk for Billy Levere. A prayer was given by Prentice E. Brown, Jr. of North Carolina Theta. The octet made up of Paul Wright, Jim Donahoe, LeRoy Banks, Bill Mitchell, Gary W. Goldenbogan, Lauren Stanley, Bob Colness and John Heilig, was led by George Kallusky. The memorial message for Moseley was given by ESA Hathcock and prayers were given by Charles T. Beneinger of Oklahoma Mu and Timothy Furlong of Indiana Gamma. "Longing"

THE FOUR HORSEMEN RIDE AGAIN!

With the advent of football season in the near future, the pigskin prognosticators are beginning to get out their tally sheets, while the s bring out the raccoon coats and money for tickets. Although the ative merits of various teams and players are yet to be proved on the diron, the SAE Leadership School has an unusual "eleven"---an experied "backfield" working with an eager, youthful "line."

The "four horsemen" of the Leadership School backfield---Brothers n T. Nygreen, Lauren Foreman, Charles F. Collins and Edward G. Hathcock, supplying the young, 260-strong, "forward wall" of the session with uable experience and ideas to carry back to their home chapters.

But who are the members of the backfield? QUARTERBACKING the entire dership School is its director for the second year, Dr. Glen T. Nygreen, hington Alpha '39. He succeeds Dr. John O. Moseley. Dr. Nygreen is n of Men at Kent State University and is Eminent Supreme Chronicler of raternity. This is his 14th year at Leadership School; he started as was sung by Bob Colness of the octet. The Levere floral wreath in purple and gold was placed by Jim Cairns of Washington Beta, Fred Losey of California Delta, Claude Grizzard of Florida Beta and Pledge Bob Francis of Vermont Alpha-Sigma-Pi. The Moseley wreath was offered by Joe Harper of California Kappa, Don Ward of Texas Gamma, Phil Barnhart of West Virginia Alpha and Jerry Endsley of Ohio Lambda.

The heavy rain cleared for the sectional conferences on Thursday morning. Past ESA Charles F. Collins presented an interesting talk with maxims in the Chapel and received a tremendous welcome. Richard Kinney, Ohio Sigma '47 (Mt. Union), who was scheduled to speak, could not appear due to illness. In the afternoon, ESR Smith again led a discussion on National Laws and Chapter Policy and Editor Don Gable discussed THE RECORD and Chapter publications. Thursday night a session on ideas for Chapter floats, skits, signs, parties, etc., was held under the leadership of Joe Walt.

On Friday morning Prof. Emmett B. Moore, Past ESA, gave an inspiring talk on "Where Do We Go from Here?" Moore was the first of the "Five War Horses" to be presented. The others were Past ESAs Charles F. Collins, Lauren Foreman, ESA Edward G. Hathcock and Director Nygreen. Each said a few words and received a rising ovation. Past ESA Moore's definition for formal education is "organizing human experience to develop the many desirable potentialities of the student; it stimulates self expression; it fosters self government and promotes responsible leadership; it encourages self development and it strengthens zeal for service."

According to Director Nygreen the best initiation ceremony he had ever witnessed at a Leadership School took place Friday afternoon with Joseph D. Phillips of Pennsylvania Chi-Omicron as Eminent Archon. W. Harold ("Dutch") Otten, Neb. Lambda-Pi '26 (Nebraska), placed the badge on his son, Robert R. Otten, of Nebraska Lambda-Pi.

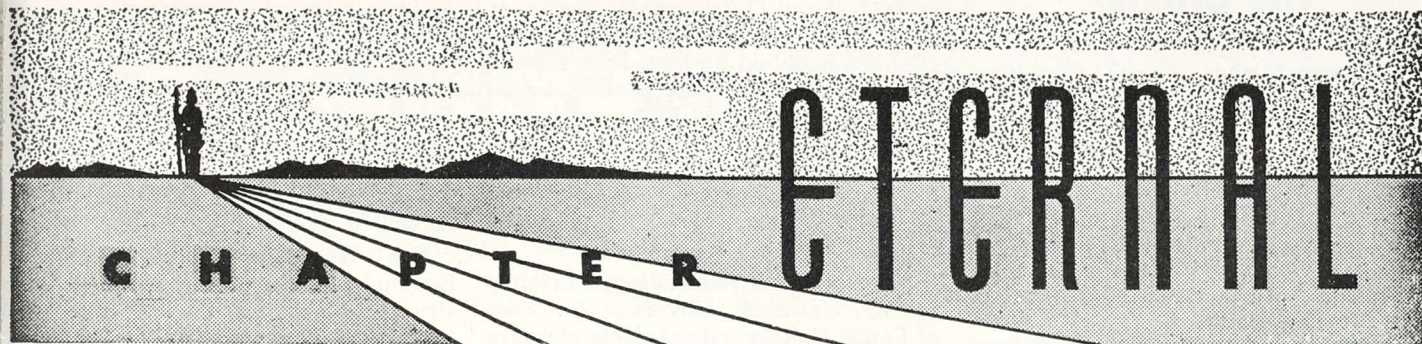

The nine other initiates were: Robert G. Francis of Vermont Alpha Sigma Pi, Michael McFadden of California Epsilon, Ray W. Rowney, Jr., of Pennsylvania Chi Omicron, Donald E. Walmsley of Pennsylvania Alpha Zeta, Ronald W. Kirk of Texas Alpha, Charles Leix of Pennsylvania Chi Omicron, Charles C. Hatcher III of Florida Gamma, Ariel Anderson of Pennsylvania Chi Omicron, Ronald F. Schaming of Pennsylvania Chi Omicron, Harry S. Chandler of California Kappa and Wofford Donahoo of Florida Alpha. Two hundred and sixty members attended the farewell banquet Friday night. The new initiates were welcomed with songs led by George Kallusky with Leo Terry at the organ. The prayer was given by Reverend Jeffords. Director Nygreen introduced the big brothers, Pledge Trainer Baugh, the pledge committee, the initiation team, the faculty, T. G. Blake, John Mock, former president of the Chicago Alumni Association; Glen French, association president; Frank Lindsey, Past ESA Emmett B. Moore, Temple Architect Knox and Luther Taylor.

Wins Zeal Plaque

The scholarship trophy for the highest ranking in one year was presented to John Joel Watson, EA of Kentucky Epsilon, whose Chapter had 12 representatives at the School. The John O. Moseley zeal trophy was presented to Gary Lee Adams of West Virginia Alpha whose Chapter had four representatives.

"John O. Moseley will live in our house," Adams stated. "We will try to stay on this 'road to glory.' As Province Archon van Blaricom says: 'To H with the glory; let's get the work done.'" Speaking for West Virginia Alpha, John Henry ("Wimpy") Stone asked: "'It' is a word of connotation. 'It' is a synonym; a word defined as 'brotherhood.'"

After Nygreen introduced The Hustler staff and the Founders playlet cast, Leo Terry referred to his many years with the School. The banquet came to a close with remarks by ESA Hathcock. "You should assume the attitude of a sponge and absorb all the Phi Alpha juice that you can but the important thing is not to let it get away from you but get it back home. Squeeze it out to your Chapter. While Phi Alpha juice is made at the Leadership School, we put Phoenix feathers in it, what they do to Phi Alpha juice shouldn't be done to a dog. It keeps steaming and never running out. The Phoenix sits behind, ever living, ever dying."

CHESTER A. GROVER

Ill. Psi-Omega '95 (Northwestern)

Iowa Beta, although there was no award to be presented as this Chapter had previously won it. Nebraska Lambda-Pi won the award for the most improved scholarship in Province Zeta.

ESR Smith presented the Chapter Efficiency trophy to Missouri Gamma and Pennsylvania Zeta, with Pennsylvania Zeta holding the cup for the first year and then to be passed on to Missouri Gamma. Honorable mention went to Alabama Mu, California Alpha and Indiana Alpha. Province Kappa Ralph Klindt presented the Publications Awards to Florida Alpha for the best newspaper-type publication with Wisconsin Phi as runner-up; best magazine-type to Georgia Beta with Kansas Beta as runner-up; best scrap book to Ohio Epsilon with Indiana Delta and West Virginia Alpha as runners-up.

Following the introduction of Governor Gary of Oklahoma by Hathcock, the new officers of the Supreme Council were installed by Past ESA Marvin E. Holderness. Hathcock then introduced Chairman Earl Foster again and called attention to the souvenir glasses on the tables given as gifts by the Oklahoma City Alumni Association.

Governor Foss Speaks

After being introduced appropriately by Mr. Hathcock, Governor Joe Foss of South Dakota indicated his pleasure of attending his first ΣAE Convention. The Governor said: "Now one of the first things that you learn in a fraternity, you worry about doing something about your fellow man. In this life you have to piece things together, you have to fit things together. You can be the smartest individual in the world but if you don't know when to put these things that you know forward, or to whom to put them forward, you are going to run into just a little bit of trouble."

In ESA Hathcock's farewell message at the banquet he stated: "Some wise man has said that service to our brothers and mankind is just the price we pay for being able to live here on earth. And I certainly subscribe to that idea." Hathcock then introduced Leo S. Cade as the new ESA, who said: "A fraternity Chapter continues on a campus only by invitation of the institution. A partnership relation must exist and there should be mutual and cooperative interest with the ultimate goal of both contributing to the education of college youth. A fraternity is composed of things material and spiritual. They are distinct, separate, yet both are important. One should not interfere with the right of the other although they should mutually support the other."

Distinguished Service Awards

ESA Hathcock then announced the awarding of three Distinguished Service Awards and Citations. The first award was made by Past ESA Lauren Foreman to Judge Walter B. Jones, Past ESA, who had made history by receiving one electoral vote for U. S. President in the last election!

Charles F. Collins, Past ESA and Acting Archon of Province Alpha received the Distinguished Service Award from ESA Hathcock, who announced him as Founder No. 121 of the National Endowment Fund. The third Distinguished Service Award to be presented at the banquet was postponed until the following day due to the absence of Dr. Edley Jones.

Past ESA Chester D. Lee then presented to Mrs. Edward G. Hathcock a silver table set on behalf of the Fraternity in appreciation for her efforts and her stimulation to ESA Hathcock for his work. In appreciation of the gifts for his wife, ESA Hathcock introduced his two daughters, April and Penny, and son, Gordy to the audience. Prior to the close of the banquet, Past ESA Foreman suggested that the Citation for Dr. Edley Jones be read in order that all would understand why he was to receive it.

The Wednesday morning session, September 4 was called to order by Retiring ESA Hathcock. The invocation was given by Past ESA J. Washington Moore. A telegram from Past ESA Albert M. Austin and a letter from Theta Upsilon were read by Hathcock. The Distinguished Service Award was then presented to Past Province Theta Archon Edley Jones by the new ESA, Leo S. Cade. Dr. Jones had been absent at the banquet due to the illness of his wife. ESR Smith then read a telegram sent to the new Honorary ESA, Neil H. McElroy.

ESH Nygreen led the final discussion and action on the report of the Committee of the National Laws, involving original proposals in Phi Alpha and revised proposals. One of the final reports was made by ESH Glen Nygreen regarding the setting up of basic libraries in Chapter houses, with the Levere Memorial Foundation bearing most of the expense and the individual Chapter bearing the remainder.

After again paying tribute to the Convention success to the Oklahoma City Alumni Association, and namely, Earl Foster, Norman Reynolds and Ralph Carlin, Retiring ESA Hathcock presented the tradition instigated by Past ESA Chester D. Lee, of handing down the badge of the ESA, a replica of the original badge, to the new ESA Leo S. Cade. Mr. Cade in turn presented to Hathcock on behalf of the Supreme Council a gavel engraved with Hathcock's name and his 1955-57 tenure of office as ESA.

After announcing that the Supreme Council would meet with the locals having been granted charters to plan installation dates and other matters immediately following the Convention, plans were confirmed in regard to delegates going by chartered bus to visit Oklahoma Kappa at the University of Oklahoma, Norman in early afternoon, in order to be back at the hotel and to check out for the special train for Chicago and to meet other transportation arrangements.

The Convention closed with the singing of "Friends" under the direction of George Kallusky and John Heileg. Thus the concensus of opinion was that it was one of the most smoothly operated, harmonious and hospitable conventions of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
