FLORIDA ALPHA—Just 15 years ago this month, February 22, 1946, this Chapter was installed at the University of Miami, Coral Gables. That year the university with the late Bowman F. Ashe, Ohio Sigma '01 (Mt. Union), as president, had a tremendous "face lifting" with construction work started on a great modern campus. Plans for a Chapter house started in 1951 and after much publicity and radical changes in architects' plans the present home materialized and was formally dedicated on November 29, 1957, with LeRoy Collins, Tenn. Lambda '31 (Cumberland), governor of Florida, officiating. Architect was James L. Dean, Fla. Upsilon '49 (Florida). One of the Chapter organizers and staunch supporter since is Foster Alter, Pa. Omega '31 (Allegheny), of Coral Gables, dean of men and national scholarship commissioner at installation time.—Color transparency by Le Man Studio, Inc., Coral Gables.

LETTER REFERS TO FOUNDER DEVOTIE'S DEATH 100 YEARS AGO

Through the efforts of Alex A. Lawrence, Ga. Beta '29 (Georgia), of Savannah, Ga., a photostat of a letter concerning the death of Noble Leslie DeVotie, principal founder of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the University of Alabama on March 9, 1856, has been placed in the Museum of The Levere Memorial Temple in Evanston, Ill. DeVotie, considered the first victim of the Civil War, was drowned at Mobile Bay, Ala., on February 12, 1861.

The original letter written by Marie McDonald to Mary Ann McDonald Atkinson (Mrs. Dunwody Atkinson) at Scottsborough, Ga., a hamlet near Milledgeville, on March 14, 1861, is on permanent deposit in the Georgia Historical Society. The brief mention of Founder DeVotie reads: "What a distressing case was that of the drowning of young DeVotie. Distressing to his relations and numerous friends but to himself, doubtless, it has proved a happy exchange. Had he lived there was every prospect of his becoming one of the most eminent preachers of the day."

Founder DeVotie was buried in Linwood Cemetery at Columbus, Ga., where the fraternity erected a monument at his grave in 1929. In commemoration of the centennial of his death the National Fraternity arranged to have a wreath placed at the site on February 12 (this month).

Mr. Lawrence is an attorney with Bouhan, Lawrence, Williams, Levy & McAlpin in Savannah. His book James Moore Wayne, Southern Unionist written in 1943 is in the Σ AE author section in the Library of The Levere Memorial Temple. GOLF IS MY GAME (Doubleday & Company, Inc., Garden City, New York) by Robert Tyre ("Bobby") Jones, Ga. Phi '22 (Ga. Tech.), is his own story of the nation's greatest golfer and gives a dramatic account of the grand slam year. Interestingly illustrated with photographs and sketches, it is a look at golf then and now. Mr. Jones, who won four titles (the U.S. Open and the U.S. Amateur and the British Open and British Amateur championships) in one year, gives a simplified approach to better golf and writes on gripping the club (with illustrations). The book includes drawings of the famous Augusta National course (with Jones' own hole-by-hole account). Fine multi-flash photographs demonstrate his masterful swing (several of these were reproduced in THE RECORD over the years). His basic principles show the golfer how to make the ball do what he wants. Jones' advice should prove invaluable to every golfer, pro or duffer. Mr. Jones practices law in Atlanta, Ga., and is associated with A. G. Spalding, assisting in the design of golf clubs sold under his name.

Is America Worth Saving?

By RICHARD D. AUERBACH, N. H. Beta '33 (New Hampshire), Special Agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, San Francisco, Calif.

"We all have a pleasant glow of self-complacency. We like our selves—most of the time. It's only when we have been proved to be inadequate that a doubt arises in us. But most of the time, naturally enough, we have the pleasant glow of self-satisfaction. Remember, Mr. Browning will always be known for his statement that 'God's in his heaven—all's right with the world.' We are all optimists. We somehow hope that if we close our eyes, the bad things of life or our inadequacies will somehow go away or dissolve like a bad dream without a conscious effort on our part. To my mind, this is a damning indictment and a fiction which we had better realize before it is too late.

"I am sure that all of you remember that a couple of years ago, General Albert Wedemeyer wrote a volume of personal memoirs entitled 'His Reports' on the fruits of American intervention in World War II. At one point he states, 'We Americans have failed and are still failing to examine all the implications of various courses of action despite evidence that power gravitates with awesome inevitability towards those who use it readily and effectively. We just seem to sit and wait for bad news before we act.' I think the General is correct. It seems that as a people we have become somewhat intoxicated in a rather gruesome way with nightmare visions of our epoch.

"Our persistence of seeing vague ghosts here and there on the national horizon and marshaling all our forces in the one direction to the detriment of the others is easy to understand, but it is a delusion that we must change. We have fallen prey to the idea that every instant there is a new crisis which can be beaten only by putting our total attention to the one point and withdrawing our goals on all others. I think as a nation we have become conditioned to this as being a natural way of life. You have had the same thing for the last few years. You have had all manner of deadlines to get this thesis in, and that problem completed, or that reading or experiment done. You have been pushed and pulled and guided and confined to a point where it will be a real shock to you to strike out on your own and chart a productive and orderly life and go on the aggressive. It will come to you. It does to all of us, but I am sure that it will be a shock. My only prayer is that the shock doesn't stop or stifle your forward motion, your aggressiveness or desire to continue in leadership.

"I think I have only one real quarrel with you who are coming along now to take our places. I think you know well what you are against, but I am not so sure that you know what you are for. I suspect that with all of the many problems and tensions, it will be sometime before you find out. All I want you to do is to hurry up and reach the point where you really will find out—a point where you will adopt and believe in the stable philosophies that have been time-tried in the development of the country and that you will stop jousting with the windmills or supporting the questionable causes that tend to weaken democracy. But abstract conceptions and chilly sophistication will not equip you to live in our dynamic age and to meet the problems. It will take more than that. Contemporary society, to my mind, has so concentrated on the control of nature, that they have forgotten the nature of man or the resources needed to further our own continued development. We have become tethered to a machine either to perform services for it or to receive with due gratitude its abundant products. This subordination of our personal life, to impersonal processes, has been taking place everywhere and to my mind has become a perverse development. We've got to change that. One of the principal problems, I think, of you men is to keep yourselves intellectually awake—curious—and questioning so you don't fall prey to this development. But since you are about to leave your colleges and universities, this 'no-doz' will have to be self-administered. The driving force will have to be self-generated. You know during college a president in essence writes to your parents and says, 'Madam, we guarantee results—or we return your boy.' After graduation, the guarantee is yours to maintain alone and whether you like it or not, the challenge sits there squarely on you to provide the necessary leadership if we, the country, are to survive.

"There is a most fertile field throughout the country for people with a strong feeling of responsibility for leadership. The void is wide indeed for those with the necessary high ideals in the creative end of life. Fifty thousand professional specialists are the minimum needed in the United States right now and every year.

"It's an awesome kind of responsibility that awaits you when you think about it. It springs from the growing complexity of our world and the widening aims of our interest but our concern it seems to me has to be less for power and more for the good life and consciousness of our fundamental principles than it has been. It isn't a question of developing or discovering any new philosophies, but merely our recalling and putting back into use the values of the old by which our ancestors in earlier times built creative lives and formed this nation by personal public service. It's the necessity to integrate our young people into the stimulation and the desire for an understanding of philosophies, traditions and public service. To fill them full of an urge to enter into them afresh so that mass and quantity are no longer taking precedence over mind and quality.

"I think the immediate years ahead will probably be the balance point whether we are to continue on and progress as the nation of liberty or whether we are merely to be another Roman or Byzantine Empire which was proved far gone in internal decay when put to the test of unexpected crises. You will remember that while their resources, like ours, seemed all but limitless, yet they were overcome and destroyed by barbarian tribes.

"I firmly believe that we've lost sight of the necessity for recognition of individual responsibility. We too often defer to the opinions of others with no thought as to where they are leading us. We lack the fortitude to brave the tyranny of general public opinion—or what seems to be public opinion and acceptance. I think now is the time for us to stand up on our hind legs—call a halt—and see where we are going. I'm not sure that I know exactly how to reform this situation except to change the whole mores of things that seem to fully occupy the interests of our people. Obviously, that can't be done. I don't believe anyone could change our preoccupation with risque pictures, TV death and violence, into the need for religious guidance, national tolerance, brotherhood, public service, and a number of other things. But, like the old philosopher once said, the way to begin is to begin.

Vision Is Narrowed

"A good expression of the challenge each of you is facing is a talk that was given not so long ago by Dr. Clinton Rossiter of Cornell, who phrased it as: 'Is it worth the kind of effort and sacrifice and devotion that transcends the ordinary lives of men and commits them to the pursuit of a higher collective destiny?' What he means to say by this, I am sure, is to bring to your attention the fact that most of us live what Dr. Norman Vincent Peale calls 'A life of quiet desperation.' As a nation, we get up in the morning, go about our daily tasks, come home at night, read the paper, watch television, eat dinner, and finally go to bed—day in and day out. We narrow our vision and our future to the problem of a serene security where the principal goal is acquiring enough money to do what we want to do, shoot a reasonable game of golf, have the average respect of our contemporaries, and a sufficiency of self-satisfaction. Instead, I am sure, that Dr. Rossiter is making an effort to have everyone think in terms beyond these things, and to have us continue to display our historic strengths.

"We continue to visit vast influence upon the masses of men everywhere. We are rich, powerful, creative, democratic, progressive and reasonably confident, and as free as any nation could expect to be in a world of envy and distrust. As he notes, if we can solve our problems and look forward hopefully to the time when we can leave our children an America worth saving, we will have made the grade. Dr. Rossiter, like myself, is very dubious about the possibilities and quotes it this way, far beyond my ability. He says, 'We are not entirely the prisoners of circumstances. Our future is not fixed on the agenda of history. With the belief that we can, if we try, there is a challenge that lifts us up to new heights of dignity. We will decide for ourselves whether America is a civilization worth remembering and thus a civilization worth saving, and who of us would want it in any other way?'

"I am sure that ΣAE has been built on this policy—and has selected you to keep that spirit alive and growing for the future. Above and beyond that, I am also completely certain that the country feels the same way."

PROVINCE CONVENTIONS

RHO

By C. DUANE KRAFT
Recorder

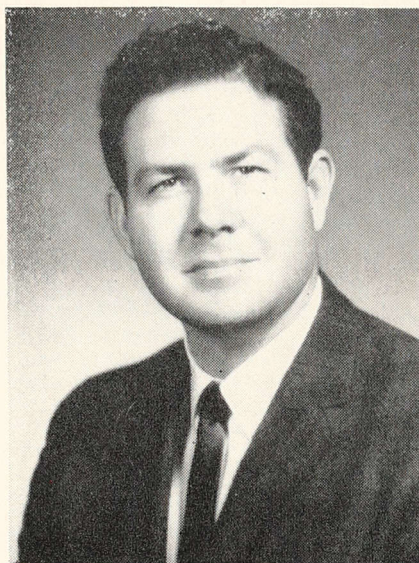

THE BIENNIAL PROVINCE RHO Convention was held in Fargo, N.D., March 26-27, 1960. North Dakota Beta, now in its new house, was the host Chapter. In addition to official delegates from each of the six Chapters in the Province, others in attendance were: Roy L. Miller, Eminent Supreme Chronicler, F. Ralph Hollands, Honorary Province Archon, David A. Lavine, Province Deputy Archon, Warren Lundsgaard, Province Treasurer, C. Duane Kraft, Province Recorder, Chuck Trangsrud, representing the Fargo-Moorhead Alumni Association, and several other unofficial representatives of the various Chapters.

In the absence of N. Thomas Clark, Province Archon, who was called home because of a death in the family, Dave Lavine ably presided over the Convention. After the appointment to, and meetings of the necessary committees, the Province officers individually gave oral reports of their past year's activities. These were followed by oral reports concerning the Chapters, given by the top-ranking officers present. These numerous reports were very enlightening, and gave an insight into the excellent status of Province Rho.

The Convention's most distinguished guest, Roy Miller, talked very inspiringly on the many problems presently confronting the numerous college fraternities, and urged that all fraternities, aided by continued fine ΣAE leadership, should ban together to meet these difficult times. He also devoted some time to the emphasis in fraternity life of: finances, pledge training, scholarship, and good public relations. A final reading of one of Billy Levere's stirring speeches climaxed his welcome talk.

A dinner-dance was held at the Moorhead Country Club on Saturday evening, and was attended by all those present at the Convention, along with their wives or dates.

Officers unanimously elected were: N. Thomas Clark, Province Archon; David A. Lavine, Province Deputy UPSILON ARCHON—Jerry P. House, Texas Alpha '55 (Texas Tech), of Lubbock, Texas, who is Archon of Province Upsilon (Arizona, New Mexico, Western Texas). He is with The Hille Agency, insurance and bonding specialists.

Archon; Warren Lundsgaard, Province Treasurer; C. Duane Kraft, Province Recorder, and Charles L. Horn, Honorary Province Archon.

The 1961 Province Rho Conclave, held in the odd year, will be hosted by Wisconsin Beta of Ripon College sometime in the spring. The 1962 biennial Convention will be at North Dakota Alpha in Grand Forks.

TAU

By WILLIAM H. NORTON
Province Recorder

PROVINCE Tau Convention was held at Iowa Beta at the State University of Iowa, Iowa City, April 22-23, 1960, with Clarke L. Wilson, Province Archon, presiding. Other officers present were Joseph W. Walt, Deputy Archon, Charles D. Gray, Treasurer, William H. Norton, Recorder, Dr. Chester D. Lee, Past ESA, and Roy L. Miller, ESCh. Delegates were from Iowa Beta, Gamma, Delta and Sigma.

Mark J. Stevenson, EA of Iowa Beta, extended words of welcome and Province Archon Wilson gave his report covering the period from July, 1959, when he was appointed by the Supreme Council to fill the vacancy after the election of Roy Miller as ESCh. Province Treasurer Gray submitted his report showing a balance of $871.75 in the treasury.

A discussion on alumni relations was held and comments made by Mr. Miller and Mr. Walt. The delegates of Nebraska Lambda-Pi arrived late in the afternoon.

Following dinner Frank Elges, Chapter Supervisor, led a discussion on scholarship. The meeting reconvened with South Dakota Sigma in attendance. The following day Deputy Archon Walt gave an explanation of the Latin pronunciation of certain portions of the Ritual. He also led a discussion on rushing and Province Recorder Norton discussed pledge training. The financial set-up of Iowa Beta was explained.

The Committee on Extension recommended that the Supreme Council be requested to remove South Dakota State College, Brookings, from the list of approved institutions; that there be a thorough investigation of Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls, as to its suitability as a domicile of a Chapter and that the Province Archon be directed to request on behalf of the Province, such an investigation, and that the Province watch with care the future possibility of an investigation of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Morningside College at Sioux City, but that no action be taken relative to an investigation of these institutions at the time.

Officers elected were: Province Archon, Clarke L. Wilson, Joseph W. Walt, Deputy Archon, William H. Norton, Recorder, Eames Irvin, Treasurer, and Dr. Chester D. Lee, Honorary Archon.

ESCh. Roy Miller discussed the matter of the Province sponsoring an outstanding pledge from each Chapter to the Leadership School but no action was taken. The Province moved to contribute $100 to the Founder Membership of Wilber J. Teeters and $100 within one year if the balance required was not raised through donations. EA Stevenson raised the question of a marker for Dean Teeters' grave. This matter was tabled until it could be referred to the Supreme Council for possible action.

The Resolutions Committee offered an amendment to the by-laws to read: "No officer of Province Tau shall serve more than two consecutive complete terms in one particular office of the Province." The committee also expressed its appreciation to the members of Iowa Beta and Housemother Seaman for the cordial hospitality extended during the convention and to Charles Gray for his services as Province Treasurer for three years.

The convention adjourned to the grave of Dean Teeters for a memorial service for all members who had passed to the Chapter Eternal since the last Province Convention.

Assistant Secretary of State

♣ George C. McGhee, Texas Delta '32 (SMU), Okla. Kappa (Oklahoma), of Dallas, Texas, former Ambassador to Turkey, was appointed Assistant Secretary of State for Policy Planning by President Kennedy in January. He formerly was Assistant Secretary of State. When Mr. McGhee was appointed ambassador by President Truman in 1951, he was recorded as the youngest ambassador in the diplomatic service, at the age of 39. Prior to that he had been a State Department adviser on Near Eastern, African and South Asian affairs since 1949. At the age of 25 he had become a vice president of the National Geophysical Company, an oil land development concern.

U.S. Navy Surgeon General

♣ Rear Admiral Edward C. Kenney, Ohio Mu '26 (Denison), Ohio Epsilon (Cincinnati), is to assume the position of Surgeon General of the U.S. Navy, February 15 (this month), after having been nominated by President Kennedy. He was announced in the November 1959 issue of THE RECORD as Deputy and Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery for the Navy. On the same date his son, James Warren Kenney, Md. Beta '62, was to take the office of president of the Interfraternity Council at the University of Maryland.

RUDY RECORDS COMEDY

"Is This Your Rudy Vallee?" is a high fidelity comedy recording by old-time crooner Rudy Vallee, Maine Alpha '25 (Maine), recently issued by Crown Records. It is a "side splitting" record from his nightclub shows with little attention to songs. The LP album is for laughs, not music.

MEMBERS of Sigma Alpha Epsilon who need help in finding positions may contact the following co-ordinators throughout the country. All inquiries should be directed to the alumnus in the city listed.

Alumni of Sigma Alpha Epsilon in business and who are in the position to hire men are requested to send employment requisitions to the co-ordinators in order that they may give more help to members seeking employment.

Why We Have A Ritual

By WILBUR M. WALDEN

Alpha Chi Rho National Secretary Emeritus

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another reprint from Fraternity Month

"The difference between a student room or dormitory and a Fraternity, other than the physical characteristics, is the Ritual. It is no coincidence that every fraternity in the country has a Ritual because the Founders of all Fraternities appreciated the difference. Rituals are not always alike but through them all there runs a similarity of purpose, meaning and poetic beauty. Some emphasize patriotism, some scholarship, some religion or a philosophy of some sort."

"The late great Dr. Francis W. Shephardson, BØII, was the one man in the NIC in 1937 who had the confidence of all member fraternities; the NIC, therefore, appointed him as a committee of one to investigate their Rituals and report verbally on their similarity. I had the pleasure of listening to him make that famous report from which the above is quoted.

"Alpha Chi Rho was founded in 1895 as a protest against the Fraternities at Trinity College which had degenerated into purely social clubs. Our Revered Founders founded a group professing life-long ideals with a willingness to live up to them. They wrote a Ritual and Initiation Ceremony which differentiates between a mere social club with a temporary membership from the Fraternity with a membership for life. With a few minor exceptions it has remained the same for sixty-five years; it has been like the Rock of Gibraltar. Under its guidance we have built an enviable national reputation among other fraternities. We have been at peace with the Fraternity World until outsiders, wanting to belong without benefit of belief, began hurling bricks of discrimination at us via the medium of a silly Pollyanna ideal.

"I had the pleasure of knowing quite well one of the world's greatest sociologists at Wisconsin—Dr. Edward D. Ross. I conferred with him personally in a fraternity survey for NIC. He stated repeatedly that it was impossible to make people live together in perfect harmony unless they had the common desire to do so. He claimed there were 15 per cent of non-socials on every campus and that they would not join a fraternity if they were millionaires and it cost a dime. People have to have common denominators to live together, literally, he said.

"Our Founders built better than they knew. It was impossible in 1895 to have anticipated the boomerang that has come about in this country by confusing legislated social relationships and economic relationships. They are wide apart and have no business being included in the same law.

"There is no such thing as an informal Council. To hold Council is to conduct it with Ritual. An informal meeting is just what the term connotes. With the exception of rushing procedure, rarely do circumstances demand such speedy chapter action that there is no time to conduct a Council. Generally the desire for an informal meeting is caused by the stronger desire to 'go downtown to see the first show.'

"There are a dozen or more reasons which an inefficient Ritual Officer or Chapter President allows the Brothers to use to postpone Councils and have meetings instead. A Council should be a pleasure—not a drudge, if the Brother has the proper attitude.

"It behooves a Brother to dress properly at least once a week to meet with the chapter and discuss chapter business formally and in accordance with parliamentary practice. Such procedure teaches one to stand on his feet, use good English in presenting his proposal logically. He develops good presence before his fellows. This is better training than he gets in the class room where at best he recites—not discusses. He will appreciate this when after graduation he deals with his business associates.

"Our brothers are familiar with these words: Let your conduct, therefore, within its bounds be that which be-seems a Temple.

"Unfortunately most of our Chapters have no Chapter Hall for the sole purpose of holding Councils. We are fairly successful in obtaining good Lodge or Church halls for Chapter Institutions. With the Institution completed, someone inevitably remarks about the beauty of the occasion. They are impressed because the equipment is new, the hall is neat and orderly, the Initiation Team knows its part, everyone is dressed properly, the atmosphere is tense with seriousness.

"Without proper leadership, without an appreciation of values, without a willingness and eagerness to practice our precepts, without our inspired Ritual to guide us, AXP will cease to be a Fraternity."—The Garnet & White

ANNUAL ALL AMERICA

By HARRY A. ACKERBURG
Ill. Psi-Omega '14 (Northwestern)

When a football team, which in 1959 finished the season in last place in its conference without winning a single game, comes back in 1960 to be called the number one team in the country by both AP and UPI—this calls for some kind of recognition.

With Minnesota finishing first in the toughest league in the country—intersectional contests prove this point—it was only fitting that Head Coach Murray Warmath, Tenn. Kappa '34 (Tennessee) was awarded the distinction as Coach of the Year.

What happened in the first half of the Rose Bowl game is another story, and the University of Washington is entitled to a great deal of credit in repeating its conquest of a Big Ten champion, the first time in history, for two wins in a row.

It is significant to note, however, that both Big Ten losers (Minnesota and Wisconsin) are the northernmost representatives of the Western Conference, and, if there are any excuses to offer, it could be that Pasadena climate is not to their liking. Just the same, it would seem that the University of Washington should be entitled to better than 6th place for their 1960 national rating.

Other Σ AE coaches who were given recognition included Paul Dietzel N.C. Nu '46 (Duke) of Louisiana State University, who coached the South squad in the Blue-Gray Bowl game at Montgomery; Jack Mollenkopf, Ohio Kappa '31 (Bowling Green), of Purdue who coached the North in the same game, and Jim Southerland Calif. Gamma '37 (Southern California), Wash. Beta, Washington State, who coached the South-West All-Stars in the Copper Bowl game. Phil Dickens, Tenn. Kappa '37 (Tennessee), head coach of Indiana, was given a vote of confidence when his contract was extended another four years.

As in 1959, the trend toward greater freedom in substitution continued to assert itself during the 1960 season, but it now seems that they will call a halt in returning to the original status that prevailed before radical substitution was outlawed in 1952. The current ruling allows participation for a greater number of players in the game. However, the game should be given back to the players, for who likes to see verbal (sometimes written) instructions going out to the quarterbacks from the sidelines before each and every play.

In reviewing the lists of players from ΣAE Chapters reporting, it is interesting to note that in 43 schools, the fraternity supplied three or more athletes to as many gridiron squads. A few of the smaller schools find it necessary to use freshmen, which accounts for the larger number of players in some of the institutions. All told, however, the fraternity is to be congratulated for the outstanding manpower it has supplied to this sport.

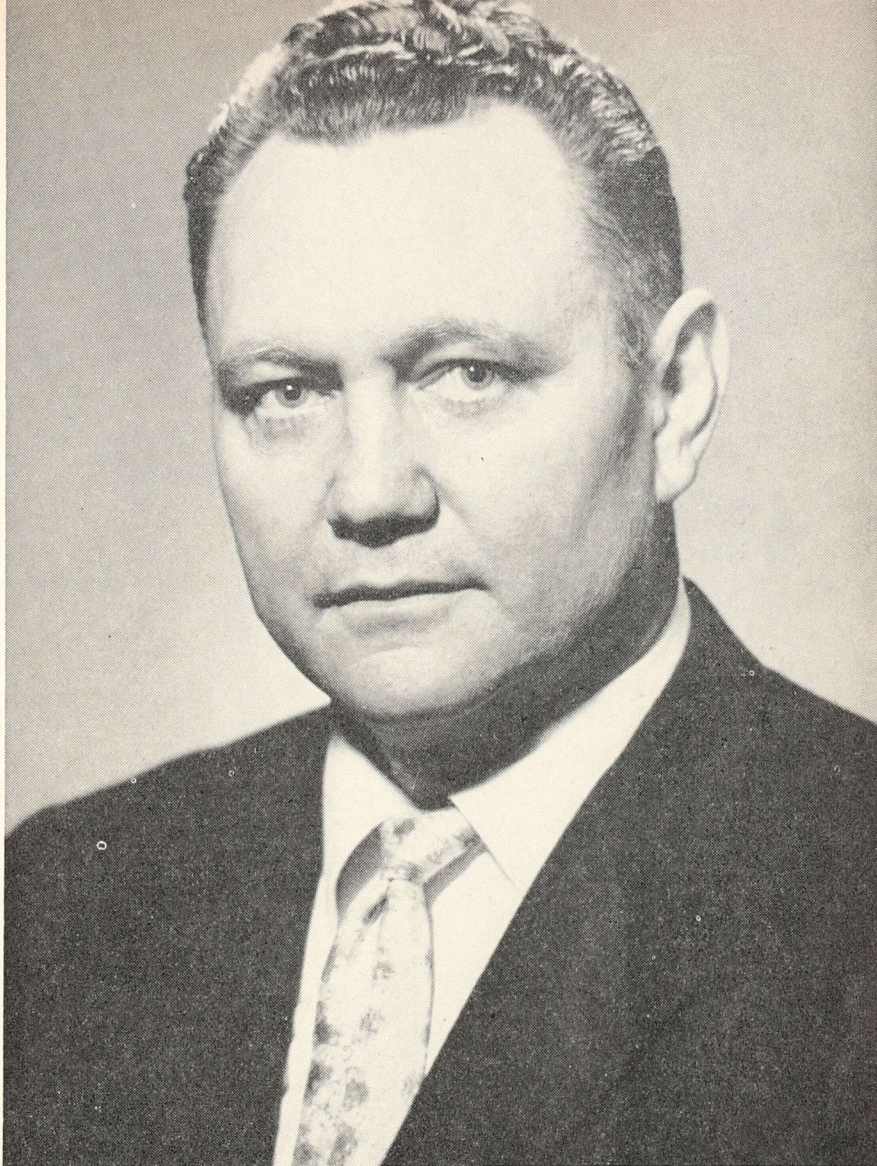

Although exceeded by the University of Massachusetts, who reported 19 ΣAE s on a squad of 46, it must be documented that Southwestern at Memphis once more continues to maintain its record as the most football-minded Chapter in the fraternity, with 17 ΣAE s on a squad of 36, for a percentage of 47.

Gettysburg came in a close third, with 17 players out of a squad of 49. The Chapter at little Adrian furnished 11 men, with football-minded Arizona and small Washington and Lee supplying 10 players each. Franklin was represented by 9 players, while Furman and Millikin came up with 8 each.

The Florida State, Kansas, Michigan and William & Mary Chapters contributed seven gridiron warriors, and it must be said that the Wolverines usually supply the largest number in any of the Big Ten schools.

Beloit, Georgia, Harvard, Kansas State, North Dakota State, Sewanee and South Dakota Chapters named six, and it looks like the Crimson will come up with an All America for next fall's team.

The Chapters at DePauw, Maryland (which holds a record for brilliant quarterbacks), Northwestern and George Washington gave five to the fraternity followed by Arkansas, Colorado, Indiana, Kentucky, Miami (Florida), Ohio State, SMU, Vanderbilt, Vermont, U. of Washington and Wofford with four each. And, of this latter group, the Hurricans look good for a 1961 All America.

Duke, New Mexico, Purdue, Santa Barbara, Tennessee, Texas Tech, Texas Western and Washington State complete the honor roll with three each, and again at least one '61 All America potential will be furnished from this group.

It does not follow that mere numerical strength on teams will produce the greatest number of stars, but it at least shows what Chapters are in there pitching in extra-curricular activities. However, it often happens that a Chapter with only one player on the squad, furnishes the standout player of the year.

Each year, it becomes exceedingly more difficult to keep certain of the brilliant juniors and sophomores off the three major teams, but in justice to the seniors (playing their last season), there just isn't enough room among 33 limited positions to consider any classes except seniors. Thus recognition in "honorable mention" assumes added significance in a fraternity as large as ΣAE . At any rate, every football player gets careful consideration, provided the Chapters are faithful each year in supplying the necessary data.

As so often happens, the ball carriers furnished the greatest number of outstanding stars. This of course includes the ends. The University of Washington, rated 5th by UPI and 6th by AP, furnished a logical selection at one end in the person of Pat Claridge, who was a starter and letterman on the Husky squad for three years. This year, he led his team in pass receiving, being one of the top pass receivers on the coast. He played brilliantly in both Rose Bowl games. A brother of Bruce Claridge (a 1958 ΣAE All America) he was much sought after by several of the professional teams.

Tennessee, another school that usually rates in the top 20 of the country, had two outstanding senior ends. Don Leake, currently at the university's law school, got the nod because was a three-year letterman and received number one rating from his Chapter all three of his playing years. He was considered one of the better ends in the Southeastern Conference, a "B" student, president of Tennessee's Letter Club, and highly regarded by his teammates. Larry Wilson of Miami (Florida) and Robert Mitinger of Penn State are two Junior ends who will bear watching next fall.

Seventh-rated Arkansas gave three-year regular tackle Marlin Epp, who was elected to the All-Southwest Conference second team his junior year. He and his full-back teammate, Joe Paul Alberty, performed well in the Cotton Bowl game this year and in the Gator Bowl game in 1959. The Razorbacks usually platoon two teams, but in the Gator Bowl win, he was asked how long he could play the second half without a breather. His answer, "The entire half,"—and what a game he played!

Captain Bob Hall, a senior at Kent State was appointed the other tackle spot. He not only gave a sharp performance on the gridiron, but did an outstanding job with his studies, as well. Elected to the All-Mid-America Conference second team his junior year, he also won the MAC heavyweight wrestling title. It's refreshing to have athletes of this calibre representing Minerva on a football team.

A converted center, senior guard Ted Urness of the University of Arizona was a first string player on his team since the start of his sophomore year. He ended his college football career, winning the Governor's Award for being selected the Most Valuable Player on the 1960 squad. It was the first time a Canadian has won the coveted award. He was picked to play in the All-Star Copper Bowl game at Phoenix, Ariz.

The University of Michigan's football-minded Chapter contributed the other guard in the person of Paul Poulos, a three-year regular. He played left guard on offense and middle guard on defense, playing more minutes than any other guard. He was second on the team in tackles, and first in assists—quite an accomplishment, considering he was in the middle of the defensive line. Paul also accepted an invitation to play in the Copper Bowl in Phoenix.

Among junior guards last season, the one to watch is William Swinford of Harvard. Center Cody Binkley from Vanderbilt gets the call for this position. A regular since his sophomore year, as a senior he played 60 minutes in almost every game. Equally effective in both offense and defense, he was considered one of the top pivot and senior years, quarterback Fran Tarkenton of Georgia is our selection to captain the 1960 ΣAE All-America team. Under his direction as a junior, he led Georgia to a Southeastern Conference championship, was nominated to play in the East-West Shrine game, which he turned down to play for his coach in the Blue-Gray Bowl game at Montgomery, and ended up in a blaze of glory in the Hula Bowl, where he won the Governor's Cup for the most valuable back. At last accounts, several professional football teams were fighting for his services.

Probably the greatest distinction earned by halfback Tommy Mason of Tulane is the fact that he was THE number one draft choice of

Calif. Eta Little Sisters

Following the example of California Delta at UCLA, California Eta at the University of California, Santa Barbara College boasts of one of the most energetic and stable Little Sisters of Minerva groups. Instigated by Ray Ward in 1958 the Little Sisters have gained a fine reputation on the campus. They represent six of the eight sororities and include the presidents of Kappa Alpha Theta and Pi Beta Phi. They stage an annual dinner, Christmas party and dance besides helping in rush, homecoming and parents' day. Reported by Pete Patrick, ECh.

Home-Town Honors Terry

Because Terry Dischinger, Ind. Beta '62 (Purdue), helped Uncle Sam win the Olympic basketball crown in Rome, Italy, and who himself won a Gold Medal in the Olympics, his home-town, Terre Haute, Ind., held a "Terry Dischinger Day" and the Mayor gave a proclamation. The affair started with a parade—the largest in the city's history, followed by a banquet, with a capacity crowd of more than 500, including special guests ranging from local people to Purdue officials to sportswriters to international Olympic figures. With top scholarship and record-breaking basketball in high school, Terry continued his athletic prowess at Purdue. As a record-breaking All-American center, he led the Big Ten in scoring with the second highest per-game average in Conference history. During the 1959-60 basketball season he was doubly honored by his teammates when he was named both "Most valuable" player and honorary captain for the season.

ROME WINNER—Richard A. ("Dick") Draeger, Calif. Alpha '59 (Stanford), former Eminent Archon, who has returned from an extended visit to Rome. There he and his two teammates won a bronze medal on Lame Albano in the Pair With Coxswain event. He had four years of Crew at Stanford and was in many campus activities.

Idaho Alpha Wins Trophy

The first victory of the season last fall for Idaho Alpha was capturing the all-campus intramural football trophy. The Chapter squad scored 139 points to two points for its opponents. Last fall the Chapter returned to a newly remodeled house with $30,000 in improvements including wall-to-wall carpeting, a new formal room, Stereo, trophy case and many other items. Rushing brought 23 top men as pledges. In October the 1960 Violet Queen was chosen. Thirteen co-eds, one from each group, competed for the title. Miss Pat Matheney, Alpha Phi pledge, was crowned. Her two sisters, Sharon and Darlene, were finalists in previous years. The Chapter's "Fabulous Four," composed of Dick Reed, Ron Miller, Dave Briggs and Larry Whitney, won the annual Dad's Day barbershop quartet contest. Reported by John Wicklund, ECh.

They had only six weeks to organize a full scale entertainment for American military bases in Japan but did it with the help of the telephone. The tour was arranged by Maj. Gen R. V. Lee, adjutant general in charge of military entertainment. Bob Sanders of Salina organized the group and started on the tour plans in Washington last October. Last summer the group performed in a Las Vegas casino.

Americans" (along with Fran Tar-kenton). Tommy made the winning touchdown in the East-West Shrine game, and also played in the Hula Bowl with our quarterback captain.

To Donn Mayoras of Purdue goes the other halfback post. A "B" student, he originally attracted his coach's attention as a sophomore for his brilliant defensive play. As a senior, he probably put in more playing time on the star-studded team than any player. Nationally rated 15th by UPI, the Boilermakers have always been a thorn in the side of Notre Dame, and, this year, was the only Big Ten team to take the measure of powerful Minnesota. When Donn completes the baseball season as a catcher, he will probably sign up with the Canadian professional football league.

Mike Stock of Northwestern, one of the smaller fullbacks on the Big Ten, must have thought he was a halfback because he led the league in scoring as a junior and was Northwestern's top scorer in 1960.

An inspiration to his teammates, he was elected captain both his junior and senior years. A corner line-backer on defense, Mike was one of the most versatile football players in Northwestern's history, handling kicking assignments on extra points, kickoffs and field goals. At the end of the season, he was voted the Most Valuable Player, and, in the North-South Shrine game at Miami, he scored the first touchdown and four out of five points after touchdowns. He has been drafted by the St. Louis Nationals.

It seems unfortunate that more could not be mentioned about the galaxy of other backfield stars. For instance, Dale Betty of Maryland who plummeted from third string to star in his senior year (Shades of Jack Scarbath, Bernie Faloney and Charles Boxold—each an All America quarterback at Maryland). And there is quarterback Tom Moore of Iowa, an extra point and field goal specialist, who scored 23 points his junior year. And there are the smaller schools that fail to get national recognition through their lack of intersectional contests.

But this article would not be complete without a vote of gratitude to Oscar Plunket, Jr. of Memphis, Tenn., who is always helpful with suggestions.

CHAPTER ETERNAL

FRATERNITY LOSES EDWARD G. HATHCOCK, PAST ESA

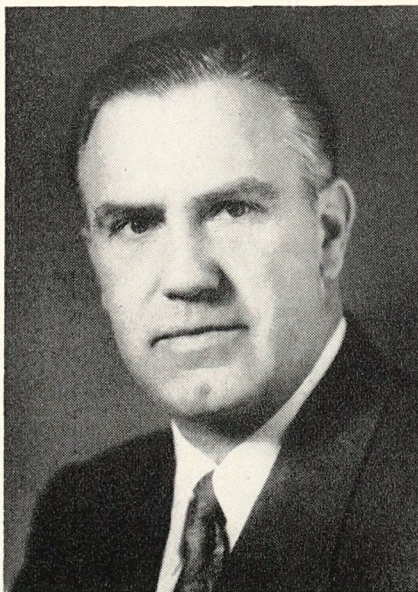

By DON GABLE, Editor

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON lost one of its greatest and youngest leaders on Sunday, November 13, 1960, when Edward Gordon Hathcock, Calif. Delta '31 (UCLA), Eminent Supreme Archon in 1956-57, died suddenly in his home in Beverly Hills, Calif. At age 53, he would have been 54 on Sunday, November 20. He was a charter member of California Delta and was the Chapter's first Eminent Archon when the Chapter was installed in 1929.

Mr. Hathcock's fraternity career started on a large scale when he was named Archon of Province Kappa, then comprising Chapters in Arkansas, California and Nevada, in 1942. Probably his greatest contribution to the fraternity's history came in 1956 when he planned the Centennial celebration and broadcast in Tuscaloosa, Ala., while serving as ESA.

He was named to the Supreme Council as Eminent Supreme Chronicler at the 91st Anniversary National Convention at Mackinac Island in 1947. He was elected to each office of the Supreme Council and was named Eminent Supreme Archon at the Chicago Convention in 1955.

In 1940 he was co-organizer of the Beverly Hills-Westwood Alumni Association. Getting into Province work, he became Deputy Archon for Province Kappa for 1940-42 and Archon for 1942-47. He had been a specialist in ritualistic work for ΣAE and had conducted most of the initiations for the three Los Angeles Chapters for many years and other Chapters in Province Kappa while serving as Archon. He also had been active in interfraternity work at UCLA and in Los Angeles. Prior to becoming a national officer Mr. Hathcock served as vice chairman of The Committee on The Alumni Program and led several alumni indoctrination schools on the West Coast.

Mr. Hathcock really began his fraternity career in 1928 when he was rush chairman and president of the local, Chi Alpha, at UCLA. He was sent to the national convention of ΣAE at Miami, Fla., in December, 1928, as a delegate of the local petitioning a charter and he was elected the first EA of California Delta, serving until June, 1930. He became pledge trainer for the new Chapter for 1930-31 and served as assistant Chapter adviser from 1931 to 1936, and as adviser until 1946.

In 1948 he was the main speaker at the Big Brother Active-Alumni Program inaugurated at California Gamma at the University of Southern California by the late Dr. George H. Kress, Ohio Epsilon '96 (Cincinnati), who was Honorary ESA at the time. The program was for California Gamma, Delta and Epsilon. In 1952 while serving as ESW, Hathcock was master of ceremonies at the testimonial dinner for S. Ernest Roll, Calif. Gamma '25, Los Angeles County District Attorney. He took part in the installation of Washington Gamma at the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, in November, 1951. While ESDA in 1953 he took part in the installation of Tennessee Sigma at Memphis State College.

In 1954 Mr. Hathcock was largely responsible for the production of an album of ΣAE songs, recorded by RCA-Victor in Hollywood. Mr. Hathcock guided Jud Conlon, nationally famous conductor-arranger in recording 11 songs as ΣAE sings them. The album in three speeds was extremely popular throughout the country and became a sell-out within a few years.

Plans Centennial

Initial plans for the fraternity's centennial celebration were revealed at the Chicago Convention in 1955 at which time Mr. Hathcock was named ESA. His plans in detail were carried with his signature in the November, 1955 issue of THE RECORD. In that same issue he announced the appointment of Lauren Foreman, Past ESA and ESR, as acting ESR following the death of Dr. John O. Moseley, ESR, in October.

With the Editor of THE RECORD Mr. Hathcock planned special issues of the magazine for February and May, 1956, during the fraternity's 100th anniversary year. The February issue carried the installation articles on California Lambda at Long Beach State College in November, 1955, and Texas Beta at Texas Christian University, in December, 1955, at which Mr. Hathcock was the installing officer. In December, 1956, Mr. Hathcock attended the 47th National Interfraternity Conference in St.

Louis, Mo., at which the fraternity had its largest Chapter and alumni representation.

ESA Hathcock appeared on the cover of the May, 1956, issue of THE RECORD, along with Tom McClellan, EA of Alabama Mu and chairman of the centennial celebration at the University of Alabama, who was shown receiving the key to the Devotie Memorial from the ESA at the dedication on March 9. More than 1,200 members and others visited the Memorial and Alabama Mu that day and 500 attended the centennial banquet at the University Union and at which ESA Hathcock presided and presented the recorded centennial broadcast heard in 100 cities throughout the country. The broadcast of the ΣAE Story was later distributed in a two-record album form throughout the fraternity through the efforts of Mr. Hathcock. The May issue also carried information on the installation of Texas Epsilon at the University of Houston in February at which Mr. Hathcock was the principal speaker.

The August, 1956 issue of THE RECORD carried Mr. Hathcock's announcement of the appointment of Rex A. Smith, Neb. Lambda-Pi '24 (Nebraska), as ESR, and Mr. Hathcock journeyed from the West Coast to install the ESR in office in The Levere Memorial Temple in Evanston, Ill., on July 19.

Mr. Hathcock attended the 22nd Leadership School in Evanston in August, 1956, and gave the welcoming and farewell messages. The school was dedicated to the late John O. Moseley, who created the session in 1935. A page of The Hustler, the school's publication, was devoted to Mr. Hathcock with the title "The Fraternity's 'Fraternity' Man." Following the school ESA Hathcock presided at the joint meeting of the Supreme Council and Province Archons. In November-December, 1956, ESA Hathcock attended the NIC at the Waldorf Hotel in New York City at which Charles M. Carpenter, Mich. Iota-Beta '17 (Adrian), president of the Board of Trustees, was elected secretary, and at which Dr. Fred H. Turner, Ill. Beta '22 (Illinois), Past ESA, received the NIC Gold Medal Award.

In May, 1957 ESA Hathcock attended the dedication of the new Wyoming Alpha Chapter house at the University of Wyoming in Laramie. In September, 1957, Mr. Hathcock presided at the 101st Anniversary National Convention in Oklahoma City, Okla., after attending the 23rd Leadership School in Evanston. The November, 1957 issue of THE RECORD showed Mr. Hathcock with his family (his wife, Agnes, son, Gordon, Jr., and two daughters, Penelope and April) receiving silver gifts from the fraternity.

Mr. Hathcock and his devoted wife, Agnes, appeared in the May, 1958, issue of THE RECORD when they attended the 102nd Founders Day celebration of the Los Angeles Alumni Association in March and at which the Edward G. Hathcock scholarship improvement plaque was presented. In April, 1958, Mr. Hathcock as Past ESA was an honored guest at Province Chi Convention with California Epsilon at Occidental College.

At the Los Angeles Alumni Association Founders Day dinner-dance in 1959, Past ESA Hathcock served as master of ceremonies. This celebration appeared in the May RECORD and Mr. Hathcock appeared with his wife, "Aggie."

Last Convention in 1959

Past ESA Hathcock saw his last ΣAE convention when he attended the 103rd Anniversary National conclave at Hotel Moraine-on-the-Lake in Highland Park, Ill., in June, 1959. He attended his last Founders Day celebration when he appeared at the Los Angeles Alumni Association banquet in March, 1960. His final trip to The Levere Memorial Temple occurred in September, 1960, when he was called by the Supreme Council for a day's session on Chapter matters.

Ed Hathcock, as he was commonly known, was a successful insurance executive in Beverly Hills. He was born in Covington, Tenn., in 1906. He is survived by his wife, a son and two daughters.

The funeral was held at the Pierce Brothers Mortuary in Beverly Hills. The ΣAE service was conducted with Prof. Emmett B. Moore, Past ESA, of Pullman, Wash., and Roy L. Miller, ESCh., of Des Moines, Iowa, taking the part of Preceptor and EA respectively. Calvin D. Smalley, former Archon of Province Chi, served as Chaplain. Dr. James K. Stuart, Chaplain of Rotary, gave the opening prayer and benediction. Burial was in Rosehill Memorial Park Cemetery in Whittier.

At the time of Mr. Hathcock's death he was president of the Beverly Hills YMCA board of directors, having been a member for 12 years.

He had been a member of Rotary since 1942, serving on the board of directors and as program chairman. Also at the time of his death he was chairman of the Research Committee of The Pasadena Conference, having long been active in interfraternity work on the West Coast.

LT. GEN. STANLEY H. FORD Ohio Theta '98 (Ohio State)

Lt. Gen. Stanley H. Ford, Ohio Theta '98 (Ohio State), U.S. Army, Ret., past Honorary Eminent Supreme Archon of ΣAE , died suddenly in New Bloomfield, Pa., January 19, 1961, after a long and distinguished military career. While holding the rank of major general, he was military attache in Paris, served in the Philippines, headed the 6th Corps Area, and was commanding general, 2nd Army-Office in Chicago. He was banquet speaker at the 83rd Anniversary National Convention in Chicago in 1939, at which time he was elected Honorary ESA. He appeared on the cover of THE RECORD in March, 1940, in full-dress uniform. At that time he was one of the 14 men to hold the rank of lieutenant general. Following retirement he engaged in work with the State Council of Defense in Albany, N.Y., in 1942. Funeral services were held at the Army War College Chapel at Carlisle Barracks. Burial was in Laurel Hill, Pa.

MISSING AT SEA

Lt. (jg) Billie M. Wertz, Ind. Alpha '55 (Franklin), U.S. Navy patrol plane pilot, was reported missing at sea following a plane crash off Newfoundland, December 21, 1960. The plane, a P2V Neptune, was on a fleet exercise when it crashed northeast of Cap Race, Newfoundland. Wertz entered the Navy five years ago. He was a star basketball player at Franklin.
